M. E. LADIES WILL HOLD LUNCHEON MEETING ON NEXT WEDNESDAY

After their summer vacation, the Methodist Episcopal Ladies Aid will meet at the church for the regular monthly one o'clock luncheon and business meeting next Wednesday, September 16.

Mrs. J. D. Osborn, who has served for the past three years as president, has consented to serve again this year, with the assistance of twelve vice presidents—one for each month, since the organization has become quite large.

Each vice president is responsible for the activities during the month she serves. Since this New Deal has started, Mrs. A. S. Coen, the vice president for July, had charge of the reception for Rev. S. Raynor Smith, the new minister and his family.

Mrs. Paul Bubar, vice president for August, superintended the banquet for the American Legion auxiliary, and Mrs. O. M. Nicholas, vice president for September, was in charge of the rummage sale, just held Friday and Saturday of this week.

Envelopes were distributed to members at the June meeting to drop their spare dime in, during the vacation season, and are to be returned next Wednesday. The members are hoping that a large sum will be realized from these envelopes.

Monthly vice presidents for the balance of the year are: October, Mrs. Harold McKay; November, Mrs. R. H. Wilson; December, Mrs. R. L. Whipple; January, Mrs. John N. Perkins; February, Mrs. A. C. Marsters; March, Mrs. George Churchill; April, Mrs. Carlos Page; May, Mrs. Cole Owen; June, Mrs. F. W. Chase.

The hostess for the luncheon next week will be Mrs. Earl Wiley, assisted by Mrs. J. D. Osborn, Mrs. S. Raynor Smith, Mrs. A. S. Coen, Mrs. John Weatherford, Mrs. Edwin Booth and Mrs. Milo E. Taylor. The devotional program will be led by Mrs. Robert Lockwood.

STRONG BRAND STUDIO RE-OPENS IN MASONIC BUILDING FOR FALL

The attractive studios of Gladys Strong, pianist, and Mrs. Charles Brand, teacher of singing, have reopened in the Masonic building for what promises to be an unusually busy season.

Miss Strong, who has the degree of bachelor of music from Linfield college, is also a graduate of the New England Conservatory in Boston. She has studied with some of the best known American musicians such as Arthur Foote, Marguerite Melville Liszewska and Frederick W. Converse. In her teaching she has been successful with beginners as well as advanced students.

Mrs. Brand, Roseburg singer and teacher for many years, choir leader, and director of the B. P. W. C. club also secured her early training at the New England Conservatory and later with Gertrude Franklin, Mme. Deberg Lotgren and Yeatman Griffith of New York City. She is also successful in work with advanced pupils and beginners. Both Mrs. Brand and Miss Strong are equally interested in the students who intend to make music a profession and with the larger number who intend to take it up for their own pleasure and that of their friends.

Both Miss Strong and Mrs. Brand have been unusually successful in presenting students in piano and voice in delightful group recitals, individual recitals and interesting musicals over KRNR.

Both Miss Strong and Mrs. Brand have contributed liberally to many Roseburg programs by giving their own time to these entertainments, as well as presenting advanced students on the programs.
