HARVEST HOME DINNER
IS LARGE AND ENJOYABLE
AFFAIR OF MONDAY NIGHT

The Harvest Home annual dinner of the Methodist Episcopal church was held at the church parlor Monday evening at the church parlor with the Ladies Aid members acting as hostesses. Mrs. H. D. McKay, vice president of the Aid for October, was general chairman of arrangements.

Fifty visiting ministers and laymen from various parts of the district were present. The tables were decorated by pumpkins in the shape of baskets and filled with polished apples and grapes, while sprays of colorful vines trailed the length of the tables.

The walls were colorful with huge sprays of bright autumn leaves and foliage. Mrs. Ned Dixon and Mrs. E. E. Applewhite had charge of the decorations.

The auditorium of the church was filled to capacity for the meeting, which followed the dinner. Bishop Titus Lowe, who is well known here, and Bishop Eben F. Johnson, who just recently retired after serving for thirty-five years as a missionary in Africa, were guest speakers.

A musical program by the choir and a solo by Leroy Hiatt and numbers by the sextette were greatly enjoyed.

MRS. E. S. HALL IS HOSTESS TO SEWING
CLUB ON FRIDAY

Mrs. E. S. Hall entertained her sewing club at a charming evening thirty o'clock dinner-luncheon yesterday at her home on Harvard avenue. The Halloween motif was attractively used on the serving tables, where covers were placed for Mrs. Harold Bellows, Mrs. Clyde Carstensen, Mrs. A. B. Taylor, Mrs. Willie Myers, Mrs. E. G. Randolph, Mrs. C. H. Thurston Jr., Mrs. Earl Wiley and the hostess, Mrs. Hall. Sewing and visiting were enjoyed during the pleasant afternoon hours. The club will hold its next meeting at the home of Mrs. Wiley on November 13.

Campfire Activities

Ah-Neah-Nika

A business meeting of the Ah-Neah-Nika camp fire group was held at the home of Miss Edna Brown Monday and new officers elected include: president, Virginia Young; vice-president, Mary Nancy Roberts; secretary, Phyllis Nelson; scribe, Louise Smith; treasurer, Faith Young; and Sgt. at arms and song leader, Carolyn Allen.

It was decided that members attending any meeting in clothing other than a middie and skirt, would be fined one cent and any one forgetting to bring their penny in payment of the fine, would be penalized by having to entertain the group at a party. Plans were discussed for a Co-ed ball. A practice dance will be held at the home of Phyllis Nelson, October 26, at 7:30 in the evening.

The Flower Garden Bluebird group of the Ah-Neah-Nika held a meeting at the home of Muriel Butler in Laurelwood. A short business meeting was followed by outdoor games and later delicious refreshments were served to Betty and Sally Smith, Nona Belle Bruton, Shirley Mae Bone, Patricia Wade, Patricia Sheehy, Barbara Ann and Cynthia Sue Turner, Nan and Colleen Mariott, Merline Yeager, and Faith Young and Florence Hamilton, guardians, and the hostess, Muriel Butler. The next meeting was announced for today, October 24, at the home of Florence Hamilton to make decorations for the Halloween party to be enjoyed by the group.

The Potawatamie camp fire group held a ceremonial Thursday at the home of Jean Strawn. A new member, Betty Belle Findlay, was formally taken into the group and Jean Strawn received the Woodgatherer's rank. Honors were presented to all members in the group.

The ceremonial was followed by a short business meeting, at which time plans were made for a lunch party to be held November 7. Later delicious refreshments were served to Betty Shoemaker, guardian, Mary Ellen Darby, assistant guardian, Charlotte Hiney, Betty Belle Knott, Jean Strawn, Doris Shoemaker, Jane Clarke, Madalyn Henninger, Ada Jane Chalmers, Jane Wangman, Betty Belle Findlay and Irma Morgan, a guest.
