Tweeds Smart for Daytime This Autumn

Either in town or for week ends in the country, tweeds are much in favor this fall for daytime wear. Dixie Dunbar is sporting a dress which should appeal to the young miss of school or college age. The fabric is in mannish tones of black, gray and white. It has a pin-tucked bodice panel and a rolled collar lined with Chinese red. The black frock that Ginger Rogers is sporting gets its smartness from its severely simple lines. It is made of black crepe and has the new flared skirt silhouette with an accordion pleated ruffle to add to the fullness. Claire Trevor is one of the Hollywood stars who has abandoned lounging pajamas for the more feminine house coat. It is of black faille embroidered in quaint bunches of white silk flowers with deep red leaves.
