THIRD ANNUAL DANCE OF JUNIOR WOMAN'S CLUB TO BE HELD DECEMBER 19

The Junior Woman's club has announced its third Christmas dance to be held this year at the armory at nine o'clock in the evening next Saturday night, December 19, in the form of a "Stormy Weather Splash." The theme of the affair is an appropriate and informal one and is being cleverly worked out by the decorations committee headed by Miss Georgia Emery.

Miss Beverly Wood, general chairman, has stated that the ticket sale is in full swing and all efforts are being made by the various committees to entertain a large number of guests.

The general public has been most cordially invited to attend this affair. Committees include Miss Wood, general chairman, assisted by Miss Eleanor Ragan, orchestra chairman; Miss Georgia Emery, decorations; Miss Nadine Pinkerton, finances; and Miss Hildred McLaughlin, publicity.

The club has arranged for its annual Christmas party to be held at eight o'clock in the evening December 21 at the clubhouse with Mrs. Adrian Bowen, chairman. Gifts will be exchanged.

The annual Doernbecher Memorial hospital benefit drive will be sponsored by the club from December 21 to 26, at which time milk bottles will be placed in the various stores of Roseburg to receive donations for the hospital.

Today's Pattern

Be Sure to State Size When Ordering Pattern.

Easy Pattern, Slim O' Line Style Guarantee You Frock Success PATTERN 4236

A frock "success" if ever there was one, is Pattern 4236—so slimming, so feminine, so grand for all-purpose wear that you'll want to make up several versions! And there's no reason why you shouldn't, for this becoming model is the easiest ever to cut, fit, and finish. Individual, indeed, is the fascinating bodice front, which, stitched up in a darker contrasting fabric, gives a stunning effect that's smart for business or club meetings. Then behold the flattery of the deep-cut V neck which omits its collar in the "soft" afternoon version. (See small sketch at right.) For fabric, choose jersey, or rough crepe—ready for everything, morn' to mid-night!

Pattern 4236 is available in sizes 34, 36, 38, 40, 42, 44, 46 and 48. Size 36 takes 3 1/2 yards 39 inch fabric and 1 yard contrasting. Illustrated step-by-step sewing instructions included.

Send FIFTEEN CENTS (15c) in coins or stamps (coins preferred) for this Anne Adams pattern. Write plainly SIZE, NAME, ADDRESS and STYLE NUMBER.

Send for your copy of the ANNE ADAMS PATTERN BOOK. Every page is filled with fascinating styles in afternoon frocks—ray sports to—stunning party clothes. Slimming styles for matrons. Budget-saving patterns for "growing-ups" and "grown-ups." Easy patterns that invite "beginners." Fabric suggestions and accessory hints. BOOK FIFTEEN CENTS. JUNIOR WOMAN'S CLUB HAS LARGE MEETING ON MONDAY EVENING

"The Stormy Weather Splash" was the subject of plans and discussion on Monday evening, December 7, at the regular monthly business meeting of the Roseburg Junior Woman's club, held at the clubhouse on South Jackson street.

The annual holiday dance, which is to occur at the armory on Saturday, December 19, will be an informal affair to which the public is cordially invited.

Committees named to assist Miss Beverly Wood, general chairman of the event, were decorations, Miss Georgia Emery, chairman; Miss Betty Stark, Mrs. Carl Lindsay, Mrs. J. M. Leonard, Loretta Loeftler, orchestra; Miss Eleanor Ragan and Mrs. Henry Marsden, Jr., finances; Miss Nadine Pinkerton and Miss Jane Gilbreath, publicity; Miss Hildred McLaughlin and Mrs. Clarence Dunlap.

Arrangements for the advance ticket sale which started this week and for radio announcements of the event, the first dance of the Christmas season, were completed at the meeting. Elaborate, but informal, decorations in an appropriate weather theme for the "Big Splash" were also arranged.

Mrs. L. I. Whitworth and Miss Dorothy Whitaker were appointed as joint chairmen of the Doernbecher milk bottle fund drive, sponsored annually during Christmas week by the Junior Woman's club. Milk bottles will be placed in numerous stores of the city during that week, December 21 to 26, for voluntary public donations. The entire proceeds are turned into a benefit fund which is sent to the Doernbecher Memorial hospital for crippled children, in Portland, each year.

An announcement was made by the club president, Mrs. W. E. Unrath, that the Nisaski Campfire group, sponsored by the club, will conduct a pre-Christmas bazaar at The Odd Fellows building, corner of Cass and Jackson streets, commencing Wednesday, Dec. 16, and continuing until Saturday. Members of the group have prepared a number of articles, including embroidered tea towels, boudoir pillows, stuffed toys, etc., which are now on display there.

At the conclusion of the business session, Miss Carmel Newland gave an enjoyable paper on books in the home and offered an interesting and varied list of new books available.

A wedding gift was presented to Mrs. Reginald Erskine, recent bride, in behalf of the club by Mrs. Unrath, presiding officer.

A Christmas party and tree will be enjoyed by club members at the monthly social meeting on Monday, December 21, with Mrs. Adrian Bowen as hostess, assisted by Mrs. T. H. Pargeter, Mrs. Waldo Campbell, Miss Helen Conine and Miss Elmira Blake. A real, old-fashioned Christmas party and exchange of gifts is being planned and all members of the organization have been extended a cordial invitation to attend.

Those who enjoyed Monday's meeting included Mrs. W. E. Unrath, Mrs. Clifford Smith, Mrs. Reginald Erskine, Mrs. T. H. Pargeter, Mrs. L. M. Dunn, Mrs. Louis K. Pies, Mrs. Waldo Campbell, Mrs. Clarence Dunlap, Mrs. Adrian Bowen, Mrs. Carl Lindsay, Jr., Mrs. Henry Marsden, Jr., Miss Carmel Newland, Miss Eleanor Ragan, Miss Crystal Rydell, Miss Dorothy Herman, Miss Georgia Emery, Miss Hildred McLaughlin, Miss Virginia Gurnee and Miss Bernese Duncan.

COUNTRY CLUB LADIES PLAN FOR CHRISTMAS PARTY FOR NEXT WEEK

The ladies of the Roseburg Country club made plans Thursday for their annual Christmas party at the clubhouse for next Thursday, beginning with bridge in the morning, potluck luncheon at noon and the exchange of inexpensive Christmas gifts. Golfing will be enjoyed in the afternoon. Mrs. J. F. Dillard, captain, presided at the business meeting.

Two tables of bridge were in play in the morning with Mrs. H. C. Stearns winning the first prize. Luncheon was served at noon to Mrs. J. F. Dillard, Mrs. Phil Harth, Mrs. M. L. Ganey, Mrs. J. M. Judd, Mrs. Kenneth Quine, Mrs. J. E. Marks, Mrs. Frank Coen, Mrs. W. E. Ott and Mrs. H. C. Stearns. Golfing was enjoyed in the afternoon.

The dance committee is making arrangements for a potluck dinner and Christmas dancing party for members of the club only to be held some time during the holidays, the date of which will be announced later.
