ELSIE BUSENBARK AND THOMAS PARGETER MARRY ON FRIDAY EVENING

Miss Elsie Busenbark, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Busenbark, of Melrose, and Thomas Pargeter, son of R. E. Pargeter, of this city, were married at a beautiful home wedding at eight o'clock last evening, October 20, at the home of the bride's parents.

Rev. Charles A. Edwards, retired Methodist Episcopal minister, performed the ceremony in the presence of thirty relatives and close friends. The wedding took place in front of an attractive lattice covered with colorful foliage and lighted by tall tapers. The wedding march was played by Mrs. C. E. Reese, sister of the bride.

The bride was charming in a street length frock of green crepe made princess style and a corsage of white gardenias. Miss Wilma Busenbark, sister of the bride, was maid of honor and was attractive in a green crepe frock fashioned on similar lines to that of the bride. Her corsage was of pink rosebuds. Mildred Doyle acted as best man to the bridegroom.

The wedding reception followed the ceremony with Mrs. Dale Busenbark, Mrs. Allen Busenbark, and Mrs. C. E. Reese serving.

Mrs. Pargeter was graduated from Roseburg high school in 1932 and later attended Northwestern Business college in Portland. She is now employed at the Douglas Creditors' association. P. T. A. ACTIVITIES IN DOUGLAS COUNTY

The Glade Parent-Teacher association held its October meeting Thursday at the school auditorium. The devotionals were conducted by Rev. M. Cox. Mrs. Vern Shrum, president, had charge of the business session and Mrs. Claude Talcott, chairman of the membership committee, gave a splendid report.

Room representatives were appointed by Mrs. Shrum. This plan was suggested by the state president to aid membership for the P. T. A. Mrs. John H. Robinson was appointed for the primary room; Mrs. Charles Vleck, intermediate room; Mrs. Claude Talcott, junior high department, and Mrs. Ben Doss and Mrs. George Neal, high school.

The state president's message was read by Genevieve Moore and the national president's was given by Mrs. L. D. Horner.

A very interesting program was presented by the high school, including a skit entitled "Holy Smoke" by Willis Dalg and Louis Sultor; two violin solos by Helen Horner, and a reading, "The School Program," was very splendidly given by Florence Everts. Community singing was led by Mrs. Claude Talcott with Miss Joan Whitney at the piano.

The regular meeting of the Sutherland P. T. A. was held Monday evening at the school building. The program consisted of community singing of the P. T. A. song, led by Mrs. Lula Gorrell, and two very interesting talks by the county health doctor, Dr. J. E. Campbell, and Marvin Fisher, principal of the Sutherland school.

Dr. Campbell spoke on health as related to his work and Mr. Fisher spoke on physical education as related to health and social development of the child.

The next meeting will be held November 30, when a series of educational discussions will begin as part of the program. Rev. S. Cushing will speak on character education at the meeting. All parents and anyone interested in the development of the child are invited to attend.

Rose P. T. A. will hold a reception for the teachers at four o'clock next Monday afternoon at the schoolhouse. Mrs. Carl E. Wimberly has arranged a very interesting and enjoyable program for the occasion. Refreshments will be served by Mrs. Karl Wiley, Mrs. A. M. Knudsen and Mrs. Ned Dixon. Mrs. L. M. Lilly, president, will be in charge. All members and friends are urged to be present.

Fullerton P. T. A. will meet at four o'clock at the schoolhouse Monday afternoon with Mrs. M. R. Ivis, president, in charge and Mrs. W. H. Baile in charge of the program. E. A. Britton will discuss 4-H club work and Attorney Paul Geddes will discuss the school tax measure to be voted on November 3. Special music will be presented and an enjoyable time is being anticipated. A most cordial invitation has been extended to anyone interested to attend.

Leave for North—Mrs. John McClintock, of Longview, Wash., and her father, O. P. Coshaw, left yesterday for their home, after spending the past few days here visiting the former's parents-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. McClintock, on East Cass street.
