BEN BERNIE PUTS KAYO ON ANNOYER
HOLLYWOOD, Calif., Feb. 6.—(AP)—Ben Bernie, the old maestro, joined the ranks of battling band leaders last night by knocking out an assorted annoyance in the midst of a dance and radio program at the Coconut Grove.

It was a one-punch bout, witnesses said, with the victim requiring 80 minutes to be revived.

Bernie said he was lending his "lads" in a musical number when a man in the throng of dancers neared the band stand and ribbed him about the clear in his mouth.

Bernie's cigar is as much a part of his trademark as his "yowzah." He admitted he was irritated, but was willing to overlook the ridicule.

A few moments later, he asserted, the dancing annoyance approached, this time calling him harsher names. Guy dived-out in the movie colony light spot saw Bernie step down from the stand and uncork a left hook to the chin. The man fell.

The band leader's knuckles were skinned and two fingers sprained. His opponent identified himself as a naval officer on leave, and departed after expressing his apologies, attendants reported.

"That's one punch Winchell didn't get first," joked Bernie later.

SUTHERLIN
SUTHERLIN, Feb. 6.—Mr. and Mrs. Royal Abeene were business visitors in Roseburg on Wednesday.

Mrs. Alva Manning and her daughter, Catherine, stopped in Roseburg Wednesday. Miss Catherine, who has been attending the Northwestern School of Commerce in Portland, has been home for the past ten days with trouble caused from an infected tooth. She will return shortly.

Miss Dale Green, who is taking nurses' training in Portland has had an operation on her foot at Portland and is convalescing nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Smith, who have been living in Roseburg for the past two years have moved back to their own residence in Sutherlin. Mr. and Mrs. Owen Rose, who formerly occupied the house have moved to the Harney house.

Mr. and Mrs. Art Smith have recently purchased the Abeene place and have moved into the home recently occupied by Royal Abeene. Mr. and Mrs. Royal Abeene are living at the Thero place.

Mrs. Zimmerman and small baby have returned from the hospital at Roseburg and are staying with Mr. and Mrs. Rudolf Davis.

Mr. and Mrs. Noah Rose, Jr. are the proud parents of a boy weighing nine pounds born on Tuesday morning at the home of Mrs. Rose's mother, Mrs. Wahl. This is the second child and has been named Bobby.

Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Lehne, who have been visiting their son, Myron, at their ranch at Fair Oaks, for several weeks, left for Pasco, Washington, the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Stanley, of West Fir, Ore., have been the house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jake Francis for the past week. They left for their home on Wednesday. Mrs. Henry Denley is at Roseburg caring for her daughter, Mrs. Pierson, who recently gave birth to a baby girl. The baby was born on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Steur were Roseburg visitors on Monday. The east bus of the Sutherlin school is still unable to cover its complete trip, the children being transported by Lloyd Thompson from the district above him. The Cooper, Frazier, Flory and Barber families being the ones on the impassable road. The west bus has been unable to come in since the first of the week when trees falling and bridges washing out made the road impassable. The cream truck belonging to the local plant and being driven by Bob Bailey was caught in the heavy snow at Kellogg and cannot be moved. The driver, who lives in Sutherlin, was unable to get in touch with his people for two days, lines being down and roads washed out.

Mrs. A. Steur was a Sunday visitor at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Shupe. Mr. Shupe, who has been in poor health for several weeks is improving rapidly.

Joe Chamberlain, who spent the week-end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Chamberlain, is proudly displaying the uniform of "corporal," a promotion he gained while attending school at Corvallis.

Mrs. W. O. Gilderaleve is reported to be quite ill at her home east of town.

Mrs. Warren Coleman and baby daughter, born about a month ago, returned home last week.

Mrs. Arthur Weber has been ill with the flu but is improving.

SOUTH DEER CREEK
SOUTH DEER CREEK, Feb. 6.—A crew of six neighbors and friends went up to the D. M. Smith place on Brushy Butte Wednesday where there is about three feet of snow to move the hay from his barn that had collapsed under the weight of the snow, to adjoining sheds.

Considerable damage has been done to the rye in the community from the severe weather the past week.

A 4-H Livestock club has been organized at the local school with Albert Karcher, Byron McKean, Richard Gilliam, Harlan Melton and Bernard Coldman. Stewart Hall is acting as club leader. Other clubs formed are taking sewing and forestry, being led by Miss Taggart, the teacher in the district.

Mrs. Volney McKean and daughter Waltha Gay have been ill with the influenza.

A dance was held last Saturday for the purpose of raising funds for the purchase of some new chairs for the grange hall.

Earl Duncan, who has been under the doctor's care, suffering from a misplaced vertebra in his back, caused from slipping with a bale of hay, is somewhat improved.

Mr. and Mrs. Huey Van Horn, who have been working and residing on the Rainbow dairy, have moved to Roseburg.

Wm. Bailey is rapidly disposing of his apple crop, finding a good demand for his fruit.

Hennie Melton has been absent from high school the past few days on account of a severe cold.
