

CONFERENCE TITLE AT STAKE SATURDAY

Huskies Favored to Down Trojans; Stanford to Take on Oregon.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 13.—(AP)—The Pacific Coast conference football race comes into the home stretch tomorrow with the battle at Seattle between Washington and Southern California perhaps deciding the championship.

Washington, unbeaten in conference play, was held to a 14-14 tie by Stanford last Saturday while U. S. C. lost 13 to 7 to California.

Each team has shown strong air and ground power. The Huskies are slight favorites by virtue of their four conference victories.

Washington State, which was knocked over, 16 to 6, by Oregon State in one of the coast's big upsets last Saturday, stacks up about evenly with twice-beaten U. C. L. A., victors 7 to 0 over Oregon.

At Portland, Stanford's rejuvenated Indians clash with Oregon State, which traded places in the conference cellar with Oregon last week. Oregon faces California's favored Golden Bears at Berkeley.

Idaho and Montana, the two conference teams relegated to minor league status by the eight-team round robin schedule, battle at Missoula in another close one to pick.

PACIFIC COAST FOOTBALL NEWS

CORVALLIS, Ore., Nov. 13.—(AP)—Oregon State was ready today to meet Stanford, the team described as the "most improved" in the coast conference.

The Beavers, led by Halfback Joe Gray, realized their first conference victory last week in a big way by upsetting Washington State. They are just as confident that Stanford will be stopped at Portland Saturday.

Coach Lon Stiner said he would start a backfield with definite scoring punch. Gray, passing and running ace, will have the veteran Swanson at the other half. Kolberg will be at fullback and Duncan, punter, will start at quarterback.

EUGENE, Ore., Nov. 13.—(AP)—The Oregon Webfoots, who lost one game and tied another in earlier trips south, were rolling toward Berkeley today to meet the Golden Bears of California tomorrow.

Coach Callison said his 29 players would work out in the south late this afternoon.

MAN HELD IN FATAL KLAMATH CO. CRASH

KLAMATH FALLS, Ore., Nov. 12.—(AP)—Alba Burt Comer, taken into custody following the traffic accident death of Mrs. Henry Wooty, 41, here Wednesday morning, was being held at the Klamath county jail pending an inquest tomorrow.

GLENDALE

GLENDALE, Nov. 13.—A. G. Henninger drove to Medford Wednesday to bring Mrs. Henninger and son, Larry, home after a three days' visit with relatives.

Charles Kafer returned Sunday to Camp Sebastian, near Gild Beach, after several days spent here with his family.

Ira Lewis and Mrs. R. M. Eberle were Grants Pass callers Monday.

Mrs. Thelma Jensen and Mary Alice Hoots left Saturday morning for a ten days' visit in New Westminster, B. C.

Clyde Williams, of Canby, Oregon, former Glendale resident, has been transferred by the Southern Pacific company to foreman of the signal shops in Portland, and will move his family there. Mrs. Williams and daughter are visiting here for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde S. Henninger, of Winchester, were Glendale visitors Monday.

In the last four games Callison has seen the Webfoots tied once, beaten once by a field goal and twice by single touchdowns.

"We're getting tired of playing just close games," he told students at the train.

"We're out to win 'em now."

SEATTLE, Nov. 13.—(AP)—Coach Jimmy Phelan of Washington will use all his ammunition in his starting backfield tomorrow when the conference-leading Huskies line up against the invading Trojan horde from U. S. C.

Phelan said today he would start Logg at quarterback, Waskowitz and Cain at the halves and Nowogroski at fullback, instead of his usual custom of opening the game with shock troops behind the line. Logg has been named captain.

He also indicated that quartet would see most of the action during the afternoon, barring injuries. His only real reserve threats are Cruser, sophomore fullback, and Johnston, at times spectacular halfback. Haines, leg in a cast, is definitely out of the game.

When you speak of an Alaskan in the livestock business the chances are about 100 to 1 that you mean he's a reindeer herder. The latest domestic animal census figures available show 712,500 reindeer, against 6,588 sheep and 1,809 cattle. The second largest classification of "livestock" was work dogs, of which there were 37,287.

OKLAHOMANS FIND BLACKBIRDS TASTY

TULSA, Okla., Nov. 13.—(AP)—Mother Goose's "Four and Twenty Blackbirds Baked in a Pie" is a tasty reality in Tulsa.

Here where roast crow banquets had their inception a year or so ago the latest dish is Blackbird fried or in pie.

Like the crow enters, the blackbird enthusiasts say "it's fine—like duck or other game fowl."

It all started when swarms of blackbirds made life miserable down South Rockford avenue way in the southern part of town. Harried residents who first "shoo-ed" them away with Roman candle barrages later fell to with shotgun and rifle fire.

"Somebody thought they might be good eating and—

"The birds are fine," said Mrs. J. P. Phillips, "we've tried them both in pies and fried. They taste like duck."

There were reports that several other persons had prepared big messes of the birds and passed them around to the neighbors.

TOWNSEND TOLD SECURITY ACT VOID

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 13.—(AP)—Dr. Francis E. Townsend, co-founder of the pension plan bearing his name, told 5,000 excited adherents here that the federal social security act "will, in all probability, be declared unconstitutional."

An explosion of applause greeted this statement.

"I have that on the word of an eminent authority on the constitution," Dr. Townsend said.

"I'm not very happy about the results of the election," Dr. Townsend said with a wry smile. "I thought it would be closer."

"But the people have spoken, and like all good Americans, we abide by the decision. We need not be discouraged. The need still remains and we have not receded one inch from our position."

Discussing the affairs within the Townsend organization, the slim, elderly physician declared:

"We're going to put one, and maybe two men in Washington to check up on the men elected on our program. We're going to keep tab on them to see if they're doing anything." He said, too, that he planned to introduce a new bill before the next session of congress, to supersede the ones already put up.
