SURPRISE SHOWER PARTY GIVEN MISS RUBY CLAKE ON WEDNESDAY EVENING

One of the largest and most charming surprise shower parties of the month was given to companion Miss Ruby Clarke, who will become the bride of Howard H. Marshall, Jr. of Marshfield, in this city tomorrow, August 22, when Mrs. Max Myers, Mrs. C. T. Tipton, Mrs. A. J. Ford and Mrs. E. A. Heimholdt entertained at the Tipton home south of Roseburg.

A mock shower party was presented early in the evening, which was cleverly carried out by water sprays arranged in a large tree. Later the many lovely gifts were presented to the guest of honor.

The bride is charming in a lovely gray lace frock with Diabonnet accessories and a coral and white corsage. She was attended by Miss Anna May Crath, who also wore gray with a coral corsage. Wilbur Cooney, brother of the bride, acted as best man.

MR. AND MRS. WARNER BAXTER

"Hollywood marriages don't last," assert the wisecracks. But the number of well-known film colony couples whose marital course has traveled on without interruption through the years tends to disprove the point. Jimmy Gleason, cinema comic, has been married 29 years and has a son 25. Jean Hersholt, "Country Doctor" fame walked down the aisle 23 years ago and Eddy Cantor has been an attentive husband for 22 years, during which time he has acquired five daughters. Warner Baxter and Winifred Bryson have been married 21 years and Harold Lloyd, who chose his former leading lady for a wife 13 years ago, has found Mildred Davis most satisfactory for leading lady of his home. Two couples whose happiness seems to disprove the contention that film celebrities cannot marry happily are Franchot Tone and Joan Crawford, and Ruby Keeler and Al Jolson.
