ing medicated herbs of Van-Tage. According to druggists at Fullerton's Rexall Drug Store, no other medicine has ever created so great a sensation here, and a flood of testimonials is pouring in from every part of the state.

One of the many Oregon people who testify to the great powers of Van-Tage is Mrs. Joseph Baldwin, Jefferson, Ore. (photograph above). Read Mrs. Baldwin's remarkable statement:

Bloated With Gas

"All the food I ate seemed to turn sour and form gas which bloated me up. At times I could hardly get my breath because of this awful gas pressure, and I had to take baking soda almost constantly. My bowels were sluggish and constipated, too, and I always had a heavy, depressed feeling in the lower part of my stomach and intestines."

"I had just about given up hope when I heard about Van-Tage, and what it was doing for others, so I made up my mind to get some and try it. I can truthfully say this Great Medicine has done more for me than everything else PUT TOGETHER. Now I can eat most anything I want, and no gas or bloating afterward. I am more than glad to endorse Van-Tage for what it has done for me."

SMITH COMES OUT FOR GOV. LANDON

The 3,000 seats in the hall. Hecklers Anger Crowd

Two, hecklers interrupted the address. "Won't you please explain why you did not agree with the people that turned against Roosevelt?" shouted a man in the second row, when Smith pictured himself as having defended Roosevelt when "almost every other leader in the state was against him."

Some shouted threats to throw the heckler out bodily; but Smith replied:

"That is a rather complicated question. You had better put it in better English. I don't get it. One minute, I have the platform. After I get finished you can get up here and have as much as you want to say."

Just as Smith's declaration for Gov. Landon was being applauded, a heavy-set man in the left center of the orchestra shouted that former Mayor James J. Walker had shown he could "take it" with more grace than the once "Happy Warrior." Smith's radio time was ended, and he made no reply; but the shouting crowd headed for the heckler.

There was no actual violence, however.

MOORS USED AS BUGABOO IN WHISPER CAMPAIGN By RICHARD G. MASSOCK. (Copyright, 1936, by the Associated Press)

TOLEDO, Spain, Oct. 2.—(AP)—Artful fascist commanders added a whispering campaign and the baleful roar of cannon to their military drive against Madrid today.

Insurgent officers disclosed Gen. Francisco Franco hopes to substitute "fear for force" in the onslaught against the capital toward which three fascist columns are pushing.

The high command is maneuvering its forces close to Madrid, on both the north and south sides, in an attempt to place artillery batteries near the suburbs, the general staff declared.

Once in position, the gunners would bombard the outskirts, the officers predicted, to throw suburban residents into a panic and start a general movement into the city.

Coupled with the barrage—which might be more noisy than deadly—would be a whispering campaign that "the Moors are coming," the lieutenants of the fascist military commander said.

They asserted fear over a projected invasion of the capital by the Moorish legionnaires in the insurgent columns was growing daily in Madrid.
