BEULAH MAGILL AND LINDSEY PRIMM MARRY AT ENTERPRISE, OREGON

ENTERPRISE, May 24.—At a most beautiful and impressive ceremony held at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Magill of Lostine, Miss Beulah M. Magill became the bride of Lindsey Primm of La Grande, Saturday night.

The house was decorated with lovely spring flowers and the services were read by Rev. E. A. Pollock at 8:00 p. m. by the light of tall tapers.

The bride wore a gown of white pebbly crepe and her corsage was of rose-buds, sweet-peas and grape hyacinths. She was attended for her departure in a blue suit with matching accessories.

After the services were read a buffet luncheon was served to the guests. Those present were immediate relatives of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Magill, Mr. and Mrs. Sanford Chapman and son, Jack, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Wilkerson and children, Mary Agnes and Howard Roe, Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Magill, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Eberhardt and Charles Primm of La Grande, Homer Hankins of Madras, Wisconsin, Rev. E. A. Pollock and Audra Wise.

Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Primm left for a short wedding tour to Portland and other places of interest. Roseburg is to be their home.

FRANK LEMMA AND IRMA CECCHINI MARRY IN PORTLAND, MAY 23

The wedding of Miss Irma Cecchini, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Cecchini of this city, and Mr. Frank D. Lemma, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Lemma of Linn-ton, was solemnized at a beautiful high noon ceremony at St. Philip North church last Sunday. The ceremony was performed by the pastor, the Rev. Thomas F. Tierney.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a dress of ivory satin and tulle veil with a halo cap. She carried a bouquet of gardenias and lilies-of-the-valley. She was attended by her sister, Miss Ilda Cecchini, as maid of honor, and the bridesmaid's sister, Mrs. Ralph Plinckney, as patron of honor. Both were dressed in emerald green blue lace frocks. The bridesmaids, the Misses Elaine Gusti, Margaret Plancher, Mary Bocci and Fern Lorenzini, all wore blue lace and carried bouquets of pink snapdragons and sweet peas. Mr. Bernard D. Molinari acted as best man, and the ushers were the bride's brothers, Eugene Cecchini, Raymond Caputo, John Lemma, the bridegroom's brother, and Al Gusti.

Miss Gloria Palladini played the harp and Raymond Partollo sang, assisted by the organist, Mrs. Sam Amato.

A dinner followed for relatives and close friends at the Norse hall with Albert B. Ferrero acting as official toastmaster, and a large reception was held at 5 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. Lemma left late in the evening for a honeymoon to Canada.
