MRS. AND MRS. HARDING ENTERTAIN AT LARGE DINNER PARTY THURSDAY

One of the largest and most charming affairs of the season was the seventy-fifth o'clock venison dinner party given by Mr. and Mrs. A. Harding at the Hotel Umpqua Thursday evening, when they entertained forty-four of their friends.

The apartment of Mr. and Mrs. Harding was lovely with huge baskets of zinnias in lovely autumn shades and bouquets of chrysanthemums. The guests enjoyed the cocktail hour in the apartment, after which the dinner was served in the civic club room of the hotel.

One long table was used to seat the forty-four guests. The table was beautifully decorated in a color scheme of orange and black and the courses of the dinner carried out the same attractive motif. The centerpiece, an oblong black bowl filled with orange zinnias and French marigolds, was matched by identical bowls at both ends of the table. The flowers were interspersed by four sets of double tapers in orange and black. About the rooms were large baskets and bouquets of greenery, fall flowers and palms.

Contract bridge followed the enjoyable dinner hour in the civic club room with ten tables in play. Mrs. M. L. Bricker won the ladies' high score prize with Lt. Paul Fankhouser winning the men's prize.

U. S. V. HOSPITAL

By OTTILIA K. ASHTON
Our September birthday party, sponsored by the state department of the American Legion auxiliary, was held Tuesday evening in the Recreation building. The men certainly enjoyed playing monopoly, the thrill of spending the paper money recklessly made the minutes slip by much too fast. Each guest was presented with a package of cigarettes and delicious individual birthday cakes with ice cream were served at the close of the evening. Invitations were extended to the following men who had birthdays during the month of September: Charles E. Cole, Fred H. Donaldson, Howard Heman, Ollie Jacobs, Richard Kersey, John Kilborn, Arthur Murphy, Mark Noble, George H. Bennett, Robert Bristow, Harry Gill, Wallace Jordan, T. L. Petersen, Ray Sanson, Chester Smith, Turo Sunell and Howard Ternan.

A Friday evening proved to be a gay time for the barracks members when they were all invited over to the Recreation building for a "watermelon feed" sponsored by the state department of the American Legion auxiliary. Mrs. Riegel, state hospital chairman, was assisted by members of the local post and their auxiliary. We were happy to add to the occasion by securing a five-piece orchestra to play during the evening. This was arranged through Leary Orth, one of our own members. Mrs. Oscar Waterman was at the piano. Eugene Waterman played the trombone, Dick Riddle, the trumpet, Leary Orth the saxophone and Erskal Waterman the drums.

Much interest has been shown in the world series baseball games and we had a large gathering around the radio in the Recreation building for the opening game Thursday morning. The men enjoyed the cigarettes and candy passed during the game, the gift of the state American Legion auxiliary. A large gathering also enjoyed the Friday game with the same treat repeated.
