

INDIANS DRILL TO BATTLE MEDFORD

Football Game Scheduled Saturday; Dishman Adds Power to Locals.

The Roseburg senior high school Indians have been engaging in tough drill sessions for the past week to strengthen defenses against passes and reverses in preparation for the football game scheduled for Saturday afternoon at Medford. The Medford high school team is reported to be heavy and to have a fast passing attack which swamped Crescent City 19 to 0 last week.

Injuries will keep Fick, end, and Brisco, guard, out of Saturday's game, as both are suffering from sore ankles.

Dishman, halfback; Plaisted, end; Harold Denny and Hatfield, tackles; Kirchner, guard; Hoyte, halfback, and Helmbolt, center, are reserves who will probably see action in Saturday's game, Turner reports.

Dishman Labeled "Find"

Dishman, the coach says, promises to be the "find" of the season. Playing his first year at football, Dishman has been doing some sensational ball totting in practice scrimmages, and will probably be given a chance to strut his stuff before Medford.

The Medford game is to start at 2 p. m., and it is expected a large crowd of Roseburg fans will be in attendance. Arrangements have been made to take a large number of students by bus.

Following the Medford game, the Indians will play three consecutive weeks at home, meeting Cottage Grove, University high of Eugene and Marshfield in Friday night games on Flinley field.

The last two games of the season will be played at Grants Pass, Nov. 11, and at Springfield, Nov. 20.

CO. D ENTERTAINS LADIES AT SOCIAL

Company D, 162nd infantry met last Monday night for a short drill practice and finally the Philippine men were host to their wives and lady friends for a social hour.

During the business session, three new recruits were added: Harold W. McCormack, Fred M. Toler and Harry Collier. Private Faulkner was promoted to the position of corporal. A close order drill under supervision of Lt. Irving and a machine gun drill under supervision of Sgt. H. O. Peterson, comprised the actual drill duty of the evening. Corporal Donald R. Gully and Private Richard D. Calhoun are now attending R. O. T. C. All members were present with the exception of Richard S. Crenshaw, E. A. Gardner, W. M. Chamberlin, George E. Farris, Dale E. Jefferson, Glen McDaniel, Edgar C. Raynor, Clorice D. Taylor and D. D. Turner.

Sgt. Wallace C. Robertson was master of ceremonies for the social hour. The first number on the program was selection of songs accompanied by the guitar by Helen White and Judith Hodges. The guardsmen and their wives then adjourned to enjoy games and light refreshments.

CLIPPER WELCOMED AT HONOLULU PAUSE

By CHARLES E. HARNER (Associated Press Staff Writer.) HONOLULU, Oct. 8.—(AP)—With 17 hours and 48 minutes actual flying time behind us, the China clipper alighted here shortly after the scarlet dawn amidst songs, and handclaps of greeters.

Great lots were hung about our necks by Hawaiian girls as we stepped out on the landing flat after the 2,400-mile flight. Officials followed with congratulations on the completion of the preliminary passenger flight to Honolulu, en route to Manila, from Alameda, Calif.

Five newspapermen comprised the party which is previewing the skyway to the orient which soon will be traversed in the first regu-

PACIFIC COAST FOOTBALL NEWS

CORVALLIS, Ore., Oct. 8.—(AP)—Oregon State freshmen today were in a position to know just how tough the Beavers will be at Portland Saturday when they make their second conference start of the season in a struggle against the Golden Bears of California.

Yesterday the yearlings became "California" and were rushed off their feet by the hard-working Beaver varsity.

As the team's smoothness improved, Coach Lon Stiner was more and more inclined toward guarded comments on an upset at Portland Saturday.

EUGENE, Ore., Oct. 8.—(AP)—Weakened by injuries in the line and backfield, the University of Oregon Webfoots entrain for Palo Alto today for a conference game Saturday against Stanford.

Both the Webfoots and the Cardinals are virtually eliminated from the conference title hunt. Oregon dropped a contest to Southern California and Stanford was noed out by Washington State.

Coach "Prink" Callison said last night he would start Jean Lacau, 203 pounds, at fullback in place of Bud Goodin, hurt in the U. S. C. contest.

BERKELEY, Calif., Oct. 8.—(AP)—Thirty-five University of California football players, pronounced in top condition after three days of grueling scrimmage, will entrain tonight for Corvallis where Saturday they open their conference schedule against Oregon State college.

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 8.—(AP)—Looking for an experienced defensive backfield player, Coach Spaulding may start shift little Don Ferguson, a 1945 U. C. L. A. reserve, against Washington Saturday.

Spaulding was none too pleased when a scrub team using Husky plays marched through the variety in a scrimmage this week, and may use Ferguson as a more senlar passenger flight.

Our flight from Alameda over 8,000 miles to Manila by way of tiny island bases is preliminary to the start of regular passenger service October 21.

From Honolulu, we will fly to Midway island, thence to Wake, Guam and finally the Philippine capital, five days from Alameda in this mighty four-motored flying boat.

As we flew at 9,000 feet late yesterday into a blazing sunset, we were given an insight into one phase of the operation of the China clipper.

Pilot-Navigator G. H. King dropped three sighting bombs over the board, and through telescopic lens we watched powdered aluminum spread on the ocean's surface, indicating the wind drift.

Timm suffered painfully bruised hip and Hill received a shoulder injury.

MOSCOW, Ida., Oct. 8.—(AP)—Coach Tom Hood promised his University of Idaho football squad an intensive scrimmage season again today against Washington State college plays in preparation for Saturday's traditional game here.

In practice last night, George Canales, freshman, backfield ace, was playing the role of "Ed Goddard," as Coach Hank primed his Vandals to stop the Cougar ace who packed the ball on 39 of W. S. C.'s 51 plays in last year's game.

PULLMAN, Wash., Oct. 8.—(AP)—Coach Hollingbery disclosed a hand today with a few tricks for his Washington State gridders to spring at Moscow, Idaho, Saturday.

The Cougars meet the University of Idaho in their annual game, and Hollingbery said he hoped to have his lineup and bag of tricks at their peak. Drill this week has concentrated on forward pass defense and new scoring plays.

PALO ALTO, Calif., Oct. 8.—(AP)—A knee injury Fullback Glen Hamilton suffered in the Washington State game will keep Stanford's ace passer and kicker on the shelf for at least three weeks and perhaps the entire season, said Team Physician E. F. Booth.

Stanford will play University of Oregon here Saturday.

WHEAT

PORTLAND, Oct. 8.—(AP)—Widespread betterment in wheat prices reflected itself in the Thursday sessions here with a rather considerable volume of Manitoba business confirmed. Local business remains quiet. On the Portland futures market, without trading, December and May were 1 cent higher. On the sample cash market local wheat gained 1c and Montana 2c bushel.

N. W. CONFERENCE GAMES SCHEDULED

By the Associated Press.

With only one league game scheduled for the week-end, the northwest conference will enter its third week of play tomorrow night, Willamette and Whitman resting at the top of the seven teams.

Linfield, undefeated but tied once, will play Pacific university at Forest Grove tomorrow night, in the latter's first conference start.

Willamette, which last week held Oregon State college to a 13 to 0 win, will tackle another tough one at Salem tomorrow night when it meets the University of Nevada.

In the only other Friday night game Albany, which has failed to score a point in two starts, will play host to the Oregon Institute of Technology.

Saturday night two more non-league affairs are scheduled, with a strong University of Portland team playing Puget Sound at Tacoma and Whitworth playing Whitman at Walla Walla.

Only the College of Idaho will be idle this week-end.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Oct. 8.—(AP)—Harry H. Woodring, secretary of war, said today he believed the United States would accept an isolation policy rather than become involved in war.

Speaking before the annual convention of the National Guard association of the United States, Woodring said in his prepared address that "the desire for peace has never been so universal among our people" and described President Roosevelt as "a great champion for the cause of peace."

The war secretary called the neutrality act "a unique example along maritime powers of the world in renouncing the rights of its citizens to trade and travel as they are fully authorized to do by the rules of international law."

"We contemplate this sacrifice," he said, "as a further effort to keep this country at peace."

"I firmly believe," he said, "that we can have a reasonably free flow of goods between this nation and many other nations through the development of policies mutually beneficial, and do so without in any way endangering peace. But,

SAYS U. S. PREFERS ISOLATION TO WAR

mark you, if isolation is thrust upon us as the only alternative to becoming embroiled in wars of others, I am certain we will accept it."
