Daily Devotions

DR. CHARLES A. EDWARDS

In the very shadow of the cross, the nearest and most trusted friend of Jesus are disputing about worldly power and place and honor. That surely must have grieved His sensitive soul and made heavier the burden that He had to bear. That was the tragic addition to His already heavy burden, that no one seemed to know what it was all about or seemed to enter into any degree of understanding as to what He was doing or to give Him comfort and cheer in His doing of it. Doubtless we think how blind and stupid they were, but is it not very easy to be stupid even in the presence of the greatest spiritual realities? Open our eyes to see, and our hearts to feel the great and mysterious truths of life and death and duty and destiny. Keep us from little thoughts and small ways. Give us a desire to do Thy will in Jesus name we ask The Amen.

ALL'S READY FOR ENDEAVORERS' MEET

CORVALLIS, Ore., April 9.—More than 1000 Oregon boys and girls from 19 to 18 years old are expected to attend the forty-seventh annual State Christian Endeavor convention for which Corvallis and Oregon State college will be hosts April 15 to 18. Many of the sessions will be held on the college campus. Oregon has 500 Christian Endeavor societies, with a total of more than 10,000 members, and each society is a member of one of the 18 unions into which the state is divided. The delegates will be housed in private homes in Corvallis, Albany and Philomath, according to Mrs. O. M. Locke, Corvallis, placement chairman, and arrangements are being made for the women's groups of three churches to serve meals to the visitors.

Contests Planned Six major contests are planned for the convention, with prizes for individuals, societies and unions. In the oratorical contest speakers may choose a topic from the general convention theme, "Thy Kingdom Come," as it applies to the home, school, community, nation and world, and the winners on each of the five topics will speak before the separate sessions of the convention. A big event of the convention will be the parade, in which a state-wide flag race now in progress will determine the positions of the unions. Songs, regalia, marching, banners and floats will be considered in the judging. Floats may not cost more than $3 and must emphasize some phase of the convention theme. Prizes will also be awarded for registrations of 10 or more, provided they in the mail not later than April 7. A contest for posters advertising the convention and its theme will be another feature, with a union prize offered for the best group of posters and for individuals. Each union is also entitled to enter one playlet in the high school and intermediate drama contest, in which judging will be based on stewardship appeal, interpretation and costumes. Plays are limited to five characters and 15 minutes presentation time. Awards for the oratorical and dramatic contests include full and half scholarships to the summer conference camp.

First Presbyterian Church, "As Mount Zion" is the subject at the Presbyterian church for the 11 a. m. sermon Sunday. Organ vesper service at 7:25 p. m. Bible school, 9:45 to 10:35 a. m.; morning worship, 10:35 to 11:45; Christian Endeavor, 6:30 p. m.; evangelism, 7:30 p. m. By request, Mr. Cunningham will sing "Goin' Home" at the evening service.

First Baptist Church, J. R. Turnbull, minister. 9:30 a. m. prayer meeting; 9:45 a. m. Bible school. Harry Howe, superintendent. A reorganized school of five departments, 11 a. m. morning worship, broadcast over KRNB. Five-minute talk to boys and girls. Tenor solo, W. F. Downer. Sermon, "The First Fruits." Lord's Supper at close. Reception of new members, 6:30 p. m. B. V. P. U. Junior and senior, 7:30 p. m. gospel service. Tenth-century hymn singing. Duets, Mrs. W. Robertson and Mrs. G. Hartel. Sermon, "The Gullibility of Unbelief." Wednesday, 7:30 p. m., prayer, praise and Bible study. Subject, Eph. 4:1-16.

Pine Grove, Dixonville, Sunday school at 10:15. Mrs. Hattie Lindblom, superintendent. School will be followed by a basket dinner at 12:45. J. R. Turnbull of the First Baptist church, Roseburg, will preach at the monthly service at 2 p. m. Mr. and Mrs. Turnbull will sing. Everybody welcome.

The Salvation Army, April 10th is the birthday of the founder of the Salvation Army. On Saturday and Sunday at all the meetings. Sunday bright topics from his life will be discussed. William Booth found through "service" he was able to serve God and enjoy a real, happy Christian experience. Service for others was a motto governing his life. Saturday night is Founder's night at the Salvation Army. Meeting at 8 p. m. Company meeting, 9:45 a. m. Sunday. Holiness meeting at 11 a. m. Young People's League meets at 6:45 p. m. Come and join us in these services. "Our religion is service. When in trouble call us." Lieut. E. Dietz.

MRS. ANNA BANE OF MELROSE DIES

Mrs. Anna Bane, 63, resident of Melrose, died at her home Thursday afternoon, following a short illness. She was born at Wyconda, Mo., November 17, 1874, and has been a resident of Oregon since August, 1936. She was married to Willard C. Bane at Kahoka, Mo., in 1915. Mr. Bane died about two years ago. She was a member of the Christian church. Surviving her are two children, Delbert W. Bane and Fern V. Bane, both of Melrose. She is also survived by five brothers, Bert and Ernest Hodges of Monmouth, Ill.; Hiram and Herman Hodges of Los Angeles, Calif.; and Elmer Hodges of Missouri; also by two sisters, Myrtle Hodges of Kahoka, Mo., and Pearl Hodges of Monmouth, Ill. The body has been removed to the Douglas Funeral home and funeral arrangements will be announced later, pending receipt of word from relatives.

ELGAROSE PLAY AIDS 4-H SCHOLAR FUND

Parents of the Elgarose school gave a program last night at the school play building for the benefit of the 4-H summer school scholarship fund there. A one-act play by a group of Roseburg junior high school students, "How the Story Grew," proved very interesting as well as humorous. The cast included: Jean Myer, Betty Owen, Mary Margaret Ellsworth, Patty Glenn, Rosemary Irving, Dorothy Crammett and Claydine Hurby. The group is coached by Scott Williams of the junior high school. Donald Bashford and Lucia Britton played three numbers on the accordion and piano. This was followed by several songs, with guitar and harmonica accompaniment by Helen, Dorothy and Donald White. Patty Glenn also played some numbers on the guitar and harmonica. Allen Gordon was present and pleased the audience with several accordion numbers. Following the entertainment a food sale was held. Home-made ice cream, "hot dogs," cake, pie, sandwiches and coffee were on sale.

VIOLATOR OF MOTOR LAW PAYS $10 FINE A fine of $10 was paid in the city court today by Carter Shanklin of Roseburg who pleaded guilty to a charge of violation of the motor vehicle law. His arrest by city officers followed a collision. City Recorder A. J. Geddes reported.

Attends to Business—George P. Topping, Jandon attorney, was a business visitor at the Douglas county courthouse yesterday.

Reveries of a coffee cup
"I've been in service for a long, long time. But I've never considered life tedious or dreary. On the contrary it's very uplifting. You see, the only coffee ever served in me is Hills Bros. Coffee."

For fifty-nine years Hills Bros. have steadfastly maintained a tradition of unchanging quality in roasting and packing the finest coffee obtainable.
