Away From Freedom

BENJAMIN FRANKLIN is credited with the following pithy comment: "He who would exchange liberty for temporary security is not worthy of either liberty or security."

Unfortunately, if that is strictly true, there are a great many very unworthy people in America today. The tendency of late has been to look to the government for everything from farm machinery to nutcrackers and from food to entertainment. That this drift toward paternalism is also a drift toward loss of true liberty is not generally realized.

Almost no success is ever won without hard work. The things easily obtained are usually worth very little. The age-long effort on the part of nearly everybody to get something for nothing has never met with success.

The relief and security so easily obtained by depending upon the federal government cannot be enjoyed without the certain realization that sooner or later we shall pay. Whether we shall awake in time to liquidate in a sound manner, accepting the necessary pain, whatever it may be with courage, or whether it will be necessary to undergo an ordeal of dictatorship before again getting back to freedom, remains to be seen.

disappointed OUTS plot for forcible overthrow of the government, and if they lose they lose their lives. If they win, the line loses their lives.

This writer, for one, greatly prefers the American way. We get frightened worked up over our politics, but we DON'T face firing squads when it's all over.

Let's keep it that way.

AVERILL BATS WAY TO LEAGUE'S TOP

CLEVELAND, Aug. 21.—(AP)—Part Averill, Cleveland's slugging outfielder, who learned his baseball on Sachemish, Wash., sandlots, held the American League batting leadership today with an average of .384.

His mark was two points better than Gehrig of the Yanks and Weatherly, his Cleveland teammate who were tied at .381.

Averill has slugged 181 hits to lead that department, Charlie Gehringer of the Tigers being second with 177. Averill also tops the league in triples with 15.

Think For Yourself

THE coming weeks are important ones for the American people. Many issues of broad political and economic importance to all of us will be discussed from various partisan angles. The newspapers, the magazines, even the very air will be filled with political pronouncements which will increase in volume as election day approaches.

For America faces a close race for the presidency with the result apparently a toss up. Because of this situation it is more important now than at any time in the last four years for every American to understand the issues of the campaign and the position of the candidates on those issues.

What shall we do?

Let us accept only facts—disregarding any efforts to befuddle the issues with a flood of words. Let us turn the full force of public scorn upon him who indulges in misdirection. Let us beware of political tricks to arouse class consciousness or appeal to mobilities.

Simple rules—but important. If we follow them we can cut through pretense to the real issues. Then and only then can we appraise the candidates upon whom we are being asked to vote.

Only when there is an informed electorate—unswayed by sentiment or by hazy words—can we reap the fullest benefits from the democracy under which we live. Your vote is just exactly as important as the vote of anyone else in this country. Treat it with pride. Do your own thinking.

OTERO CHOSEN AS SENATOR NOMINEE

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M., Aug. 20.—(AP)—District Judge M. A. Otero, Jr., of Santa Fe, son of one of New Mexico's territorial governors, yesterday was nominated by the republican party in convention here as its short term United States senatorial candidate. He was without opposition.

MARKETS

WHEAT
 PORTLAND, Aug. 21.—(AP)—After starting weak the market for wheat futures recovered and local prices were higher for May in the final today. Even the sale of 5000 bushels of May failed to check the advance. There was no change in cash wheat.
