Each Issue of the News-Review Is Filled With Interesting News Stories, Features, Pictures and Advertising.

Each issue of the News-Review is filled with interesting news stories, features, pictures and advertising.

Is a presidential campaign being waged? The News-Review will give you all the particulars. Is a war being fought anywhere? The News-Review will tell you about it. Douglas county news? Your News-Review is full of it.

Frank Jenkins' Comment on the Day's News—Harris Ellsworth's editorials — Paul Jenkins' Ramblings—Charles Stanton's Monday Farm page—Lotus Knight Porter's society—Deacon Richmond's Headlines—KRNR programs—the comics — all these interesting features appear with others in the News-Review for your information and entertainment.

A year's subscription brings you more than 2100 pages of reading material, each page 8 columns wide by 20½ inches long—a volume weighing over 30 pounds—and it costs you only a trifle over a cent a day by carrier; less than a cent by mail.

For this small cost you can keep yourself informed on what is happening not only in your own community, but in others throughout the world.
