

News of Douglas County

DAYS CREEK

DAYS CREEK, March 10.—Regardless of the cold unsettled weather of February, spring has really arrived here. Lyle Spore found the first reported lamb-tongue of the season up Days creek Sunday.

The Roseburg Kiwanis will present "School Days" at the local school auditorium, Monday evening, March 15. There will be no attendance charge and every one is assured of a very entertaining evening. Refreshments will be sold following the performance, the proceeds to be used for a 4-H club scholarship fund.

Members of the South Umpqua Rod and Gun club and South Umpqua grange hunt hawks will be interested to note that the "points" for various pests will be as follows: Coyote, 1000; rat, 100; digger, 100; gopher, 150; mole, 100; owl, 250; hawk, 250; crow, 100; blue jay, 100; rattle snake, 100; weasel, 100; rabbit, 100; mice, 25. Other pests may be added to the rod and gun list later.

Alva Matthews, who is employed at Detroit, spent the week-end here with his family.

Mrs. Archie Ferguson and Mrs. Alva Matthews were Roseburg visitors Monday.

Mrs. Frank Alvord and J. A. Rhoads were visitors in Roseburg Tuesday.

ELKTON

ELKTON, March 10.—Mrs. Mable Poole spent the week-end in Eugene.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Sharp were Cottage Grove visitors Sunday.

R. Wilson made a business trip to Elkton Monday.

Mrs. Elsie Wells, of Cottage Grove, is an Elkton visitor.

Lloyd Smith is at home with the mumps.

Jess Lasswell, of Yoncalla, was an Elkton visitor Wednesday.

Mrs. Maud Kingston returned from Drain Friday where she had been visiting at the home of Mrs. Ira Wheeler.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Forrest, of Sheridan, is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. DeGnath.

Mrs. Orpha Blunder, Mrs. Hulda McDonald and Theresa Andrews were Eugene visitors Wednesday.

Mrs. Mary Haines and Junior Haines were Drain visitors Thursday.

Auden Cheena has returned home from Salem where he has been in the hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Wilcox were Eugene visitors Saturday.

T. L. Ralph was in Roseburg to see Mrs. Ralph, who is ill there.

Mr. and Mrs. Norvig Wetherly were Roseburg visitors Wednesday.

RIDDLE

RIDDLE, March 10.—Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Logsdon and daughter, Willametta, were shopping and attending to business matters in Roseburg Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Courtney Towne of Eugene were the guests of relatives here Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Crow of Roseburg were guests Sunday at the home of Mr. Crow's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Crow.

Mr. and Mrs. Abner Logsdon of Klamath Falls are spending the week here visiting relatives.

I. B. Nichols, of Brockway, was transacting business here Monday.

Frank Weaver, who has been convalescing from a severe illness suffered a relapse and was taken to the veterans' hospital in Roseburg Monday where he is receiving treatment for a collapsed lung.

Mrs. Elmer Hostetter and her sister-in-law, Mrs. David Hostetter, and children, of Harrisburg, visited at the home of Mrs. Effie Ledgerwood Thursday.

Dale Weekly, of Boomer Hill, was attending to business matters here Monday.

Mrs. Sarah Jackson and Harold Gilbreath of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Bowden of Klamath Falls, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Hughes of Portland, Mrs. Frances Dorkis of Seattle, Millard Gilbreath and Mr. and Mrs. Fields, of Washington, were among out-of-town relatives who attended the funeral of Mrs. M. M. Gilbreath Wednesday.

Mrs. Jack Drews, of Roseburg, is spending several weeks here visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Haines.

At a recent meeting the Riddle school board re-elected the present corps of teachers for the coming year. Prof. Chester Cook was re-elected principal, Paul Campbell and Laura Freeman Powell, assistant high school; Leland Harter, seventh and eighth grades; Bertha Hundell, fourth, fifth and sixth grades, and Mrs. Lila Haines, primary. Leland Harter will again have the position of coach in athletics.

MYRTLE CREEK

MYRTLE CREEK, March 11.—Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Phillips and daughter, Mrs. Pefferly, and Misses Marjorie and May Childers, all of Grants Pass, visited Sunday with Mrs. Phillips' brother, Leslie Childers, and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Moore of Glendale visited over the week-end with the Daily family and attended church with their Sunday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Hall of McFarland, Oregon, near Junction City, where Mr. Hall is pastor of the South Methodist church, were visiting here Thursday with former parishioners, Mr. Hall having been pastor here a few years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Stearns, accompanied by Mrs. A. M. Verrell, spent the week-end in Portland.

Sheridan Conner left for Yakima, Washington, last week to begin shearing sheep. Mr. Conner goes each year to operate a shearing machine and during the season works over considerable territory in the inland empire, usually finishing in Montana.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Way and son, from Broadbent, spent the week-end here visiting Mr. Way's mother, Mrs. Margaret Way, and other relatives and friends.

John A. Jackson, who has been in very poor health all winter, is visiting in Monroe, at the home of his brother-in-law, Dr. Edward Bennett, where he is receiving medical treatment. At last reports he was slowly improving.

Miss Lola Weber, of Mauphi, who has been visiting for the past ten days with her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Dan W. Poling, left Tuesday on the stage for Salem, where she has employment.

Mrs. Venora Bates Beecroft returned to Drain Sunday to resume her teaching after an enforced vacation of two weeks, due to a smallpox outbreak. Mrs. Beecroft spent the time at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Bates.

C. C. March and Frank C. Mulkey were business visitors at Roseburg Wednesday.

"Uncle Jimmy" Jackson of Fyork creek, is recovering from an attack of smallpox.

The Marcus family in Missouri Bottom is out of quarantine and the children back in school, following a smallpox visitation in their home. Fortunately the disease was very light in form.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Redifer are at home to their friends at their rooms at the Myrtle hotel, where Everett is working.

Mrs. George Puckett and two friends, all of Roseburg, visited Mrs. Puckett's mother, Mrs. M. Way, last Wednesday.

Word has been received by the William McLain family of the tragic death of the former Bertha Smith, a sister of the late Mrs. McLain.

A group of about 15 members of the O. E. S. of this place motored to Canyonville Wednesday to attend a special session of the lodge there during the visit of Mrs. Anna Ellis, grand lecturer of the order. A group of six members of Valentine chapter of Myrtle Creek also attended the regular Tuesday evening meeting of Riddle chapter during Mrs. Ellis' visit.

MELROSE

MELROSE, March 10.—Mrs. H. P. Conn is visiting at Canyonville with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Wade Worthington.

Newell Woods of Days Creek spent the last week-end visiting Edward Busenbark.

D. N. Busenbark went to Portland Sunday and returned to his home Monday.

Miss Pearl Lynn of Salem spent the last week-end visiting her sister, Mrs. Ed Glass.

J. E. Conn is building a large brooder house on his place.

Edward Busenbark and Ed Glass helped Walter Kruse haul hay last Saturday from the George Crane place.

Emil Galla and Carl Backlund, employed at Sitkum CCC camp, spent the week-end visiting their families and returned to Sitkum Sunday afternoon.

A group of friends gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Julia Slidt last Monday evening to celebrate Mr. and Mrs. Louis Miller, who were married that day.

Mrs. Miller was Mrs. Cora Brotherton and has resided at Melrose for many years. The couple left Wednesday for Chehalis, Wash., to make their home.

AZALEA

AZALEA, March 9.—Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Johns and Mrs. E. L. Johns attended to business in Roseburg Thursday. Mrs. E. L. Johns also visited with Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Chadwick of Dixonville.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Goff of Glendale are spending several days visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles King.

George Dewey of Portland spent Sunday here visiting with friends.

Miss Thelma Stringer visited in Grants Pass over the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Booth of Placer visited Saturday here with his mother, Mary Booth.

Frank Jantzer, Jr., transacted business in Roseburg one day last week.

Welcome Guest and his sister, Elva, shopped and visited in Roseburg Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Clarno of Remote, and Mrs. Harry Williams and daughters, Irene and Jean, of Roseburg, visited Saturday with Mr. and Mrs. Champ Johns, and attended the funeral of Alvin Burch in Glendale Saturday afternoon.

Ora Condray Jr. made a business trip to Roseburg Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Stark visited friends and transacted business in Portland several days last week.

Mr. and Mrs. William Sharp and Raphael Sharp visited in Medford over the week-end.

R. D. McCarty made a trip to Roseburg Saturday on business.

Jerome Sharp of Burbank, arrived here the last of the week for a visit with his brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. William Sharp, and his brother, Raphael Sharp.

The Azalea grange met Monday evening for one of the regular meetings. Plans were made for a pie social and dance afterwards, to be given the 19th of March. The grange now has their new windows and doors which will be of great help.

GLENDALE

GLENDALE, March 9.—Charles Butler, who has been ill for some time, was taken to the state sanitarium at Salem Wednesday.

Mrs. Homer Reed and small daughter, Betty Rose, will leave Sunday for Austin, Texas, where they will join Mr. Reed and make their future home.

OUT OUR WAY

Elkton Dealer Tunes in On His Prize

J. L. Cook (left), Gilmore Independent dealer of Elkton, is shown tuning in station KRNR on his new radio, a "King for a Day" prize recently awarded by the Gilmore Oil company at the conclusion of their coast-wide dealer sales contest. A. H. Smith (right), manager of the C. A. Perkins company, distributors for Gilmore products, made the presentation. It is reported that Mr. Cook is starting construction immediately on a new motion picture theatre in the center of Elkton, to cost approximately $20,000. The new theatre, seating 400 people, will be air-conditioned and feature the latest developments in sound equipment.

B. C. Huntington, principal of the Glendale school, attended the meeting of principals of southern Douglas county in Canyonville Sunday.

Miss Luella Cunningham and Mrs. Bessie Sellers left Saturday for Klamath Falls and then on to Los Angeles, for a visit.

P. D. Winch and Ed and Bill Wilder transacted business in Roseburg Wednesday.

Mrs. Jesse Lindsay and son Jack of Malin, Oregon, visited at the Harry Lindsay home Wednesday and Thursday.

Mrs. D. H. Miller, Mrs. Joe Franklin and Mrs. Kemp and small daughter were Grants Pass visitors Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Merlin Morey returned to Vancouver, Washington, Sunday after a two weeks visit here with Mr. Morey's mother, Mrs. W. B. Lesh.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Garrett and son of Camas Valley visited at the home of Mr. Garrett's sister, Mrs. Harry Lindsay, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. V. V. Vunch and Mrs. J. K. Howard drove to Grants Pass Sunday to bring home Rev. Howard, who has been in the Bacon View sanitarium for several weeks under medical treatment.

Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Richards and Mrs. Sidna Davis visited in Medford Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Chaney of Grants Pass spent Sunday with Mrs. Chaney's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Austin.

Mrs. Hilma Matthews and Mrs. Charles Boice transacted business in Roseburg Monday.

Mrs. Melvin Nye visited with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Keyes, near Grants Pass Wednesday.

Miss Faye Thompson, Miss Nellie Gray, Miss Alberta Thomas and Mrs. J. S. Woodroffe were Grants

By Williams CLUBS FORMED BY GLENDALE SCHOOL

GLENDALE, Ore., March 13.—Two new clubs have been formed by the high school students.

The dramatic club held their first meeting Wednesday evening in the school auditorium and elected Charles Boice, president, and Billie Bunch, secretary-treasurer.

Miss Faye Thompson is their advisor. A constitution was drawn up and a committee named to take charge of the initiation of new members. The club will meet every two weeks for the study of dramatics and expects later to appear before the public. The club boasts twenty-three members.

For the business meeting an entertainment, consisting of a Major Bowes amateur hour was presented with Maxine McMurren, Ruth Hoots and John Simmons sponsors. The evening closed with the serving of lovely refreshments, with Billie Bunch as hostess.

The second club is a camera club with Principal B. C. Huntington as the advisor. Elected officers include Flora Martin, president; Albert Vaughn, vice-president; Lorraine Reed, secretary, and Louis Brady, treasurer. The members, twenty-eight in all, associated themselves dues of 50c, and members will have the privilege of using developing papers and chemicals to this amount. Two meetings a month is planned, one for a business meeting and the second for work.

WILBUR

WILBUR, March 9.—Mr. and Mrs. Willis Bruce and baby of Cloverdale, Ore., visited Sunday with Mr. Bruce's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Russell.

Robert Jones and Ray Grimm, of Olympia, Wash., were guests Monday of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Webber. The visitors were en route to San Francisco.

Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Godfrey of Cascade Summit, spent the week-end visiting with relatives in Wilbur.

Miss Jane Irving, who is teaching at Canby, Oregon, visited over the week-end with her mother, Mrs. L. A. Irving.

Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Bridge, of Westfir, Ore., were guests Wednesday of Mr. Bridge's mother, Mrs. B. Bridge.

MELROSE

MELROSE, March 13.—Mrs. Carrie Thoen, teacher at Melrose school, has been lifted for the ensuing year.

D. N. Busenbark returned home Monday from a business trip to Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. George Sunberg and two children spent the last week-end at Drain visiting Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bartholomew, parents of Mrs. Sunberg. They returned home Sunday evening, bringing Mrs. Bartholomew home with them for a week's visit.

Mrs. Carl Becker is reported to be able to be out again after being very ill at her home.

Mr. Sphero, who formerly resided on the old Ward place, made a business trip to Melrose Wednesday. He moved his family to Edenbow about a month ago.

The program sponsored by the Roseburg Kiwanis club at the Melrose grange hall Tuesday evening was attended by a large and appreciative audience. Following the enjoyable program refreshments were sold. The proceeds for the

H. C. Kelley has been hauling hay to Coos county for the past week. Jesse Kirkendall went to Marshfield with him Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Farmer and baby daughter, visited in Myrtle Point Monday.

Mrs. Elt Thrush and small daughter, Rachel, went to Rogue River Thursday to stay with Mrs. Thrush's mother, Mrs. Todd for a few weeks to rest. Mrs. Thrush is very ill and will have to undergo a major operation as soon as she gains strength. Elt's sister, Musie, is doing the house work and caring for the other children.

Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Denn and two children have moved to Portland. Mrs. Denn's eyes are in a serious condition and will be necessary for her to be there and take treatments for some time in order to save her eyesight.

Miriam Rice of Tenille spent Friday night with Geneva Huntington.

The Standley logging camp at Steln's gap has at last been able to start operations. There was only a foot of snow left on the west slope of the mountain the first of the week.

Dee Coon is working in a logging camp at Rock creek.

Mrs. Ernest Wheeler and Josephine Smith helped to re-organize the Intermediate League Sunday evening. There were nine present for the meeting and several more will come in later.

TRAFFIC PENALTY HITS EX-UNION HEAD

ASTORIA, March 12.—(AP)—Arvid Mattson, former secretary of the Columbia River Fishermen's Protective union, received a 30-day jail sentence and a $100 fine today on a drunken driving charge. His driving license was revoked.

Mattson gave notice of appeal and was released on a $500 bond.

CAR LOAD

Galvanized Pipe

American Manufacture

Due March 20th

Get our off car price and save real money.

DENN-GERRETSEN CO.

evening will be used for a 4-H club scholarship to the Corvallis summer school to be awarded by the Melrose grange.

Gunner Hedberg has gone to Millwood where he will be employed in trucking logs to the Ford mill in Roseburg.

Corvallis all winter has been transferred to Grants Pass. Mrs. Hannan will join him in about six weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Shirey and family of Bonners Ferry, Idaho, have purchased what is known as the Bishop place just east of town.

FIRE DAMAGES HOME AT DREW

DREW, March 13.—The Wayne Dean home was slightly damaged by fire Wednesday evening. A can of cleaning fluid was mistaken for kerosene and a quantity poured on a smoldering fire. The explosion ignited the can of fluid, throwing the burning liquid over the house. The fire was quickly extinguished by the flames. Mrs. Dean also received slight burns.

The fire was soon brought under control with damage being confined to the interior of the kitchen.

YONCALLA

YONCALLA, March 12.—A fellowship meeting was enjoyed at the Church of Christ Saturday evening, followed by a rousing rally day service Sunday. Special music was given by Myron Willard of Eugene. A basket dinner was served at noon, followed by a musical program in the afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Grass and M. E. Hartley of Nobsalla have moved on the Oscar Langdon place, together with Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Smith and family, who are on the Henry Payne place and Mr. and Mrs. Wells, at the mines. They are all working getting out pilling for the Perent brothers.

Mr. and Mrs. Rudy Ulbricht are being congratulated on the arrival of a seven pound daughter, born March 8th, with Dr. McKnight attending physician.

Earl Guyas of Los Angeles visited at the D. C. Wilson home for several days this week, en route to Corvallis.

Mrs. Carrie Odell of Elkton spent a couple of days this week visiting at the George Edna home.

Mrs. Clifford Hansen is home for a few weeks. Her husband, who has been with the CCC camp near

DANCE

with the Gilmore Merry-makers Canyonville Saturday Night

AUCTION SALE

Tuesday, Mar. 16

1:00 P. M.

C. O. NELSON

place on Cleveland Hill road, 2 miles from Melrose Store, Box 226.

Some of items are:

1 cow

Beds

Dressers

Chairs

Tables

Separator

Stoves

Bookcase

Dishes and pans

Some farm machinery

Carpenter tools

Many other items too numerous to mention.

Terms: Cash

Andy Veline Tailor Shop

WILL OPEN MONDAY, MARCH 15 Cleaning and Pressing, Alterations and Repair

Agent for J. L. Taylor Co., Suits and Overcoats. Made to your measure. 435 N. JACKSON ST.

Douglas Funeral Home

Established 1926

Perfect Funeral Services AMBULANCE SERVICE

PHONE 112 H. C. STEARNS FUNERAL DIRECTOR PHONE 112

Pine and Lane Sts. Lady Attendant

Four Door Touring Sedan

$1095

DELIVERED IN ROSEBURG

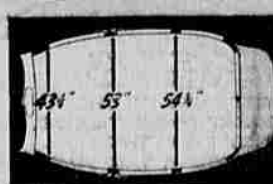

NOW...A CHRYSLER IN THE LOW-PRICED FIELD

It's HERE... a Chrysler at a price nobody even dreamed of before.

And what a car! So big, so roomy, so comfortable. So alive with dashing style and dashing performance.

And on top of that... amazing economy. Three to four more miles per gallon than many cars of much less horsepower! Come in and see the new Chrysler Royal. Drive it. Compare it with any car you've ever seen. You'll agree it's the smartest buy on the road... the biggest money's worth in motor car history.

AT LAST... REAL SPACIOUSNESS IN A LOW-PRICED CAR!

1937 CHRYSLERS AND PLYMOUTH ON DISPLAY AT—

ROSE MOTOR COMPANY

STEPHENS AND MOSHER STREETS