POET'S CORNER

LITTLE SISTER

Little sister, who has gone,
Little sister, hear me pray;
Little sister, you were dawn!
Little sister, you were day!
Is it strange that such as I
Should fear to tread where you
Have trod
Up the pathway to the sky
To take abode with loving God?
Sister, when my life is done
Little sister, hear me pray,
Little sister, when I come
Hang a star to light my way.
—Thomas F. Hofeling.
