TWO EASY APRONS FROM ONE PATTERN

PATTERN 4464

Housekeeping's really lots of fun when you own two such captivating aprons as these! The busiest homemaker will find it fun to spend a few pleasant hours stitching up both versions of Pattern 4464, for these two "frock savers" are simple as can be to make! Version "A" is perfect in dainty chambray or dimity, its flattering yoke and unusual pockets trimmed by crisp frills. Wouldn't you like Version "B" of sturdy checked gingham or percale with bright-hued buttons to accent waistline and fetching points? The "anchor" back insures shoulder straps against slipping.

Pattern 4464 is available in sizes small, medium and large. Small size apron A requires 2 3-8 yards 36 inch fabric and 2¼ yards ruffling; Apron B 2 1-8 yards. Illustrated step-by-step sewing instructions included.

1 c grated carrot; 1 c raw apple (if desired); 1 c grated potato; 1 c chopped suet; 1 c brown sugar or white; 1 c raisins; 1 c currants (if desired); 1 t each soda, dissolved in T hot water, salt, cinnamon, nutmeg and allspice; 1½ c flour. Mix potatoes, carrots, suet, sugar and floured fruit. (Use T flour for flouring fruit) add sifted flour and spices and mix thoroughly. Fill greased molds (I use pound coffee tins) ⅔ full and cover closely. Steam one hour for individual molds, three hours for one-pound baking powder cans, five hours for very large molds. This recipe serves 12 to 15. This will keep for 2 months. Warm in cans before serving.

Variations

Leave out suet, add ½ c butter. Add 1 c nut meats, 1 c candied fruits (if desired); 1 egg may also be added.

1 c dates may be used and 2 T citron, if desired.

After steaming, the pudding may be dried a little in the oven.

Mitchel Pudding: Omit carrots, potatoes and suet. Substitute ¼ c butter and ¾ pt sour milk or buttermilk; ¼ c molasses. Serve with caramel sauce.—Mrs. R. H. Grinsted, Roseburg.

HEAVENLY PUDDING

AMY KRUSE, Roseburg.

1 small can grated pineapple; ½ lb marshmallows (cut up); ½ c chopped nut meats; ½ pt cream (whipped). Mix pineapple and marshmallows and allow to stand over night. Just before serving add the nuts and whipped cream, folded in. Do not stir.

WOOL

BOSTON, Aug. 6 — The Commercial Bulletin will say tomorrow:

"Although there is distinctly less buying in the west, there has been a little more interest shown on the part of certain mill buyers in the eastern market. On the whole, however, the market is rather slow, with prices keeping generally upon the levels set in the west a week or ten days ago.

"Reports from the piecegoods markets are rather conflicting although it appears that the response to the earlier lightweight openings has not been very satisfactory as yet. Some improvement is noted in women's wear lines. Spinners are still in the doldrums while topmakers are getting some business irregularly.

"Foreign markets are slow but very firm.

"Mohair is in light supply with movement restricted and prices distinctly against the buyer."

The Bulletin will publish the following quotations:

Scoured basis:

Oregon: Fine and f. m. staple 97-98; fine and f. m. clothing 90-92.

Mohair:

Oregon, 65-67.

(Foreign prices in bond.)
