They covered 7000 miles and visited fifteen states. After going through Yellowstone park and visiting relatives in Minnesota, Iowa and Illinois, Mr. and Mrs. Knight went to the trotting races in Kentucky and later visited relatives in Indiana, Missouri, Oklahoma and Colorado, before returning via Utah, Nevada, California and up to Klamath Falls and back to Roseburg.

MR. AND MRS. MESERVE HONORED AT CAMP SOUTH UMPQUA FALLS MONDAY

Enrollees, army and forest service personnel of Camp South Umpqua Falls joined in a celebration and banquet Monday evening, October 19, honoring Almer Meserve, project superintendent and his bride, formerly Mrs. Pearl Ulan, who were recently married and had just returned from a week's tour of the Pacific coast.

In tribute to the special cooperation between the forest service and the army at South Umpqua, company 2904 gave a pre-thanksgiving dinner of roast turkey and all the trimmings to go with it. The meal was prepared by Mess Steward Harold Willis with Cooks Ellis Mills and Leo McCready. Enrollees Johnson, Cook Watkins and Knowlton officiated as K. P's.

Following the banquet, Harold Willis took the floor as toastmaster and several of those present were called upon to render toasts. Mr. Meserve introduced his wife and both voiced their thanks to company 2904 for the honor paid them.

Seated with the two guests of honor were Captain John O. Vines, company commander, Mrs. Creason of Roseburg and her father, Mr. Rau, of San Bernardino, Calif., Mr. and Mrs. Clay Ulan, Dale Ulan, Dr. and Mrs. Shuey, Educational Advisor T. Claude Baker, and the regular forestry personnel.
