

PADRES INCREASE COAST LOOP LEAD

San Diego Blanks Indians as Portlanders Triumph Over Sacramento.

By the Associated Press. The Oakland A's miraculously moved into sixth place in the Pacific Coast league today, relegating their customary seventh place berth to the skidding Seattle Indians.

Playing errorless ball and hitting hard, the Oaks defeated the San Francisco Mission Reds, 7 to 1 last night, while Chapman gave the league-leading San Diego Padres a 4-to-0 shut out over the Indians.

The Padres' lead was increased to a game and a half as Portland won its 12th game in 16 starts, defeating the second-place Sacramento Solons, 3 to 2.

Although wild, Poesel won his sixth straight for the lurching Portland Beavers. An unseasoned run was blamed for Newcomb's defeat. In the eighth inning First Baseman Prather lost a throw from third base in the field. A sacrifice and a double by Frederick chased the run home.

A wild pitch and too many walks cost Flowers and the Los Angeles Angels a 5 to 4 defeat at the hands of the San Francisco Seals in 10 innings. Flowers, recently released by the Seals, limited his former mates to five hits, but saw two runs scored in the second inning when he forced in one tally with a walk and let another come home on a wild pitch. The Angels out-hit the Seals 15 to 5.

May, third baseman and recent Oakland addition, led the A's in an assault on the Mission with a triple and three singles and drove in three runs. It was the Oaks' seventh consecutive victory.

Chapin virtually won his game single handed. The big Padre hurler's victory was his 16th for the season. He hit a homer in the seventh and also batted a double.

AGED JIMMY DYKES STILL DELIVERING

By EARL HILLGREN. CHICAGO, July 21.—(AP)—Here's the dean of all American league pitchers and "Old Pez" in his 29th major league season, still is showing the youngsters a trick or two.

The Chicago White Sox manager, who'll be 40 years old next November 19, isn't breaking into as many box scores as he used to. But when he does, as happened yesterday, fans and players alike realize the great job he is doing in keeping his club well up in the first division.

His team was tied with Boston yesterday at fall in the eighth, with two on base. Dykes, with his bad leg no more he could not place all his weight on it, went in to pinch hit and lashed a double to right center which won the ball game.

A fast man could have made it a triple. Dykes, winning with every step, actually hopped on one leg the last few feet to second base. It was a fifth straight win for the Sox.

He will talk about everything but where his club is liable to finish this season. He believes pennant talk will tighten up any club and prefers to go along, taking the good with the bad, the wins with the losses.

He's popular with his hired hands. He doesn't go in for rules and regulations or telling his one-

Circus Flyers Trained in Illinois Best in World

Bob Fisher's Five Fearless Flyers

Over in Soviet Russia there is a state-endowed school where boys and girls are taught to be circus performers—a veritable paradise to the child mind. The nearest approach to anything of the sort in this country is at Bloomington, Ill., where all the famous circus "flying" acts have their headquarters. So intensive is training in the art of the flying trapeze there the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium is given over to it every week-day morning during the winter months. The "graduation exercises" come in the Spring when all the acts join in producing a big indoor circus and the young "fliers" take "flight" in public for the first time.

Russell Ross, circus, coming to Roseburg on Thursday, July 22, has as a headline attraction one of the most outstanding of the Bloomington aerial acts—Bob Fisher's Five Fearless Flyers. In the "artistic" of Bloomington acrobats find the most Bloomington on a circuit act is like climbing on silver, the name of Fisher seems high, backed by many years of tradition. Yet, despite the long-years the name Fisher has been identified with skill in the air, it is significant to note that the Five Fearless Flyers are all young folk in the vigor of life, their present eminence in the realm of white tops being the heritage of many generations.

This troupe of lithe, dauntless aerial acrobats, whose thrilling feats bring a climax to the twice daily performances of the Russell Circus, is distinguished by the fact that it has the only woman occupying the position of "catcher." Francis Fisher, incidentally, is also regarded as the most perfectly formed woman in circuses.

Flying acts are one line in which American performers definitely excel and they are in constant demand in foreign countries. The Five Fearless Flyers are world famous and internationally famous.

France, Belgium, Germany, Sweden, Denmark, Spain, Argentina, Havana, Mexico, Venezuela, Cuba and Hawaii are just a few of the lands in which they have performed.

They are working with a bad ankle, however. . . . It little Henry Armstrong keeps on hitting 'em out, who'll be left for him to fight? Henry's fists may punch him right into the all star card.

Mike Jacobs is lining up for September 17. Barney Ross is scheduled to defend his welter weight title against Corcoran Garcia, but should Bobby Pacho beat Garcia in the Garden Thursday night, there'll be no one left for Barney to fight. . . . So Mike will try to pit Armstrong against Peto Sarron, the N. B. A. featherweight champion.

You can look for Tommy Farr to furnish a lot of good newspaper copy before he leaves these shores, either under his own power or on a stretcher. . . . That guy's a word. . . . Means business, too. . . . When the scriber asked him what his

VANCOUVER WINS FINAL GAME, 8 TO 4

4-Run Rally in Last Frame as Darkness Approaches Decides Contest.

Breaking up a 4 to 4 tie with a fourteen rally in the final inning, the Vancouver Legion junior baseball team defeated the Douglas county juniors, 8 to 4, last night in the last of their three-game series. Vancouver won two of the three games, the other ending in a tie. The final game was called because of darkness.

Last night's game was a close and exciting affair, showing great improvement on the part of the local players, who led the contest much of the way. The winning blow in which the last inning was played was largely responsible for the defeat.

Sporer, Roseburg pitcher, limited the visitors to six hits and only one earned run was scored off his delivery. The Roseburg team connected for eight hits and drove Hunter off the mound for Vancouver in the sixth, when they loaded the bases, but were retired by Holder who came to Hunter's relief.

Locals Start Scoring. The local team started scoring early with three runs in the first. V. Sanders first man up was thrown out at first. McLaughlin and a single by Smith sent him to third. A hot grounder by Hall was picked up by short and Smith, was tossed out at second, with Hall reaching first. Sporer lashed a triple to left and then came in as the ball was thrown wildly around the outfield. They then went scoreless until the fourth when V. Sanders made a perfect sacrifice to allow Neal to score from third. Poor base running caused no runs to be scored in the succeeding innings.

Tied with Roseburg as they went into the seventh, Sherman, Vancouver second baseman, hit a double. An error by G. Sanders put Kennedy on base. Greaves hit sharply to Sanders, who threw Sherman out at the plate to cut off a run. Greaves reaching first.

Holder, pitcher, was walked, filling the bases. Roach, pinch hitter went down swinging. McPho broke up the ball game with a single between first and second which accounted for four runs as in the darkness the ball got by Long into right field.

weight was, Tommy replied: "Fourteen stone, twelve, gent's (205 pounds to you lugs) and wot of hit?" . . . Farr is the first British heavy to invade the United States since good old "Painting Phil" Scott, who spent most of his day in this country flat on his back, counting the stars. . . . What makes us suspicious of him is he already has doped out how he's going to beat Louis from watching fight pictures. . . . Jim Braddock can tell him how that works out.

Larry French, veteran Cub southpaw, is superstitious and will not discuss his team's pennant chances. . . . "We'll be lucky to finish in the first division," he always says. . . . Oh yeah?

YANKEES CONTINUE RUNAWAY STREAK

Only Tigers and White Sox Appear Able to Accord Strong Competition.

By BILL BOSTI. (Associated Press Sports Writer) Trying to catch the galloping Yankees these days is about as hopeful as trying to keep up with Gar Wood in a one-lap outboard, but you can't rule the White Sox or the Tigers off the track for trying.

The Sox have won six in a row to maintain their place as runners up to the champions, now six and a half games in front after drubbing the Browns in both ends of a double header yesterday.

The Tigers, encouraged by the promising recovery of Manager Mickey Cochrane, who for the first time since his injury put on a uniform during morning warm-ups yesterday, have won five straight since handling the Yankees the lone setback of their current road trip.

Both have had fairly easy picking the last few days. The Sox caught first in the second place and now the Senators in the throes of a losing streak, making it ten defeats in a row for the Nats yesterday with a 4-3 triumph in ten innings.

The Red Sox aren't proving too tough for the Tigers, either. The Huber was hit for six and six and last week but has hit the skids again, that ten-inning, 10-9 blow by Detroit being his fifth in a row.

Even the fact that Jimmy Fox, chimed in with his nineteenth and twentieth homers and Mills and McNair came up with one each couldn't save the Sox.

Yanks Win Twice. The extra-inning virus even affected the Yankees, who won the opener from the Browns in the tenth, 5-4, then belted four St. Louis fingers for eleven hits to win the nightcap, 9-6. Joe DiMaggio's 25th homer, with two on, was the big blow in the first game, but shared importance with Henrich's peg from right field for a double play in the tenth.

The other American league game saw George Coster go the route while his fellow Athletics bagged fifteen hits off four Cleveland pitchers to win, 7-5.

The Giants, climbing back to within half a game of the rained-out Cubs and the Dodgers, recovering from four straight trimmings by Chicago, also needed ten innings to win. Mottom held the Reds to five hits as the Terryman copped, 4-3, for their eighteenth victory.

Butcher tamed the Pirates with eight safeties to give Brooklyn a 2-1 decision.

The Cardinals throw in a few misplays and bowed to the Bees, 5-2.

The novel orange industry of California developed from two small trees planted in 1873 at Riverside, by Mrs. Eliza Tibbers. She obtained buds from trees in Washington, D. C., that had been brought in from Brazil.

BRIETZ' BREEZY BITS

By EDNIE BRIETZ. NEW YORK, July 21.—(AP)—Looks like Johnny Bronco is all washed up with the Yankees. Joe McCarthy says Johnny (who jumped the team) will never throw another ball for the Yankees. . . . So it may be New York or points west for the bespectacled Yale graduate. Giant (who chances have been hard hit with scrappy Dick Bartell, Gus Mancuso and Harry Manning all on the shelf at the same time and the Cubs this day after tomor-
