MAJOR OLSON WILL HEAD BALL SERIES

Legion Junior Tournament Will Again Be Played on Woodburn Field.

Word was received here today of the appointment of Major Oliver S. Olson, commanding officer of the first battalion, 186 infantry, past commander of Woodburn post No. 48 of the American Legion, as manager of the 1937 series of the state Legion Junior baseball tournament. The series for the state championship will be played at Woodburn, in Legion park, Saturday and Sunday, August 7 and 8.

pages at woodarth, in Legion park, Saturday and Sunday, August 7 and 8.

Four teams, each representing one of the districts into which the state is divided, will connect for the title, in the Woodburn meet. The players, coaches and managers will be entertained at a banquet Friday night, preceding the series. The games for state championships in 1935 and 1936 were played in Woodburn and were so offectively handled that the sames for this year were also scheduled for the Woodburn park.

Major Olson has appointed large committees of Woodburn fairs, with each committee assigned to one of the important details connected with the series.

Douglas Entry Strong

The Douglas county team is expected to be a threat in this year's competition, despite worse handlears than have been presented in any year since the local post started sponsoring junior hall. This year's team promises to be a dangerous sound at bat, as every prospective player has demonstrated exceptional hitting ability.

Pitching Ace of Cardinals Holds Giants to Three Hits and One Run.

By SID FEDER (Associated Press Sports Writer) They laugh one day and cheer the next-depending on whether Dizzy Dean is popping off or pitch-ing.

ing.

When he's doing the former, the folks seem to forget about his elbowing ability, and look on him as sort of a sideshow.

But when he gets out there on that hill, and really puts his mind to foggin' 'em in, as he did yesterday in pinning back the ears of Carl Hubbell and the New York Giants, 8-1, the crowd tips its hat.

From the greeting Diz received before yesterday's game, it begins to appear that the faithful, generally, and the New York fans in particular, are getting mighty tired of his outbursts.

A packed Polo grounds let out one big "boo" and followed it up with a varied assortment of leers for most of the game. But when it was all over, and Diz had polished off the Giants with three hits and one unearned run, the crowd roared approval of the nite! "seprection he displayed in the opener of the doubleheader.

Hubbell Slipping.

Outside of Dizzy's top-flight flinging, the double hill produced two mutstanding developments:

1. That the promise of a fight will still pack them in anywhere:

2. That something serious is happening to Hubbell, who less than two weeks ago was being halled as invincible.

The Hub-Diz rivalry was supnosed to repeat a performance of lest mouth's "hattle of St. Louis." when Dean's "duster" precluitated a seneral free for all in his last meeting with "Hubbell and the Giants.
