WOMAN TREATED FOR BULLET WOUND

Mrs. Kessler Woodruff of Reedsport, former resident of Roseburg, returned today to Caps Ilahee, after spending a few days here receiving treatment for an injury suffered last week. The injury occurred while she was visiting Mr. and Mrs. Perry Wright at Caps Ilahee. A bullet, which had been overlooked in a pile of rubbish thrown into a stove, exploded and a piece of the shell imbedded itself in the calf of her leg. She was brought to Roseburg by horse and automobile to receive treatment of the injury, and visited here with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Chapman Jr.

Federation of Labor, which opens at the Eagles hall here Monday, June 21. This will be the second federation state convention to hold sessions on Coos Bay, the first occasion having been in 1925 when the Coos Bay Central Labor council, with five or more small unions, was host. Constituent unions today number more than 25 and the entire coast region from Florence to the California state line is covered. Hervey C. Tripp is president of the local council and Charles Granby secretary-treasurer.
