

DEATH FOR WEALTH HOARDERS DECREED

Nazis Establish New Laws
Intended to Safeguard
Nation's Money.

BERLIN, Dec. 2. (AP)—The "brass knuckle" policy of Gen. Hermann Goering's four-year plan for the rehabilitation of Germany was implemented today by a series of far-reaching laws and drastic penalties.

"The death penalty for economic sabotage" and a law for the "accelerated exploitation of Germany's mineral resources" were regarded the most important of the starting decrees promulgated by the cabinet yesterday.

The cabinet acted swiftly with Reichsfuehrer Adolf Hitler presiding.

For fuhrer's own newspaper, Voelkischer Beobachter, said the action was taken behind locked doors after Hitler had been given a "comprehensive review of the foreign political situation."

The "economic sabotage" law, decreeing death for Germans who "unscrupulously" hoard wealth abroad and "damage the German economy," strengthened recent edicts demanding deposit of German-held foreign securities.

It also filled a gap in a decree making it compulsory to register all property owned abroad by Germans, which only announced a "heavy punishment" for violation.

Yesterday's decree became a new threat against violators of recent injunctions which put within reach of the government between 1,500,000,000 and 2,000,000,000 marks ($800,000,000 to $1,000,000,000) which could be converted into foreign currencies should the necessity arise.

Other laws decreed included: Incorporation of every German boy and girl, without exception, in the Hitler youth movement to be trained "physically, spiritually and morally."

Catholic circles were alarmed over the youth control law, designed to perpetuate Nazism in future generations. Literally interpreted, it gave the youth organization a monopoly on all training outside the home and school and left in doubt the future of religious education.

The members of the organization here assembled the lighting fixtures placed across the streets and assisted in the stringing of the colored lights.

BEND, Dec. 3. (AP)—Here's one harvest that hasn't suffered from drought.

Ideal weather conditions and an unusually large number of spawning trout have made possible a take of 24,000,000 eastern brook.

BONNEVILLE, Dec. 2. (AP)—The United States engineers' boat Sandy, overturned at Bradford slough last July and swept through the turbine pits near the Bonneville power house, ran into more tough luck. This time it sank.
