

Leading News-Review

Member of The Associated Press... Entered as second class matter May 17, 1925...

HARRIS IS SWORTH... Represented By WEST-HOLLIDAY

New York—21, East 40th Street, Chicago—250 N. Michigan Ave., San Francisco—220 Bush Street...

Subscription Rates Daily, per year by mail... $1.00

A Ghastly Mistake

The utter hopelessness of the conquest of China by Japan should sooner or later dawn upon the Japanese leaders...

Time will slowly but surely bring to naught the military accomplishments of the smart young newly commercialized Japanese empire...

The statistics are overwhelming. There are only 70,000,000 Japanese but the population of China is nearly half a billion.

For this generation in Japan the acquisition of new and rich territory may show a profit. But at best what Japan is attempting is a gamble...

Misplaced Effort

The zeal of the attorney-general's office in wanting to deprive theatre owners in Oregon of putting on "Bank Nights" cannot be very highly commended.

A sane look at the bank night plan reveals that the theatre owner does nothing more than give away some of his own money.

The facts are that theatre patrons on bank nights pay the regular theatre admission price.

It may be argued that the lure of possibly winning the bank night "pot" impels people to spend money going to the show...

Editorials on News

The welfare of the STATE has been tried. You will happen, of course, that it CAN'T HAPPEN HERE. At present, to be sure, it can't.

In the future of America. Suppose that prices, disturbing the inflation spiral, advance faster than wages...

Who knows what might happen then? It is an unpleasant thought. Perhaps it is an ABSURD thought.

OREGON EVENTS FLEASHED FROM WIRE SERVICE

ALBANY, Ore., Aug. 20.—(AP)—Mary Ellen, eighteen months old daughter of Mrs. and Mrs. Herbert McCleary, drowned yesterday in Periwinkle creek, near her home.

EUGENE, Aug. 20.—(AP)—James Ross, farm hand, was recovering today from burns received Wednesday night in attempting to remove livestock from a flaming barn.

CORVALLIS, Aug. 20.—(AP)—A temporary injunction restraining operations of 25 pinball machines owned by Robert A. Stamm, removed the ban on the devices scheduled for enforcement in Benton county after midnight tonight.

HOOD RIVER, Aug. 20.—(AP)—Special deputy sheriffs will protect Hood River farmers from possible interference in hauling their produce to market, District Attorney John Baker said.

ALASKAN GRANDEUR MOVIE BACKGROUND

Never before in the history of motion pictures have the dangers and grandeur of the great Alaskan wilderness lying north of the Yukon River been depicted by the camera on such a tremendous scale.

TURKEY DISCUSSED TO BE DISCUSSED

CORVALLIS, Aug. 20.—(AP)—A day of general discussion of turkey growers' problems, ending in the evening with the annual business meeting of the Oregon Turkey Growers' association, is planned for this date in Corvallis.

Daily Devotions

DR. CHARLES A. EDWARDS The prophet Habakkuk was Lord. No matter what might come. If we really believed the things that we say, and our faith in the divine goodness was all we were left with after that...

OUT OUR WAY

THE WRONG CALL

By Williams

THE WRONG CALL

the dark ships BY HULBERT FOOTNER

SYNOPSIS: When Neil, a young federal agent, went to Baltimore for a week's vacation with Janet, he finds she won't break a dinner date with Prescott Fanning, Jr., who Janet dubs him a crook.

"Has he checked out?" "Checked out?" echoed the clerk, starting. "Certainly not! Mr. Fanning is a permanent guest."

"Where's Janet?" he demanded. "Peretta looked at him quizzily and bit her lip before replying. 'She was a quiet, placid sort of girl, Janet's friend away,' she said."

"Where?" "I don't know," "You're lying!" Peretta flushed. "If you're going to talk to me that way..."

Neil goes to Absalom's Harbor by bus, Monday. Mr. and Mrs. Hochradel Return. Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Hochradel returned to their home in Roseburg Wednesday.

RAMBLINGS by Paul Jenkins

"MOODY Begins War on Bank Nite," reads a headline in yesterday's News-Review. Ralph Moody, Oregon's assistant attorney general, holds that the system of drawings familiarly known as "Bank Nite," conducted by many theaters to lure patronage, is a form of gambling.

KRRR PROGRAM (1,500 Kilocycles)

- REMAINING HOURS TODAY 5:00—Jimmy Grier. 5:15—Modern Vocalists. 5:20—Tea Time Tunes. 5:25—Dorsey Blues. 5:30—The Monitor Views the News. 5:45—Brooklyn Symphony. 6:00—Victor Young. 6:15—Montmartre Famous Orchestras. 6:45—"Knights of the Road." 6:50—New Flashes. 7:00—L. A. Symphony. 7:15—Bing Crosby. 7:30—Your Grab Bag. 8:00—Sign Off.

SUNDAY, AUGUST 22

- 8:00—Sacred Selections. 9:30—Veterans Facility Program. 9:35—Arkansas Log Rollers. 10:00—Montmartre Famous Orchestras. 10:30—Vocal Varieties. 11:30—Sunday Request Program. 12:00—Organ Concert. 12:00—Los Angeles Symphony. 1:15—Salon Melodies. 1:30—Phil Levante & Orch. 2:00—Artist Recital Bureau. 2:15—Piano Recital. 2:30—Golden Voices. 3:00—Sunday Afternoon Dance Melodies. 3:30—Bing Crosby. 4:00—The Angelus Hour, Dr. C. A. Edwards. 4:30—Sunday Varieties. 4:45—Hawaiian Serenade. 5:00—Kiddies Request Program. 5:30—Symphony. 5:45—Organ Reveries. 6:00—Sign Off.

MONDAY, AUGUST 23

- 7:00—Early Birds. 7:30—News-Review, Newscast. 7:45—J. M. Judd says "Good Morning." 7:55—Alarm Clock Club. 8:10—Dixie Memories. 8:30—Glen Gray and Casa Loma Orchestra. 9:00—The Honey Philosopher. 9:15—Mills Bros. 9:30—Hudson DeLange Orchestra. 9:45—Ellington in Harlem Harmony. 10:00—Golden Voices. 10:30—"Radio Rendezvous," Copco 10:45—Homemakers Harmony. 11:15—Variety Show of the Air. 11:15—Marimba Melodies. 12:00—Knickerbocker Symphony. 12:15—"Singing Strings," Radio Music. 12:50—Genial Jan Garber. 12:45—News-Review of the Air. 1:00—What Douglas County Thinks Today. 1:30—Afternoon Dance Melodies. 2:00—World Book Man. 2:05—Patry Montana. 2:30—Hills of Yesterday. 2:50—New Flashes. 3:00—The Westerners. 3:15—Art Shaw. 3:30—Kiddies Request Program. 3:45—"Your Hi-Road to Happiness," Dairies of Roseburg. 4:00—Editor Views the News. 4:15—Ray Kinny. 4:30—"Rhythm of the Rangelands." 5:00—"Melody Lane" with Wang and Armour at the Indian Theater Organ. 5:30—Monitor's News Commentary. 5:45—L. A. Symphony. 6:00—"The Oregonians," Hansen Motors. 6:15—Montmartre Famous Orchestras. 6:45—"Knights of the Road." 6:50—New Flashes. 7:00—Manhattan Concert Band. 7:15—Russ Morgan Music. 7:30—American Family Robinson. 7:45—Your Grab Bag. 8:00—Sign Off.

Behind the Scenes in Washington By Rodney Dutcher

WASHINGTON, Aug. 20.—Senator Hugo Black's appointment to the supreme court is Roosevelt's latest and most conspicuous challenge to the south's economic-political system and to the southern bloc in congress which have most persistently opposed his 1937 program.

BARBS

The parachute jumper who leaped 2200 feet into a bedroom window probably will provide inspiration for future French fashions.

system which some southerners and most New Dealers tend to regard in part as an "economic sweatshop for northern capital." He saw an opportunity also to encourage his liberal followers everywhere by an appointment "which would assure them that he was not compromising in his leftward program and would make plain that he stood by his friends as he expected them to stand by him.

In effect, Roosevelt played politics with the appointment. But it should be remembered that every one in Washington, from the president down and perhaps even sometimes including supreme court justices, plays politics with anything he can get his hands on.

Another consideration included the improbability of confirmation trouble since the senate could hardly turn down a senator or its southern members turn against a fellow southerner. Chief points against Black are that he has a strong liberal record in recent years that he was originally elected with Ku Klux Klan backing, and that he failed to disclose anything like the full findings of his lobby investigation which flared so sensationally.

Although some are now calling him wild and radical, and as a southern chairman of the senate labor committee he was in a position to sponsor a wage-hour bill on the theory that higher living standards would revive the south, Roosevelt is said to be impressed by his "sound, cautious approach" to problems.

One also learns that Roosevelt sought to lay at rest the bogey of senatorial opponents who insisted that he never permit confirmation of any senator who had favored the court plan.

Black had been under terrific heat both here and at home. It is most important to remember that Roosevelt is willing to stir up masses of people in the south to the point where they will seek some of the more extreme conservative officials and elect those whom the president thinks would more truly represent them.

How's Your Health? By DR. IAGO GALDSTON

Better Medicine When better medicine will be practiced, the achievement will be largely to the credit of the patients.

What the physician can accomplish for and with his patient depends to a large degree upon what the latter desires and expects of the physician. Within narrow limits, the physician may pursue his own ideas and convictions in the solution of the patient's difficulties. Beyond this, he is powerless.

One can lead a patient to his cure, but one cannot make him swallow it. All too often, patients are unwilling to pay the price for their relief, not in money, but in their effort to attain a cure.

Witness the overweight patient, who persists in carrying a burden of 20 or 30 pounds of obesity, or the hard-working business executive who will not learn to relax even when away from his job.

Some would have their cures as others take their cures, that is, passively. Contentedly, as the physician may whip up a reaction, there is no comparable method for passively acquiring a cure.

Part of this difficulty arises out of the very marvels of modern medicine, because so many specific remedies and cures such as antitoxins and immune sera are available for the effective treatment of certain infectious diseases, the belief is not that the physician is to put himself forward, specific remedies could be developed for all diseases.

The fact, however, is that science warrants no such hope or promise. The patient looks to his physician for a cure, when at best, and in most instances, the physician can only serve his patient by guiding him toward a cure.

As the patient in time, it is easy enough to remedy a diphtheritic infection with diphtheria antitoxin. The patient makes no contribution to this cure. But the case is otherwise when the sufferer is afflicted with indigestion, sleeplessness, chronic fatigue, or with any of the numerous constitutional and functional disturbances.

To begin with, the very diagnosis of these conditions frequently necessitates the closest cooperation of the patient. The treatment, to be effective, requires strict observance of the instructions given by the physician, and these in turn call for self-discipline and frequently for a radical change in the patient's viewpoint.

RECREATION NEWS

Douglas County Conditions Summarized in Forestry Service Bulletin.

North Umpqua District: Steelhead fishing on the upper North Umpqua has not been too active the past few days, probably because of the warm weather.

In effect, Roosevelt played politics with the appointment. But it should be remembered that every one in Washington, from the president down and perhaps even sometimes including supreme court justices, plays politics with anything he can get his hands on.

Another consideration included the improbability of confirmation trouble since the senate could hardly turn down a senator or its southern members turn against a fellow southerner. Chief points against Black are that he has a strong liberal record in recent years that he was originally elected with Ku Klux Klan backing, and that he failed to disclose anything like the full findings of his lobby investigation which flared so sensationally.

Although some are now calling him wild and radical, and as a southern chairman of the senate labor committee he was in a position to sponsor a wage-hour bill on the theory that higher living standards would revive the south, Roosevelt is said to be impressed by his "sound, cautious approach" to problems.

One also learns that Roosevelt sought to lay at rest the bogey of senatorial opponents who insisted that he never permit confirmation of any senator who had favored the court plan.

Black had been under terrific heat both here and at home. It is most important to remember that Roosevelt is willing to stir up masses of people in the south to the point where they will seek some of the more extreme conservative officials and elect those whom the president thinks would more truly represent them.

Some would have their cures as others take their cures, that is, passively. Contentedly, as the physician may whip up a reaction, there is no comparable method for passively acquiring a cure.

Part of this difficulty arises out of the very marvels of modern medicine, because so many specific remedies and cures such as antitoxins and immune sera are available for the effective treatment of certain infectious diseases, the belief is not that the physician is to put himself forward, specific remedies could be developed for all diseases.

The fact, however, is that science warrants no such hope or promise. The patient looks to his physician for a cure, when at best, and in most instances, the physician can only serve his patient by guiding him toward a cure.

As the patient in time, it is easy enough to remedy a diphtheritic infection with diphtheria antitoxin. The patient makes no contribution to this cure. But the case is otherwise when the sufferer is afflicted with indigestion, sleeplessness, chronic fatigue, or with any of the numerous constitutional and functional disturbances.

To begin with, the very diagnosis of these conditions frequently necessitates the closest cooperation of the patient. The treatment, to be effective, requires strict observance of the instructions given by the physician, and these in turn call for self-discipline and frequently for a radical change in the patient's viewpoint.

Some would have their cures as others take their cures, that is, passively. Contentedly, as the physician may whip up a reaction, there is no comparable method for passively acquiring a cure.

Part of this difficulty arises out of the very marvels of modern medicine, because so many specific remedies and cures such as antitoxins and immune sera are available for the effective treatment of certain infectious diseases, the belief is not that the physician is to put himself forward, specific remedies could be developed for all diseases.

The fact, however, is that science warrants no such hope or promise. The patient looks to his physician for a cure, when at best, and in most instances, the physician can only serve his patient by guiding him toward a cure.

As the patient in time, it is easy enough to remedy a diphtheritic infection with diphtheria antitoxin. The patient makes no contribution to this cure. But the case is otherwise when the sufferer is afflicted with indigestion, sleeplessness, chronic fatigue, or with any of the numerous constitutional and functional disturbances.

Community Fair Dates in Douglas

Loughlin—August 27. Canyonville—August 28. Globe—September 1. Sutherlin—September 2-4. Drain—September 12-18.