MANCUSO, BARTELL OUT WITH INJURIES

NEW YORK, July 20 — (AP)—The New York Giants, one game behind the National League-leading Cubs, today suffered two damaging blows to their hopes of retaining the pennant. An x-ray examination, made only yesterday, revealed that Gus Mancuso, the regular catcher, had broken his right index finger when he stopped a foul fly last Tuesday in Baker bowl, Philadelphia. At first thought no more serious than a bruise, the injury now is likely to keep the valuable batsman inactive for three more weeks. In addition, Dick Bartell, hurt on Sunday when he made a throw while off balance, will be out of
