FOES OF COURT PLAN TO CONTINUE FIGHT

tor Wheeler (D. Mont.), however, affirmed his unwavering opposition. He said: "I regret that the president attempted to inflame the passions of the people with the implication that the supreme court was responsible for the dust bowl and the Ohio floods. The opposition tried to keep the argument on a higher plane.

"The democratic platform, dictated by the president himself, pointed the way to the reforms he desires by constitutional amendment. The problems that are with us now were with us when that platform was written."

Speaker Bankhead said he thought the president's address "was a crackerjack." He added:

"I don't know what effect it is going to have on crystallizing opinion, but the friends of the president and those who are with him on the matter are glad to have this candid expression."

Critics Reply

Representative Michener (R., Mich.), member of the house judiciary committee, had this to say:

"The president makes it very clear that the real purpose of his proposal is to place men on the supreme court who will be a part of the team of which he is captain and coach. He forgets that the purpose of the supreme court is to see that the other two members of the team do not violate the rules of the game."

Representative Lemke (R., N. D.), union party candidate for president in the last campaign, observed:

"I know of no supreme court decisions that have blocked the progress of the dust bowl and floods. Why are we not attacking the flood problem on a national scale rather than by patch work? The constitution could be amended in less than time it will take to fight over the president's program."

Praise Showers

In hailing the president's address, William Green, president of the American Federation of Labor, said it would "arouse the people to realization of what the judiciary reorganization plan really means." Other favorable comment included: Secretary Wallace: "It will make the farmer think like he has never thought before."

Chairman O'Connor (D., N. Y.), of the house rules committee: "Typical of the president who has been fighting a great cause throughout his career and will continue to fight."

Senator Sheppard, (D., Tex.): "One of the greatest addresses in American history."

Senator O'Mahoney, (D., Wyo.): "The greatest speech he ever made. Maybe he has just begun to fight."

ELMIRA SLUGGER JAILED AT EUGENE

He is said to have told a rambling story, the substance of which was that he had formerly been connected with a "gang" and that he had seen members of this gang here and knew they were connected with the crime. Asked why he had said he had taken poison, he told officers he was afraid he knew too much and that anyway after a man had had "as much hard luck and been broken up as much as I have" it didn't matter much.

He then calmly offered to "finish what I started" if physicians would give him some strychnine.

Officers placed little credence in his story last night, but held him on the drunk charge pending developments.

WHEN WE STOP GREASY INDIGESTION WE FEEL JUST FINE

Our stomachs can't digest greasy. Neither can our bowels. Only our pancreatic juice working with our bile juice, can digest grease.

When we get bad taste, headache and that nasty greasy feeling which comes from greasy indigestion, take Carter's Little Liver Pills before each meal and after.

Carter's Little Liver Pills bring a large flow of our pancreatic juice and bile juice into our bowels. The large flow of these juices digests the grease we have eaten. Then we burst into life and into our work like a joyful skyrocket.

If you want his glorious relief from greasy indigestion, ask your druggist for Carter's Little Liver Pills by name and stubbornly refuse to buy anything else. 25c

STOP AND GO DRIVING IS COSTLY

Every time you start up from a normal traffic stop, you can waste enough gasoline to drive a third of a mile! To cut down the high cost of today's stop-and-go driving in village, town, and city, Shell engineers developed a way to "balance" gasoline. This balancing process re-arranges the entire chemical structure of gasoline—makes it "digestible" for your engine—just as cooking makes food digestible for you. Your motor gets the full benefit of Super-Shell's high energy content. Super-Shell—the "MOTOR-DIGESTIBLE" gasoline is sold from coast to coast. There's a Shell station in your neighborhood. Stop there "next time."
