GLENDAL, Sept. 29.—Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Henninger entertained with a waffle supper at their home on Willis avenue Friday evening. Covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. Walker E. Purvine, Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Harvey and the hosts.

MR. AND MRS. FEAT ENJOY EXTENSIVE TRIP EAST AND BACK

Mr. and Mrs. W. Feat have just returned to their home on North Jackson street, after enjoying an extensive trip east to visit relatives and friends.

They left Roseburg September 6 and went directly to St. Louis, Mo., to visit Mr. Feat's sister, Mrs. Louis John, and family, whom he had not seen for forty years.

After spending two days in St. Louis, they went on to Nokomis, Ill., to visit Mr. Feat's younger sister, Mrs. John Ruffing, and her family. Mr. and Mrs. Ruffing have three sons, Charles Ruffing, pitcher for the New York Yankees; Henry, pitcher for the Winnipeg, Canada, baseball team, and Lin, pitcher, for two seasons for the Boston Red Sox, who is off this year on account of his eyes.

On Sunday the Ruffing family had a reunion at their home and were joined by their sons and also their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Spence, of Chicago. Mr. and Mrs. Spence took Mr. and Mrs. Feat back home to Chicago with them, where they enjoyed seeing Charles Ruffing pitch in the game between the Yankees and the Chicago White Sox. They enjoyed having box seats at this game. While in Chicago they also visited Mrs. Feat's nephew, John Heatherington, and his family for two days.

From Chicago Mr. and Mrs. Feat went to LaSalle, Ill., to visit the latter's sister, Mrs. Loebach, Mr. and Mrs. William Heatherington, of Benton Harbor, Mich.; Mr. and Mrs. Mike Heatherington, of Buchanan, Mich.; Mr. and Mrs. John Heatherington, of Chicago, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Loebach, of Chicago, sons and daughters of Mrs. Loebach, were present at LaSalle for a reunion on Sunday of that week. The group was also joined by Mrs. Feat's sister-in-law, Mrs. John Dittie and her children from Oglesby, Ill., besides a large number of other relatives and close friends.

At Peru, Ill., they visited Mrs. Feat's cousin, Mrs. Anna Scheiner and her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. John Merthia, and many friends.

While in Peru Mr. and Mrs. Feat enjoyed visiting the Western Clock plant, where Mrs. Feat was employed forty-four years ago. The plant employed thirty people when Mrs. Feat worked there and now has three thousand employees. Robert Patton, who had charge of the plant at the time Mrs. Feat worked there, is still in charge, having served with the company for the past fifty years. Mr. and Mrs. Feat were entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Patton during their stay in Peru. The plant has grown from a small building to a large plant covering ten acres of ground.

After leaving the east Mr. and Mrs. Feat went to St. Paul, Minn., where they remained overnight and then left for the west coast, stopping at Everett, Wash., to visit their son, Louis Feat, and in Chehalis to visit Mr. Feat's nephew, Frank Muller, and family. From Chehalis, they returned to their home in Roseburg.
