WEDDING DATE OF LOVA BUCHANAN AND BERNARD YOUNG ANNOUNCED

Of much interest to many friends in both Roseburg and Eugene is the announcement of the approaching marriage of Miss Lova Buchanan, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. W. E. Buchanan Sr., of Eugene, to Bernard A. Young, son of Mayor-elect and Mrs. A. J. Young, of this city.

The announcement was made known at a charming informal tea given by the bride-elect's mother Sunday afternoon in compliment to Mrs. A. J. Young, who was a houseguest at the Buchanan home over the Thanksgiving week-end. About forty close friends were invited to call between the hours of four and six o'clock.

The wedding will be an event of the Christmas holiday season and will take place at the First Congregational church in Eugene, Saturday evening, December 26. Rev. Charles A. Edwards, retired Methodist Episcopal minister of Roseburg, will perform the ceremony.

The announcements at the tea were presented the guests as they entered the door by Miss Gene Fisher, of Seattle. The news was written on parchment scrolls in the form of legislative resolutions.

During the afternoon, Miss Barbara Evelyn Hollis sang, accompanied by Miss Theresa Kelly.

Invited to pour were Mrs. L. Kohlhaugen Sr., of Roseburg; Mrs. Robert M. Fischer, Jr., of Eugene, and Mrs. Jack Fischer, of Seattle. Assisting with the serving were the bride-elect's three sisters, Miss Kate, Miss Kee and Miss Gayle Buchanan, Miss Celia Blech, of Roseburg, Miss Jean Schaefer, Miss Brandon Young, Miss Marie Tinker and Miss Zada Tinker.

The tea table, covered by an attractive lace cloth, was centered with a bowl of silver leaves and lighted pink tapers. Pink chrysanthemums were used in decorating the room.

Guests from Roseburg included Mrs. A. J. Young, guest of honor, Mrs. L. Kohlhaugen Sr., Mrs. Scott Williams, Mrs. E. S. Hall, Mrs. J. C. Falbe, Mrs. Leroy Hiatt, Miss Marjorie Chester, Miss Beth Partridge, Miss Edna Veatch, Miss Thelma Smith, Miss Helen Casey, Miss Alice Ueland, Miss Irene Taylor and Miss Amanda Anderson.

Miss Buchanan is the third daughter of Dr. and Mrs. W. E. Buchanan Sr., of Eugene. She graduated from University of Oregon, where she is a member of Phi Mu social sorority and of Phi Beta honorary music and drama group. For the past few years, she has been an English instructor at Roseburg senior high school.

Mr. Young, who was elected to the legislature in the recent election, is prominently known here, having attended the local schools and later attending both Oregon State college and University of Oregon. He is a member of Theta Chi fraternity.

MR. AND MRS. MARSTERS ENTERTAIN BANK STAFF AT CHARMING DINNER

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Marsters entertained at a charming six-thirty o'clock dinner party at their lovely home on South Kane street last evening, having as their guests the staff of the Roseburg National bank.

The table was centered by a bowl of lavender and white small chrysanthemums, while the favors and tapers were carried out to match the same color scheme.

Covers were arranged for Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Pickens, Mr. and Mrs. Maurice J. Newland, Mr. and Mrs. "Bud" Watson, Miss Helen Roser, Miss Jane Gilbreath, Vernon Orr, Lyle Marsters and Miss Edna Veatch, hostesses, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Marsters.

On behalf of the bank staff, Vernon Orr presented an equipped traveling case to Mr. Marsters. The case had Mr. Marsters' name engraved on it. Mr. Marsters responded following the presentation of the gift. The remaining evening hours were very pleasantly spent in playing games.

Richards, Mrs. Fred A. Fields and Mrs. Frederick J. Porter.

Guests were introduced. The minutes were read by Mrs. Syfan, secretary, and the treasurer's report was given by Mrs. Earl Ulrich. The endorsement fund tea report was given by Mrs. Scott Williams and Mrs. J. F. Dillard, joint chairmen.

An attractive gift was presented by Mrs. Campbell on behalf of the club to Mrs. Syfan, who has very efficiently acted as secretary of the organization and who is leaving soon with Mr. Syfan for Denver, Colo., to make her home.

Mrs. J. B. Foley has been appointed as the new secretary of the club. Mrs. T. G. Watson, as chairman of the program on "The American Home," presented Mrs. Edwin G. Young, Mrs. E. L. Knapp and Mrs. Bruce Melles in a clever and delightful act, which was very greatly enjoyed by the club.

The next meeting will be the annual 1:30 o'clock Christmas dinner-luncheon, party and program on December 15. Everyone attending has been asked to bring an inexpensive gift, which will be exchanged at the party. One of the most beautiful programs sponsored by the club has been planned for this year by the chairman, Mrs. A. B. Taylor. The affair will be held at the clubhouse. Members and their invited guests have been asked to attend.
