REBEKAHS HAVE INTERESTING MEETING ON TUESDAY EVENING

The Roseburg Rebekah lodge met Tuesday evening with Mrs. Betta M. Wood, Portland, president of the Rebekah assembly of Oregon, as special guest of the occasion, at the I. O. O. F. hall.

On behalf of the Roseburg Rebekahs, Mrs. Edythe Florence Kelley, past president of the Association of Rebekah assemblies, presented a lovely linen luncheon set as a gift to Mrs. Wood.

Mrs. Dow Lockwood was received into the lodge by transfer. The degree staff conferred the Rebekah degree on Kathryn Williams, of Roseburg, and Mabel Quilhaugh, of Powers.

Ten members were present from Powers and other visitors were from Riddle, Astoria, Salem and Sutherlin.

The hall was beautifully decorated for the occasion with large bouquets of autumn flowers and leaves.

Delicious refreshments were served later in the banquet room by Lydia Roadman, Ollie Cronch, Anna Lewis, Clara Cavell, Ada Peyton, Minnie James, Mabel Schneider, J. B. Bailey and J. E. Dent. The tables were especially lovely for the occasion and were decorated by Lillian Nelson, Tillie Johnson and Ollie Cronch.

Lillian Nelson, Carmel Newland and Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Johnson were appointed to represent the Rebekah lodge at the recreational school.

Lillie Pettay, Myrtle Giles and Lydia Roadman were appointed on the visiting committee.

A number of Roseburg Rebekahs will attend the district convention to be held at Canyonville tonight, November 14.

The next regular meeting will be held at 7:30 o'clock in the evening, November 24, at the I. O. O. F. hall.

CHRISTMAS CLUB IS ENTERTAINED AT DINNER AT McCLINTOCK HOME

Mrs. L. E. McClintock very graciously entertained the Christmas club at a delightful seven o'clock dinner at her home on Hamilton avenue last evening.

The table was very attractively appointed in a silver and crystal motif with a mirror plaque and swan centerpiece with crystal candleholders and tall silver lighted tapers.

Covers were arranged for Mrs. H. O. Partridge, Mrs. Ivan Pickens, Mrs. C. B. Wade, Mrs. Guy Cordon, Mrs. Clair K. Allen, Mrs. J. R. Wharton, Mrs. Kenneth Quine, Mrs. D. B. Bubar, Mrs. O. M. Berrie and the hostess, Mrs. McClintock.

Cards, knitting and visiting were enjoyed during the pleasant evening hours.

CHARMING TEA ENJOYED BY BETHEL ON SUNDAY AT R. L. WHIPPLE HOME

The members of the choir and officers of the John's Daughters bethel enjoyed a very lovely tea at the home of Mrs. R. L. Whipple late Sunday afternoon. The group presented Mrs. Whipple with a lovely gift cake honoring her birthday anniversary. Singing was enjoyed by the group, followed by lovely refreshments served by Mrs. Whipple, assisted by her daughter, Betty.

Those present were Delores Cacy, Mary Jo Parkinson, Annabelle and Charabelle Berg, Francelle Freeman, Mary Ellen Darby, Eleanor Entler, Wilma Feldkamp, Faith Young, Ada Marie Ruhl, Eva Baker, Meredith Jenkins, and Betty Whipple and Mrs. Whipple. Mrs. A. B. Taylor was present during the first part of the meeting and assisted and directed the girls in their singing.

DOROTHY RYDELL AND REGINALD ERSKINE MARRY ARMISTICE DAY

Miss Dorothy Rydell, daughter of Mrs. Ellene Rydell, and Reginald Erskine, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Erskine, of Roseburg, were quietly married at the Presbyterian church Wednesday, November 11. Rev. W. C. Faucette, pastor of the church, performed the ceremony in the presence of only a few relatives of the couple.

The bride, wearing a blue brocade-crepe afternoon dress and a corsage of white gardenias, was attended by her sister, Miss Crystal Rydell, while Harold Chaske acted as best man to the bridegroom.

Following the wedding service, Mr. and Mrs. Erskine left on their wedding trip and upon their return to Roseburg will be at home to their friends at the Northside apartments.

MRS. WORTHINGTON IS HOSTESS TO CLUB ON THURSDAY AFTERNOON

Mrs. Henry Worthington was a most gracious hostess to the members of the Northside Sunshine club at her home on East Lane street Thursday afternoon.

Sewing and visiting were enjoyed and at the tea hour Mrs. Worthington served delicious refreshments to Mrs. William Fisher, Mrs. Dewey Kruse, Mrs. E. P. Ballou, Mrs. L. W. Ingels, Mrs. Glen Cox and Mrs. Howard Casebeer.

D. C. C. E. HOLDS ENJOYABLE RALLY MONDAY EVENING

The Douglas County Christian Endeavor held a very enjoyable rally at the Presbyterian church Monday evening with Miss Mary Faucette acting as chairman, assisted by Miss Mary Julia Miller and Lewis Wilson.

The rally opened at a 6:30 o'clock supper and noisy song service with Elmer D'Arno as song leader and Kathryn DeLann, pianist. Special choruses were sung by the Roseburg Christian Endeavor, Elbert Naas of Myrtle Creek, singing a special number accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Pauline Winston, also of Myrtle Creek.

After the supper Rev. J. Frank Cunningham gave a very interesting address on "God Is for Us. Who Could Be Against Us?" Following the talk games were enjoyed. Over forty young people from all parts of the county were present. Flimora Blake, social chairman of the Douglas County Christian Endeavor, had charge of the games.

MID-WEEK BIBLE CLASS HAS ENJOYABLE AFTERNOON MEETING

The Mid-week Bible class of St. Paul's Lutheran church met Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Charles Mortimer, under the leadership of the pastor, Rev. W. A. Sylvester.

The group discussed chapter 1, book of Revelations. Following the study hour, a short business meeting was held, at which time it was decided that the next meeting of the Bible class would be held December 3 at the home of Mrs. W. A. Sylvester with Mrs. John Currier acting as hostess. The remainder of the afternoon was spent in visiting and refreshments were served by Mrs. E. Brant, Mrs. M. Richardson, Mrs. Ben Craven, Mrs. John Currier, Mrs. Florence Smith, Mrs. William Vogt, Miss Louise Voigt, Miss Elbert, Miss Mousch, Mrs. V. Andraeff, Mrs. Nick Andraeff, Mrs. Anton Coenenberg, Mrs. H. Goldson, Mrs. Whiting and Mrs. W. A. Sylvester. Mrs. Craven assisted Mrs. Mortimer in serving the refreshments.

MISSIONARY SERVICE ANNOUNCED FOR NOV. 22

The Presbyterian Missionary society will sponsor its annual service at 7:15 o'clock Sunday evening, November 22, in the church auditorium, to which the general public and especially all Missionary society members in the community are invited.

Mrs. E. S. Bancroft, Phoenix, formerly district secretary of the Missionary society, will be the guest speaker of the evening. Mrs. Bancroft is prominently known as a very dynamic and interesting speaker. Vesper services will be held and special music by the choir will be presented.

W. C. T. U. HAS L.L.D. MEETING ARMISTICE DAY

The Women's Christian Temperance Union held a very interesting and instructive county institute at the Presbyterian church Wednesday under the leadership of the county president, Edith S. Ackert, and the state president, Mrs. Neola Buck.

The meeting opened at eleven o'clock with devotions in charge of Mrs. C. A. Chamberlain. In her remarks she stated the basis of true peace was in the coming of the Prince of Peace, the Lord Jesus Christ.

The declaration of the principles of the W. C. T. U., adopted in 1874, were read. The following quotation is included in the principles: "We believe in a living wage; in an eight hour day; in courts of justice and arbitration; in justice as opposed to greed of gain, and in peace on earth and good will to men."

Mrs. Buck led a discussion on the various points in the standard of efficiency program.

Greetings were brought from California by Mr. Gleaton, of the young people's branch. Noontime prayer was given by the county evangelist, Mrs. Chamberlain.

A delicious luncheon was served in the church parlors and at the close, Rev. Perry Smith spoke on the preaching mission in Portland and Mrs. Buck gave a very interesting report on the mission meetings.

Work of the various departments and their reports followed. Mrs. Fred Fisher spoke on scientific temperance instruction; Mrs. E. McKean, child welfare and the Loyal Temperance legion; Mrs. A. C. Marsters, literature; Mrs. Earl Agee reported sixty-six members in the Roseburg union, ten of whom are new this year. She also reported all bills paid and a balance of $27 in the treasury.

Mrs. Buck closed the meeting with a very fine address urging the members to greater efforts to carry on the principles adopted by Frances E. Willard. Her address closed with: "We declare our purpose to educate the young; to form a better public sentiment; to reform so far as possible by religious, ethical and scientific means, the drinking classes; to seek the transforming power of divine grace for ourselves and all for whom we work; that they and we may willfully transcend no law of pure and wholesome living; and finally we pledge ourselves to labor and to pray that all these principles, founded upon the gospel of Christ, may be worked out into the customs of society and the laws of the land."

MRS. HARRY LOHR IS HOSTESS TO H. E. O. CLUB ON FRIDAY

Mrs. Harry Lohr entertained the H. E. O. club at her home on Rice street yesterday afternoon. Bouquets of chrysanthemums were attractively arranged about the room.
