

ITALY'S LAW COURTS TO BE ABOLISHED

Mussolini Decides to Put Legal Profession on Socialized Basis.

By ANDRUE BERDING
ROME, Nov. 12. (AP)—Premier Mussolini has decided to abolish existing Italian courts of law, substituting state committees and socializing the legal profession, official sources disclosed today.

Attorneys described the project as "one of the most important changes in 20th century jurisprudence."

A committee of eminent lawyers and officials from the ministry of justice is working out the details to replace the courts with the state boards, authoritative quarters asserted.

Abolition is also planned for the special tribunal for defense of the state. This court was established ten years ago after an 18-year-old youth attempted to assassinate the Italian premier at Bologna in 1926.

It was first instituted for five years and then renewed for another five.

The court, created to protect the life of the ruler and government officials, condemned half a dozen men to death on charges of conspiracy against the premier.

Among them was Michele Schirru, a naturalized American.

Conditions were said to have become so settled in Italy and the people so united around the premier, lawyers have decided there is no necessity for continuing the tribunal another five years.

Interesting Experiment

Substitution of corporative state committees for courts of law would prove one of the most interesting experiments of modern times, attorneys commented.

Cases involving monetary considerations connected with certain products—such as wheat, automobiles, transportation and the like—would be settled by committees of guilds embracing those products.

Labor matters will be settled by labor committees.

The ministry of the interior would appoint committees to deal with criminal charges.

Attorneys said that under the new system lawyers would become government functionaries the same as judges and other employees.

The state would pay them regular salaries rather than fees.

Attorneys' functions would center around attempts to ascertain the truth in a case and present facts to the jury clearly without passionate appeals for clients' interests.

The interests of the state would transcend the interests of the individual.

The number of lawyers would probably be limited after a certain period of experimentation.

COLLECTIONS UPPED BY BUSINESS GAINS

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 12. (AP)—A nationwide improvement in general business conditions, an almost universal "pick up" in employment and higher prices for farm products are reasons given for increases of 5.8 per cent in the country's retail store collections and 14.1 per cent in credit sales for October as compared with the same month one year ago.

Thirty-nine of 45 cities reporting to the research division of the national retail credit association listed collection gains and 43 cities reported credit sales increases. Figures from 13,162 stores were included in the association's report issued here today.

Fort Lauderdale, Fla., reported the largest collections gain, 25 per cent and Decatur, Ill., had the biggest credit sales improvement, 36 per cent.

Normal upward trends in both divisions were reported in Colorado and Idaho areas. Sales continued to jump in Texas, Brockbridge, however, collectors slow because of unusually warm weather. Sales increased 16 per cent in Tulsa, Okla.

Collections decreased 3 per cent in San Francisco, while sales increased 13.9 per cent.

MRS. WILKINS SAYS: "Your lunches are always so successful, Mary. I seem to enjoy myself more every time I call. And even your coffee is always so good. You must have some secret for making coffee."

MRS. THOMAS THINKS: There's no secret in making a delicious cup of coffee when you use coffee which never varies in quality. I've used Hills Bros. Coffee long enough to realize it always has the same unvarying goodness.

Times may change . . . but true ideals need never change. Fifty-eight years ago Hills Bros. determined they would roast and pack the finest coffee obtainable. And through the years millions have learned that Hills Bros. Coffee never gives any disappointment. The assurance of coffee enjoyment is as constant as its superb flavor and unvarying goodness.

GOOD COFFEE DESERVES CARE IN BREWING

The Correct Grind of Hills Bros. Coffee is a standard set by a knowledge of coffee acquired through more than half a century of roasting and packing coffee. The Correct Grind is as fine as coffee should be ground. Finer grinding sacrifices flavor and aroma, as well as keeping qualities after the can is opened. Hills Bros. Coffee should not be reground. The Correct Grind is guaranteed to produce the finest-tasting beverage in any type of coffee-maker. Directions for making coffee by the method you use will be sent on request.
