Daily Devotions

DR. CHARLES A. EDWARDS

It is a reasonable proposition, surely, that the disciple should not be above his master. A disciple is a learner, a follower, one who tries to cultivate the spirit and imitate the example of his master. Discipleship does not mean anything at all unless it means such things as I mention. Christian discipleship means trying to cultivate the spirit of our Master and to do the things that we think He would do if He faced life as we face it. It would be an excellent thing to test ourselves rather faithfully as to how we are living up to such a test of our discipleship as that. Called to by the disciples, O God, we pray for Thy grace and Thy wisdom and the courage to be able to give a good account of our following Thee. Amen.
