

Member of The Associated Press... Issued Daily except Sunday by the News-Review Co. Inc.

HARRIS ELLSWORTH... Editor... Entered as second class matter May 17, 1920, at the post office at Roseburg, Oregon, under act of March 3, 1879.

Represented By... WPA-COPYDAY

New York—21 East 40th Street, Chicago—360 N. Michigan Ave., San Francisco—230 Bush Street, Detroit—175 Stephenson Bldg., Los Angeles—112 S. Spring Street, Seattle—462 Stewart Street, Portland—143 S. W. Sixth Street, Vancouver, B. C.—711 Hall Bldg., St. Louis—411 N. Tenth Street, Atlanta—925 Grant Building.

Subscription Rates: Daily, per year... $4.00; Daily, 6 months... $2.00; Daily, 3 months... $1.00; Daily, by carrier per month... 40c.

Welcome, Caravan!

IT WAS commonly talked around the San Francisco bay region, and elsewhere, too, since the white man first settled there, that though engineering brains and genius might some time bridge the bay across to Oakland, the Golden Gate would never be bridged. They said it could not be done.

For Better Service

THE people in the northern part of the county are backing the Roseburg campaign to get better bus schedules. Will J. Hayner, editor and publisher of the Sutherlin Sun, makes the following editorial comment in his recent issue:

Editorials on News (Continued from page 1.)

ings are easily arrived at by the statisticians. To localize the figures here quoted, it is only necessary to recall that average earnings of steel workers in the East and lumber workers here on the Pacific coast are practically the same.

THE system that enables workers in America to earn the necessities of life with FAR LESS labor than is required in the other countries of Europe is the AMERICAN SYSTEM.

If workers in this country permit themselves to be misled by these cranks into tearing down the American system of industry and substituting for it the "managed economy" that rules in Europe, they will never cease to REGRET their mistake.

STORE CLOSING FOR MEMORIAL ASKED

Roseburg merchants are being asked by the Roseburg chamber of commerce to observe Memorial day by closing places of business all day Monday, May 31. The holiday falls on Sunday, but the following day is to be observed throughout the state through proclamation by Governor Charles H. Martin.

GEORGE BARR NEW BOSS OF PIRATES

George Barr has been elected coach and manager of the Roseburg Pirates, following the resignation of Claude "Duck" Taylor, because of poor health. Taylor has been serving as coach and field manager, while Barr has previously been in charge of arrangements. Taylor reports he will continue to aid the team in a coaching capacity whenever his health will permit.

KRRR PROGRAM (1,500 Kilocycles)

REMAINING HOURS TODAY: 4:00—The Editor Views the News... 7:00—Hits From the Films... 8:00—Sign Off.

TUESDAY, MAY 25

7:00—"Early Birds"... 7:30—News-Review Newscast... 10:30—"Radio Rendezvous, Copco"... 12:00—"Time Signal," Knudtson's... 4:15—"Chamber of Commerce Program"... 8:00—"Sign Off."

WEDNESDAY, MAY 26

7:00—"Early Birds"... 7:30—News-Review Newscast... 10:30—"Radio Rendezvous, Copco"... 12:00—"Time Signal," Knudtson's... 4:15—"Chamber of Commerce Program"... 8:00—"Sign Off."

EDITORIALS ON NEWS

ings are easily arrived at by the statisticians. To localize the figures here quoted, it is only necessary to recall that average earnings of steel workers in the East and lumber workers here on the Pacific coast are practically the same.

OUT OUR WAY

MURDER ON THE BLUFF

SYNOPSIS: Our wild, stormy weekend-end at Farrington Bluff, home of Michael's aunts, opens with the mysterious shooting to death of attractive Jude Blinshop. A series of strange attacks is apparently explained when we find below the bluff the body of Michael's mad father. Then Aunt Martha is shot in the shoulder by an unseen hand, and the Skipper, Mike's tall and tweedy younger aunt, disappears. Mike stays with Gay Palmer, his fiancée, while William, the chauffeur, and I futilely search the grounds. Returning, we find Aunt Martha nearly dead after taking sleeping powder.

Chapter 23 On to the Cellar! Michael came rushing out of the bathroom, a plain gray box in his hand. It was half full of powder; but on the top was written merely, "Sleeping powder, Dr. Fowler," and the date. No help there. "Get hot-water bottles," I said. The chances were that it was the wrong thing to do, but the chances were better that if left in that condition much longer M. Farrington would be finished. I raced into the bathroom and ransacked the medicine chest. Everything from sodium bicarbonate and iodine to a nerve tonic. But no luck.

"Got those hot-water bottles as fast as you can, Mike," I said and turned into the hall. "One by one, I went through every medicine chest on that floor. There was enough stuff there to cause a druggist to turn cart-wheels. But no luck. Coming out of Mike's room, I caught sight of Gay coming up the stairs with William at her heels. One glance at her face told me there would be no help from downstairs. I shouted, "Is there any peccan in the house? Ask Higgins! Ask!"

He nodded. "Miss Barbara had it for a dog that got some bad meat. It's in the kitchen. I'll get it to one side." Mike had hot-water bottles in place and was working for all he was worth. We hastened to help him. My arms were already aching by the time William appeared with several bottles and a whole trayful of glasses. Without waiting to read instructions, I poured out a dose. I knew that amount hadn't killed Mr. Fowler at school but that was all I did know. We had difficulty in making her swallow it, and when we finally got it down, there was no effect. We rubbed and rubbed. William was obliged to take Michael's place. We rubbed some more. And then things began to happen with startling suddenness and considerable force. But what little vitality she had left seemed to go after that. Gay tried to pour some whiskey down her throat, with no success. We all tried. Useless. Finally Mike straightened up and met my eyes. "She's dead," he said in a still voice. Sweat was running down my face into my eyes. My throat was hard and dry. "She can't be! She..." William's hand coming down heavily on my back froze the words in my mouth. He pushed me to one side. "Francis Resuscitation I'm not quite clear on what followed. William had taken charge. We were all moving mechanically, obeying his orders. As I remember it, I was holding the old lady's injured arm up over her head, flaying it back and forth from her sides in a sort of windmill motion. What the others were doing I have no idea. Finally, beneath the wheezing noises of her rescuers, M. Farrington began to breathe faintly, spasmodically at first, and then with more strength and steadiness. Mike and I stopped simultaneously, but William made no keeeping goings.

By Williams

MURDER ON THE BLUFF

For once Mike didn't wait to argue. He followed me down the hall into the servants' quarters as fast as he could go. I could feel his breath on my neck all the way. We sprinted through the narrow corridor and took the back stairs three at a time. I was fumbling for the door of the entry and the confounded thing wouldn't seem to work. Behind me there was a banging of drawers, the crash of a chair going over, an awful uproar. The clatter on the back stairs was probably William, but I didn't turn to see. Practically, I tried key after key on that cellar door. It was an age before one of them turned, and the door flew open, inky black, the cellar gaped below.

Chapter 23 On to the Cellar! Michael came rushing out of the bathroom, a plain gray box in his hand. It was half full of powder; but on the top was written merely, "Sleeping powder, Dr. Fowler," and the date. No help there. "Get hot-water bottles," I said. The chances were that it was the wrong thing to do, but the chances were better that if left in that condition much longer M. Farrington would be finished. I raced into the bathroom and ransacked the medicine chest. Everything from sodium bicarbonate and iodine to a nerve tonic. But no luck.

"Got those hot-water bottles as fast as you can, Mike," I said and turned into the hall. "One by one, I went through every medicine chest on that floor. There was enough stuff there to cause a druggist to turn cart-wheels. But no luck. Coming out of Mike's room, I caught sight of Gay coming up the stairs with William at her heels. One glance at her face told me there would be no help from downstairs. I shouted, "Is there any peccan in the house? Ask Higgins! Ask!"

He nodded. "Miss Barbara had it for a dog that got some bad meat. It's in the kitchen. I'll get it to one side." Mike had hot-water bottles in place and was working for all he was worth. We hastened to help him. My arms were already aching by the time William appeared with several bottles and a whole trayful of glasses. Without waiting to read instructions, I poured out a dose. I knew that amount hadn't killed Mr. Fowler at school but that was all I did know. We had difficulty in making her swallow it, and when we finally got it down, there was no effect. We rubbed and rubbed. William was obliged to take Michael's place. We rubbed some more. And then things began to happen with startling suddenness and considerable force. But what little vitality she had left seemed to go after that. Gay tried to pour some whiskey down her throat, with no success. We all tried. Useless. Finally Mike straightened up and met my eyes. "She's dead," he said in a still voice. Sweat was running down my face into my eyes. My throat was hard and dry. "She can't be! She..." William's hand coming down heavily on my back froze the words in my mouth. He pushed me to one side. "Francis Resuscitation I'm not quite clear on what followed. William had taken charge. We were all moving mechanically, obeying his orders. As I remember it, I was holding the old lady's injured arm up over her head, flaying it back and forth from her sides in a sort of windmill motion. What the others were doing I have no idea. Finally, beneath the wheezing noises of her rescuers, M. Farrington began to breathe faintly, spasmodically at first, and then with more strength and steadiness. Mike and I stopped simultaneously, but William made no keeeping goings.

PIRATES LOSE TO CRESCENT CITY, 7-5

Victory Here Sunday Puts Chinooks in Top Place of Baseball League.

The Crescent City Chinooks nosed the Roseburg Pirates out of first place in the Southern Oregon baseball league by a close victory here Sunday. Crescent City gate-keepers first run on as many hits in the first two innings, while Roseburg was able to tussle only two on six hits in the same periods. Baker, Roseburg right fielder, connected for a homer and triple in four trips to the plate. Nease for Crescent City came in for three batters. The first two innings were plenty wild, with both teams hitting freely. A bit better, error and three outs caused Roseburg to give up the pitching duties for Roseburg, and he was replaced by Partnering, who, in turn, hit a batter and yielded two hits in the second inning.

Deo Also Routed

Deo, starting pitcher for Crescent City, also made use of trouble in the early part of the game. Deo, first starting pitcher to the plate, connected on a long hit which went for a single and an error, as the Roseburg pitcher raced around the bases for a score. Roseburg made four hits in the second inning, one a double by Shinn, and once scattered by the Chinooks cut the Pirates off with only one run. Leo made the box in the third inning and was relieved by room, a set-thrower, who allowed only four runs. Crescent City scored two in the fifth, when Miller walked and Fern singled, both scoring on Deo's triple. The visitors were limited to two hits and no runs for the balance of the game. Roseburg scored two in the seventh, when Shinn, at bat, base for the Chinooks, dropped Shinn's high pitched fly, Shinn scoring on a two-rounder by Wes Nease, and Nease rapping home as Partnering was taroed out at first. Roseburg's final score was made on Baker's home run in the ninth inning.

Summary table for Roseburg vs Crescent City baseball game with columns AB, R, H, PO, E.

SUNDAY'S BASEBALL

Summary table for Sunday's baseball games with columns AB, R, H, PO, E.

PROGRAM FOR 8TH GRADERS PLANNED

Joint eighth grade graduation exercises for the Edenbauer, Riversdale and Garden Valley schools will be held Wednesday evening, May 26, at 8 o'clock at the Riversdale frame hall. The following program will be given: Professional, Mrs. Harmon, Mr. Oll. Invocation, W. D. Love. Vocal duet, Russell and La Verne Harris. Address, Rev. Linden G. Leavitt. First Christian church, Roseburg. Solo, Mrs. W. H. Payne. Presentation of diplomas, Mrs. Stella Quine. Vocal quartet, Mrs. Harmon, Mrs. H. E. Ewert, Lewis Catrell, W. D. Love. Vocal duet, Russell and La Verne Harris. Benediction, W. D. Love. Recessional, Mrs. Harmon, Mr. Oll.

DAILY DEVOTIONS

We often greatly magnify the difficulties that are ours in understanding what is the will of God to regard to our lives. If we are ready to do what is right up to the very last requirement we are not likely to be greatly puzzled for long as to which way duty lies. Living a good life is not an easy undertaking, but it generally is a rather direct and straightforward and easily understood enterprise and with downright sincerity we are not likely to very badly lose our way. Do Thou enlighten our understanding, O God, and make the path of right and duty very plain before us, but above all do Thou give us confidence and courage to walk in it. We are in Jesus name. Amen.

The Standings

Table showing baseball standings for COAST and NATIONAL leagues.

GLENDALE DEFEATS MEDFORD, 10 TO 8

GLENDALE, Ore., May 23.—Glendale finally got out of the cellar of the Southern Oregon baseball league by a victory over Medford, 10 to 8, in a loosely-played, suggestive contest filled with sensational plays and several arguments. True main features of the game was a home run by Willis in the fifth inning for Glendale, on which he was called out for not touching second base. This, however, started a rally for Glendale which ended with four runs on four successive hits. In the 6th inning Pete came in with a tying run on a passed ball which caused considerable argument as to whether it struck the back stop or not. Carpenter, a new pitcher for Glendale, from Texas, pitched a steady game but at times was loosely supported, and in the 6th seemed to weaken and allowed five straight hits which scored four Medford runs. Carpenter lightened up and pitched steadily the balance of the game. Glendale was able to hit both Pepper and Erickson when his meant runs.

Summary table for Glendale vs Medford baseball game with columns AB, R, H, PO, E.

HIGH SCHOOL TRACK MEET WON BY BEND

EUGENE, May 21.—(AP)—Held in eight of the 14 events, Bend high school trackmen won championships of today, marking the first time in many years that a Portland school did not wear the crown. Competing in the 11th annual Oregon high school track and field meet here Saturday, Bend won two firsts and tied for another, took two second places and tied for another, and won a fourth and a fifth place. Portland, Portland, second last year, placed second Saturday with 23 points. Other schools scores as follows: Salem 16, Washington 15, Corvallis 14, Forest Grove and Hood River 10, Grants Pass 8, Grant 5, Eugene and La Grande 7, Medford 6, Benson and Malin 5, Klaskanin 4, West Linn 2, Sheridan, Jefferson, Lincoln, Enterprise, Astoria, Crookston and Hill 2, Seaside, Balaia and Cottage Grove, 1 each. Only one record fell, a strong breeze handicapping the performers. Bill Backledge, Corvallis, who broke the state shotput mark by Friday's preliminaries with a heave of 51 feet 7 3/8 inches, went himself one better Saturday, tossing the ball 52 feet 2 1/2 inches. Bob Diaz, Franklin, won the 100-yard and 220-yard dashes and ran a lap on the Quaker relay team, which placed second. Diaz taking individual high-point honors. Backledge, who also won by Diaz for points.

GRANTS PASS NINE DEFEATS ASHLAND

GRANTS PASS, May 21.—(AP)—Heavy pitchwork combined with effective pitching tallied a 10-to-2 victory for the Grants Pass Merchants Sunday in a Southern Oregon league game at Ashland. Griggs, Merchant hurler, fanned 15, while his teammate from center field, Ostrom, banged out four hits in five trips to the plate including a triple and two double-batters. Grants Pass 10 17 1 Ashland 2 8 2 Batteries: Griggs and Hartman; Brown, Compest, Bolding and Simpson.

ROSEBURG GOLFERS BEATEN BY G-PASS

GRANTS PASS, May 21.—(AP)—Grants Pass golfers turned back an invading crew of 11 players from Roseburg 11 to 7 Sunday. The tournament was played in four-rooms with each player contesting for three points. Marvin Clark, Grants Pass, was medalist with 79. Wilder, in fourth place, was low for Roseburg with 82. Arrives Today—Mrs. M. C. Crouch, of Portland, arrived in this city today to visit at the home of her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Harris, on South Main street.

FIELD-TRACK MEET TAKEN BY COUGARS

5 Sectional Records Upset in Competition of Six Schools at Seattle.

SEATTLE, May 24.—(AP)—The Pacific coast conference track and field championship at Los Angeles this week beckoned more than 100 cinder stars from six colleges in the northern division today. Fifteen-man squads from Idaho, Washington, Washington State, Oregon, Oregon State and Montana are eligible for the all-conference meet. The squads will be picked from the best performers at the northern division championship meet held here last Saturday. Five sectional track and field records were broken at the division meet while Washington State colleges won its fifth straight championship. The Cougars won 56 points; Washington, 38; Oregon, 36; Idaho, 17; Oregon State, 14, and Montana, 14. Washington set three new records and Washington State two. Among the athletes to participate in the meet probably will be: Bill Benke, Washington State, who set a new 400-yard dash record of 1:6.9 seconds; Lee Orr, Washington State, holder of the new 220-yard dash record of 29.8; Vic Palmason, Washington, who ran to a new 889-yard run mark of 1:51.5; Bill Vandermay, Washington, who jumped 6 feet 5 1/2 inches to a new sectional record. Washington also set a new mark in the mile relay with Humber, Flieger, Palmason and Montgomery in 3:17.3. Also in the meet may be Orr of Washington State, winner of the 100-yard dash; Shepard of Oregon State, winner of the mile run; Willara, Washington State, winner of the 120-yard high hurdles; Wooten of Washington State and Lyle of Oregon in the two mile run; Johnson of Idaho and Foskett of Oregon in the shot put; Johnson of Idaho in the 500-yard dash; Vancort of Oregon in the pole vault and Hoiland of Oregon in the discus throw.

WOMAN'S AILMENTS

MANY women are troubled with monthly pains, headache, backache, or "heat flashes." All women who suffer from nervousness, irritability and the discomforts associated with functional disturbance, need a tonic like Dr. Pierce's Pink Pills, which stimulates the appetite, increases the intake of food and builds up the body. Read what Mrs. B. Simonsen of 241 East C St., Tacoma, Wash., said: "Dr. Pierce's Pink Pills did me lots of good and I am glad of an opportunity to tell other women about it. It increases the appetite and relieves the pains from which many women suffer periodically." Send for tablets 50 cts. Liquid $1.00. Large size, tablet or liquid, $1.35. Buy today!

GREEN SLAB WOOD

4-ft., per cord $2.25; 16", per cord $4.00; Sawdust, per unit $2.00. PHONE 282. ROSEBURG LUMBER CO. 2nd Ave. and 5th St. on Dixonville Road.

Floor Sanding and Refinishing

CHAS. KEEVER, Phone 651-J. R. R. 2, Box 22C, Roseburg, Ore.

SYNOPSIS OF ANNUAL STATEMENT

Table showing financial statements for Roseburg Lumber Co. including items like Amount of capital stock paid up, Income received during the year, Interest, dividends and rents received during the year, etc.