

News of Douglas County

RIDDLE

RIDDLE, Aug. 3.—Mrs. Elva Kellar, whose home is at Holly, Colo., has been spending the past month here visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. P. Aspey.

County Judge George Quine and Mrs. Quine visited friends and relatives here Sunday.

Miss Florence Moshaf, a teacher in the Medford schools, is spending the summer here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Moshaf.

Miss Bess Clough of Canyonville was visiting friends here Saturday. Mrs. Lester Whitney and baby daughter Carol, who were visiting here from Jackson, Calif., left Friday for Lebanon to spend a few weeks with relatives.

John Wilson of Walla Walla, Wash., an old time resident of this valley, is here for a few days visiting at the home of his sister-in-law, Mrs. Augusta Wilson, and other relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Logsdon are looking after property interests at Jasper this week.

The first threshing of the season is being done in the valley this week, beginning at the Elbert Ball ranch. Crops give promise of a fine yield this year.

Mrs. Robert Gilbreath, who has been in the hospital at Roseburg the past few weeks convalescing from an operation for the removal of her appendix, was able to return home Sunday and is recovering very satisfactorily.

Mrs. Georgia Wright was a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Moshaf over the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Crow returned recently from a week's vacation trip to Oakland, Calif., and other points south. The trip was made by motor.

Mr. and Mrs. Oran Ledgerwood of Myrtle Creek were overnight guests Friday at the G. L. Grant home.

Sammie Ball, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Ball, visited relatives here this week. Mr. Ball is now with the U. S. navy and rejoins his ship at San Francisco in a few weeks.

Miss Hilda Speer of Portland was a recent visitor here at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Speer.

Mrs. Frank Weaver, who recently suffered a paralytic stroke, is in a very serious condition at her home here. She is attended by her daughter of Eugene and her sister, Mrs. De Vore, of Canyonville.

They were accompanied by Mrs. Ida Payne, Mr. Meagher's aunt, who will make her home with them in the southern city.

Mrs. O. V. Logsdon returned to her home here Saturday after spending the past ten days visiting relatives near Klamath Falls. While there Mrs. Logsdon visited her new grandson, Alan Lloyd Logsdon, who arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Abner Logsdon on July 19th.

Mr. and Mrs. Art Johnson and son Jimmie Lee, who returned to Klamath Falls Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Ben Bullwinkle and daughter Betty and Mrs. George Renner and daughter Carol, all of Portland, visited at the P. W. Diddel home last Saturday.

Mr. Dewey Wilson and family of Marshfield were guests at the home of his mother here Sunday.

Mrs. Laura Yokum and children, who have been residing at Suberin, moved their household goods here Monday and will occupy the Mrs. Dora Conner cottage on Main street.

WILBUR

WILBUR, Aug. 4.—Mrs. Vernon Lerwill left Saturday for her home at Tiller after a brief visit with her mother, Mrs. E. Rowley.

Mrs. Lerwill was accompanied home by her two small nieces, Jerry Broszio and Lura May Henry.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Howard and Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Howard and children of Corvallis were guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Kinsey.

The Howards are former residents of Wilbur. Mr. and Mrs. Dyal Adair went to Marshfield Monday to visit with Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Smith.

Mrs. Harry Baird returned home this week from the Mercy hospital at Roseburg where she has been receiving medical treatment.

Miss Mabel Murtred of Kellogg is the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Holcomb.

A son was born Sunday to Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Harvey. The baby weighed 7 1/2 pounds.

Miss Helen Humphreys of Marshfield left Wednesday for her home after a two weeks' visit with Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Humphreys.

Misses Irene and Olive Walker of Seattle and Miss Marie Walker made the loop trip to Marshfield and Winchester Day, returning by way of Drain Wednesday.

Mrs. Hina Wilds of Seattle, who has been visiting Mrs. D. E. Noon, returned to her home Tuesday.

The W. C. T. U. met Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Jesse Russell.

All summaries now available on fatal accidents show on the average that 7 per cent of the drivers and 11 per cent of the pedestrians had been drinking or were intoxicated.

GLENDALE

GLENDALE, Aug. 3.—M. A. Rieschl and daughter, of Passaic, N. J., who have been guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Neuner, left for their home Thursday. Mr. Rieschl and Mrs. Neuner are brother and sister.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Nye left Tuesday for Vancouver, Wash., called there by the death of Mr. Nye's father.

Miss Margaret Howard, who has been visiting the past month with friends and relatives at Loraine, returned Saturday, accompanied by Miss Estella Mitchell, who will visit here.

Mrs. Ray Wright and son, Ray, Jr., former Glendale residents, made a brief call here Monday en route to California for a visit. They were accompanied by Mrs. Wright's sister, Mrs. Bob Mitchell.

Mrs. H. W. Howard is visiting with relatives this week in Riddle. Mrs. Ella Leach and brother, Paul Eldredge were business visitors in Roseburg Monday.

P. D. Winchester transacted business in Roseburg Wednesday evening.

Mrs. C. D. Hoots, Miss Ruth Hoots, Robert Jensen, and Mrs. W. S. Price and children, Winfield and Betty, were business visitors in Roseburg Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Richards were Myrtle Creek visitors Thursday.

Mrs. B. F. Mouchette and son, Benjo, and Mrs. Ira Lewis transacted business in Grants Pass Wednesday.

Mrs. N. C. Theroux called here briefly Sunday. After attending summer school she visited in Canada and was on her way to California for a visit.

Albert Vaughan, Robert Normoyle, Donald Smith, Don Costello and Francis Reed attended the circus in Grants Pass Wednesday.

Mrs. Jessie Richardson and parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Hayes, of Grants Pass called briefly at the C. B. Austin home Monday, on their way home from the coast.

Miss Naomi Costello and Bert Avery left early Monday for Middletown, Calif., to visit with Mr. Avery's parents.

Miss Betty Woodruffe and Geo. Hagne arrived Monday for a visit with Mrs. J. S. Woodruffe.

George Paville arrived home Friday from Portland where he underwent a minor operation.

Mr. and Mrs. Al Croech were Grants Pass visitors Sunday.

OAKLAND

Mrs. W. H. Green of South Gate, Calif., is visiting at the home of Prof. and Mrs. H. F. English. She is the mother of Mrs. English.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry George were visitors Wednesday at the home of their aunt, Mrs. Grace English. They were returning from a vacation trip to Portland and other points north to their home in Los Angeles.

Mrs. Wm. Manning and brother, Carl Rasmussen, returned last week from a trip to Salem and Portland. Kenneth Manning accompanied them, remaining in Salem for medical treatment. He was very ill of influenza last winter and has not entirely recovered.

Miss Thelma Pinkston has returned from a two weeks' vacation at the Richard Riggs home.

Mr. and Mrs. Max Lyons and son, James, of Portland were at the opening of Henninger's Mart in Roseburg Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Gardner and daughter, Mildred, and Mrs. C. W. Ingham returned Sunday from Portland. They were accompanied home by Sid Ingham, who has been spending the past five weeks at the Y. M. C. A. Boys camp at Spirit Lake, Wash.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Russell announced the arrival of a daughter, born Saturday at a home, weight 7 pounds, Dr. A. J. Fawcette attending.

Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Bates and children, Helen Mary, Monte and Tommy, Miss Clara Winkelman and Miss Gertrude Delp, of West Fork, visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Bunch at Williams Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. McMullen and son, Dale, and Mrs. W. D. Meisner and children, Beth and Reule, visited the Oregon caves Sunday.

Glendale fans attending the Glendale-Grants Pass baseball game at Grants Pass Sunday included Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Normoyle, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Costello, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Williams and son, Dean, Miss Naomi Costello, Miss Velma Baye, C. Holtz, Al Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Nelson, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Schleich and son, Billie, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Dudley, Kenneth Russ, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Nerbas, Ed Johnson, P. Youngworth, W. D. Meisner, Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Hoots, Robert Jensen, Mrs. W. S. Price.

DAYS CREEK

DAYS CREEK, Aug. 4.—Despite the busy harvest season, a large crowd attended the Pomona grange meeting and local 4-H fair held at the school Saturday. About one hundred people enjoyed the basket lunch at noon.

Those making entries in the 4-H exhibit and the prizes received were: Sewing I, Josephine Wright, B; Violet Goin, B; Thelma Davis, B; Gene Rhoads, B; Beth Michaels, C; Zelma Davis, C; Canning, division I, Marjorie Wright, A; division 2, Beth Michaels, A; Josephine Wright, A; Betty Rhoads, B; Gene Rhoads, C; Cooking, division I, Maxine Wright, A; cooking, division 2, Marjorie Wright, B; Rose and flower garden, Mildred Mather, A; Betty Rhoads, A; Dolly Widrig, A; Maxine Wright, A; Gene Rhoads, A; Mildred Speer, B; Josephine Wright, B; Corn, Nool Welch, I. The judging was done by Miss Irene Eiter, of O. S. C. and E. A. Britton, county club leader.

Mrs. Paula Anderson, Pomona lecturer, presented a very enjoyable program in the afternoon including Recreational games, a group singing, "Discussion of 4-H Work," E. A. Britton; "Red Cross Swimming Instruction," Phyllis Whitney; tap dance, Gene Rhoads, with piano accompaniment by Betty Rhoads; address by Morton Tompkins, state grange agricultural chairman.

The South Umpqua grange quilt was won by Cecil Harris, master of Glide grange.

Advertisement for Pullman Tourist Sleepers from Portland to Denver-Kansas City or Omaha-Chicago via Pacific Limited. Includes schedule, fares, and contact information for the Progressive Union Pacific Railroad.

Advertisement for ABC Heavy Duty Washer Model 157. Features a large illustration of the washer and text describing its benefits, such as saving time and money on clothes investment.

Large advertisement for Hansen Motor Company. Features the headline "$ SAVE $ BUY NOW $ SAVE $" and lists various used cars for sale, including a 1934 Dodge De Luxe Fordor Sedan for $495 and a 1936 Chevrolet Master Sport Coupe for $445. It also includes a section for "Special Values For Low Priced Used Cars" and contact information for the company's truck headquarters in Douglas County.