MISS ELEANOR BOYD AND WILLIAM UNRATH ARE MARRIED SUNDAY

At a beautiful home wedding, Miss Eleanor Boyd, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Boyd, of Eugene, and William Unrath, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Unrath, of Roseburg, were married Sunday, October 25, at the Boyd residence at 459 East Broadway, Eugene.

Rev. Charles A. Edwards, rector pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church, Roseburg, performed the ceremony in the presence of relatives and a few close friends.

Large and small chrysanthemums in fall colors, arranged with autumn foliage, formed a lovely improvised altar in front of the fireplace for the bridal party.

Miss Ruth Hoover, Roseburg, played the wedding music and Floyd Groves, also of this city, sang.

The bride, charming in her mother's wedding dress, adorned with an overdress of silk marquisette, carried a shower bouquet of pale yellow roses and lilies-of-the-valley. Miss Dorothy Keads, cousin of the bride, Medford, was maid of honor and was attractive in a flowered taffeta frock of bronze and dull gold. She carried a bouquet of small chrysanthemums in pale gold. Miss Anna Mae Unrath, Roseburg, who is a student at Willamette university, and is a sister of the bridegroom, was bridesmaid. She was lovely in a dull gold silk taffeta frock and carried a bouquet of deep bronze chrysanthemums. Owen Walker acted as best man to the bridegroom.

The bride's mother wore a gown of powder blue fall crepe and the bridegroom's mother wore a gown of black chiffon cut velvet.

The wedding reception followed the ceremony. Mrs. E. A. Malloy, of Eugene, new Dorothy Main, and Miss Geraldine Latham served. Mrs. Mabel Campbell, of Creswell, assisted with the many wedding gifts.

Out-of-town guests included Mrs. C. M. Brown, grandmother of the bride, and Mrs. S. E. Markley, of Cottage Grove; Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Unrath, parents of the bridegroom; Miss Elsie Wettstein, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Britton, Miss Helen Roser, Miss Frances Hardy, Miss Virginia French, Miss Ruth Hoover, and Owen Walker, of Roseburg; Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Pickett, Miss Geraldine Latham and Gerald Latham, of Medford; Mr. and Mrs. George Boyd and daughter, Erdine Dell and Marilyn, of Salem; Mrs. Mabel Campbell and daughter, Barbara, of Creswell; Miss Betty Zimmerman, of Klamath Falls, and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Wynore, of Portland.

Following the reception Mr. and Mrs. Unrath left for points in northern Oregon and Washington on their wedding trip. For her going away costume the bride chose a tailored dark green ensemble with matching accessories. Upon their return, they will be at home to their friends at the Weatherford apartments.

The bride is a graduate of Medford high school and later attended the University of Oregon. For the past two years she has been employed as bookkeeper at the Model bakery. Mr. Unrath was graduated from Roseburg high school and Willamette university and is associated with his father at the Roseburg Dairy and Soda Works.
