WOMAN'S CLUB EXECUTIVE MEETING IS HELD AT CAMPBELL HOME YESTERDAY

Mrs. W. M. Campbell, president of the Roseburg Woman's club, held a special executive meeting at her home yesterday afternoon for the purpose of arranging details for the first fall meeting of the club, to be held next Tuesday, October 6, and other important matters of business.

Mrs. G. W. Syfan, secretary, read the minutes of the previous special meeting. The committee voted to assist other service clubs in the city in gathering clothes to be sent to Bandon.

It was announced that the first meeting of the second district of the federation would be held in Corvallis October 26. Three delegates from the local club will be elected to attend this meeting.

Plans were also made for the banquet to be sponsored by the club for the D. A. R. state regent to be held at the clubhouse October 20. Members of the executive committee will have charge of the dinner with Mrs. Foster Butler and Mrs. C. H. Bailey acting as joint chairmen.

At the tea hour Mrs. Campbell, assisted by Mrs. Scott Williams, served refreshments to Mrs. G. W. Syfan, Mrs. Thomas Parkinson, Mrs. C. H. Bailey, Mrs. Bertha Parrott, Mrs. William Bell, Mrs. A. C. Masters, Mrs. Earl Ulrich, Mrs. L. Kohlhaas, Mrs. Foster Butler and Mrs. Frederick J. Porter.
