HOME MISSIONARY SOCIETY HAS ENJOYABLE MEETING ON THURSDAY AFTERNOON

The Home Missionary society of the Methodist Episcopal church met Thursday afternoon in the church parlors for an enjoyable 1:30 o'clock dessert-luncheon. Covers were placed for about thirty members and their invited guests.

A short business session was conducted by the president, Mrs. O. M. Nicholas, followed by a praise service and the singing of Christmas carols. Mrs. George Jones sang, "Jesus Bambino," accompanied by Mrs. O. M. Nicholas and the devotions were conducted by Mrs. A. J. Geddes. A Christmas offering was taken. Mrs. J. B. Bailey was chairman of the program for the meeting.

MRS. TROZELLE IS HOSTESS TO CLUB

SUTHERLIN, Dec. 4.—Mrs. Paul Trozelle entertained the Methodist Episcopal church club on Wednesday afternoon. Sewing and chatting were enjoyed after a business meeting. Plans were made for a Christmas party to be held on December 19. Delicious refreshments were served to the following members: Mrs. John McGrover, Mrs. Owen Rose, Mrs. Claude Seick, Mrs. Elmer Vannice, Mrs. Edgar Shirley, Mrs. Dick Valentine, Mrs. Harry Chenoweth and the hostess.

U. S. V. HOSPITAL

By OTTILIA K. ASHTON

The fourth play off of the bridge tournament sponsored by the Gray ladies was held Monday afternoon, high score going to George F. Woods. Gray ladies present were Mrs. Annette Harding, chairman, Mrs. Anna Berrie, Mrs. Margaret Hines and Mrs. Anita Melice. Assisting the Gray ladies was Mrs. Jack Wharton.

The motion picture program for the week consisted of "Sing, Baby, Sing," starring Alice Faye and Adolph Menjou, which was shown Monday evening with a Universal newswear. Jan Wyatt and Louis Hayward starring in "Luckiest Girl in the World," was the feature for Thursday evening with a Universal short subject. As an added attraction, the Snappy Five dance orchestra played for a half hour before the movies Thursday evening, much to the enjoyment of all concerned.

The American Legion auxiliary card party held Wednesday afternoon in the Recreational building proved to be the success of the season, in so far as attendance was concerned and this, of course, is most essential for a successful card party. Lovely prizes were awarded to Nick Dragovich and C. S. Carman for the first and second highest scores in contract bridge. Milton Cox won the prize for the highest pinocle score. The ladies assisting Mrs. George McBee, acting chairman, were Mrs. Roy Catching, Mrs. Geo. Wharton, Mrs. Carl Wimbury, Mrs. C. W. Owen, Mrs. Edward Hines, Mrs. Chas. Healy, Mrs. E. A. Post, Mrs. F. N. Henderson, Mrs. A. B. Cacy, Mrs. Irving Reikel, Mrs. M. Norwood and Mrs. H. Allen.

The American Legion and their auxiliary held open house Friday evening in Recreational hall and the varied program presented delighted everyone present and they expressed the wish that there might be a repeat some time in the near future. Gay Gordon, state commander of the American Legion, acted as master of ceremonies. The program was opened and closed with several selections by the Legion drum corps, dance numbers by Eleanor Langenberg, accordion solos by Allan Gordon, piano solos by Mary Belle Beckley, vocal numbers by Del Jewett and Cecil Black presented several numbers, playing his own accompaniment on the guitar. Last but not least we have Mrs. Bess Riegel thank for acting as general chairman on arrangements for this program.

COOKING DEMONSTRATION HELD AT DAYS CREEK

DAYS CREEK, Dec. 4.—The third cooking demonstration of the Days Creek home extension unit was held at the home of Mrs. T. L. Weaver Wednesday. Miss Jessie Palmer, county demonstrator, prepared and cooked Irish potatoes, sweet potatoes, canned spinach, fresh spinach and kale, rice, tomatoes, eggs and squash. These dishes, with the addition of bread and butter and dessert were served at noon.

Mrs. R. A. Moore, local unit chairman, presided during the business meeting in the afternoon which was opened by the singing of the state home extension song, "Smile Your Way Home."

This was followed by the reading of the minutes of the last meeting and the roll call, which was answered by 39 members.

Miss Palmer urged that this unit send three delegates to the home interest conference to be held in Corvallis, February 9-12. The club voted that one-half the expenses of the three delegates be paid by the club.

Miss Palmer expressed her appreciation of the interest taken by this group in the demonstrations so far given and led a discussion summarizing the work covered in the cooking demonstrations.

Due to the inability of Miss Palmer to be at Days Creek the first Wednesday in January, the next meeting will be held Monday, January 11, at the T. L. Weaver home. At this time the correct arrangement of furniture will be studied. Each member is requested to bring a pair of scissors and a pencil.

Those present at Wednesday's meeting, besides Miss Palmer, were Mrs. Chas. Young, Mrs. Almer Moser and Mrs. J. R. Jones all of Canyonville, Mrs. Clay Ullam, Mrs. Bill Ullam and Mrs. Jack Higgins, all of Milo; Mrs. Frank Alvord, Mrs. D. R. Badger, Mrs. Claude Baird, Mrs. Merlin Dean, Mrs. C. E. Foster, Mrs. C. G. Hill, Mrs. U. S. Hooley, Mrs. Walter Hutchinson, Mrs. Roy Matthews, Mrs. R. A. Moore, Mrs. Walter Poole, Mrs. J. A. Rhoads, Mrs. J. A. Snyder, Mrs. Fritz Snyder, Mrs. Raymond Spore, Mrs. Earl Woodworth, Mrs. T. L. Weaver, Mrs. Wade Worthington, Mrs. Frank Woodwright, Miss Margaret Sagar, Grace Booth, Susie Crispin, Zelma Davis, Wilhelma Hutchinson, Mildred Mather, Betty Anne Michaels, Nettie Moore, Mertie Rachel, Betty Rhoads, Gene Rhoads and Marjorie Wright.
