HUMANE SUB-BOAT WAR PACT SIGNED

LONDON, Nov. 6.—(AP)—Five nations today signed a protocol to humanize submarine warfare. They are England, the United States, France, Italy and Japan.

Under the protocol, submarines in time of war are forbidden to sink a merchant ship until the crew, the passengers and the ship's papers are afforded a safe haven. This does not mean lifeboats, unless land is near and the weather good.

Negotiations will be opened to obtain the adherence of all naval powers. Germany. It was confidently expected, will accede shortly.

If the new rules are observed, authorities said, there will be no more Lusitania disasters.

AUTO-TRUCK CRASH KILLS PORTLANDER

BEND, Ore., Nov. 6.—(AP)—An accident on The Dalles-California highway three miles south of Culver cost the life of Ben Puttkamer, Portland, late last night and resulted in serious injuries to Mrs. Lorraine Coffman, also of Portland.

Sergeant Art Tuck of the state police said Puttkamer's car crashed into the rear end of a grain-laden truck operated by Clyde Cayton, Prineville. No inquest was planned.

Mrs. Coffman incurred a broken arm and possible internal injuries. Puttkamer was employed by a Portland cleaning plant.

MARKETS

WOOL

BOSTON, Nov. 7.—(AP)—The Commercial Bulletin today says:

"There has been a continuance this week of the big business in wool which has been in evidence for the preceding fortnight. Added to the strong statistical position of wool all over the world is the belief that inflation is with us more pronouncedly in consequence of the election.

"Foreign markets have shown a distinct tendency upward and it transpires that, contrary to the new clip has been heavy in South America. America has been a heavy buyer in the foreign primary markets this week. Further clearances have been effected in the west also, at slightly higher prices.

"There is a better tone in the piecegoods markets, especially in men's wear lines. Spinners and formers are getting better prices for their products, although still lagging somewhat behind replacement values for wool.

"Mohair is very strong and the trend is against the buyer."

The Bulletin publishes the following quotations:

Scoured basis: Oregon: Fine and f. m. staple 90-92; fine and f. m. clothing $4.86.
