OREGON'S MINERAL OUTPUT CLIMBS UP

Value of 1935 Yield Put at $1,966,000; County of Baker Still Leads.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 26.—(AP)—The bureau of mines today estimated the value of Oregon's 1935 mineral output at $1,966,655, compared with $1,236,675 in 1934, an increase of $729,980.

The bureau said its figures, set forth in its 1935 minerals yearbook, were preliminary and subject to final revision later. The value of Oregon's mineral output in 1931 was $319,703. It was $415,627 in 1932 and $526,188 in 1933, the bureau's yearbook showed.

The bureau's estimates covered gold, silver, copper and lead from Oregon ores, gravels, and re-treated tailings, in terms of recovered metals. No output of zinc was reported.

The 1935 gold output was estimated at 52,929 fine ounces valued at $1,552,200, compared with 33,712 ounces valued at $1,78,220 in 1934. The silver output increased from 46,560 ounces, valued at $30,699, to 110,100 ounces, valued at $79,125.

The copper production climbed from 38,975 pounds, valued at $3,070, to 257,000 pounds, valued at $22,951. Lead output increased from 41,103 pounds, valued at $1,639, to 60,000 pounds valued at $2,400.

Baker county continued to be the leading metal producer. Substantial outputs also were reported from Grant, Jackson, Josephine and Lane counties, the bureau said.

Placer mines yielded twice as much gold as lode mines in 1934, and early estimates indicated that about the same ratio continued through 1935, the bureau said.

There were many placer operators who mined only a few weeks or months because of "the scarcity of water," the bureau explained. Large quantities of gold were produced by several dredging companies.

The larger part of the silver output came from the Cornucopia Gold Mines, Inc., in Baker county. Most of the copper came from two mines, the Balm Creek Gold Mining company, and the Cornucopia property.

PRUNE CROP PRICES UP TO GROWERS

The outcome of the 1935 prices for the prune crop is absolutely up to the grower, states W. C. Harding, secretary of the Roseburg chamber of commerce, in a bulletin issued today to the prune growers of Douglas county. The bulletin deals mainly with the one-fourth cent drop in differential and the attempt of the prune control board to establish this as standard.

"This board set prices only after contacting large and small packers, also canners, and getting a united and unbiased opinion from those gentlemen as to world crop conditions and market trends," Mr. Harding reports.

"Packers seemed to be unanimous in the idea that every five points from 35's down should carry a 14 cent drop and the prices were so established. The trade prices were immediately offered to the grower and sales confirmed. Very soon afterward one or two buyers began 'chiseling' and one firm, at least, made a cut of 4 1/2 cent differential between 42's and 45's, hitting our Oregon growers a body blow as this differential cuts all sizes 1/2 cent from 42 on down the list.

"Willamette valley growers consider this cut absolutely unjust, and called for an immediate action on this basis and are unitedly attacking to prune control board established prices. We Umquga growers must firmly resist these unfair prices as no possible warrant exists for them. The world supply during 1936 and '37 is just about large enough to fill the world's prune needs and prices should advance instead of weaken—provided always that growers stand firm and refuse to let packers work their wills in these outrageous differentials."

HATCHET MURDER OF GIRL CONFESSED

CHEYENNE, Wyo., Aug. 27.—(AP)—The casual remark of a youth arrested as a vagrant supplied a lead to what Sheriff George Carroll of Cheyenne hoped today was a solution of the hatchet killing of a 15-year-old Pueblo, Colo., girl.

Carroll said Joe Arddy, 21, orally confessed ravishing and beating to death Dorothy Drain and severely injuring her 12-year-old sister, Barbara, after invading the girls' bedroom at Pueblo early the morning of August 16.

Arddy, arrested yesterday in the railroad yards as a vagrant, remarked he was from Pueblo, Carroll said.

Carroll, recalling the Drain case, said he questioned Arddy about his knowledge of the hatchet slaying. Arddy speedily confessed, Carroll asserted.

Pueblo police said Arddy escaped August 8 from the state home for mental defectives at Grand Junction, Colo.

Sheriff Carroll said Arddy at first confessed he killed both Dorothy and Barbara Drain, apparently believing the latter dead. Barbara has been unconscious in a Pueblo hospital since the attack. She was beaten about the head and face.

Carroll said he asked Arddy why he killed Dorothy.

"Just for meanness," the sheriff said Arddy replied.

Carroll said Arddy declared he entered the Drain home after watching Mr. and Mrs. Riley Drain, the girls' parents, leave the house.
