NEW YORK, Aug. 20.—(AP)—Charles Gehringer and Paul Wauer, a couple of pitchers' nightmares, went on the loose with their bats this week and set the pace for the big league club parade.

While Medwick of the Cardinals held a .400 average at the head of the National league for the week ended with yesterday's games, Wauer belted 15 hits in 20 chances to boost his average 1. points to .286, and take second place from Gabby Hartnett of the Cubs. Big Poison's driver cut Medwick's loop lead to 14 points.

Gehringer, banging out 14 hits in 25 chances, skyrocketed into first in the American league. The Tiger second-baseman boosted his mark 13 points to .278, while the leader in a week ago, Cecil Travis of the Senators, went into the hitting doldrums and sank to a tie for third.

Other hitting stars to the weeks were Ernie Lombardi of the Cincinnati Reds, who climbed into a tie for fifth place in the National league with .251; Joe DiMaggio of the Yanks, who jumped into second in the American league with 12 hits in 52 chances; and Jerry Walker of the Tigers and Rip Radcliff of the White Sox, each of whom boosted his average six points during the seven-day span.

W. J. Hayner of Sutherlin was a business visitor in Roseburg Thursday.

WILLIAMS' HITTING WINS FOR PADRES

Double Ties Score in 9th, Homer Brings Victory in 11th Inning.

(By the Associated Press)

Thanks to the hitting of young Ted Williams, the San Diego Padres' leadership in the Pacific coast league standings was increased to 35 games today.

Williams poked out a homer in the eleventh inning to give the Padres a 7 to 6 win over the San Diego club Sacramento Senators last night.

Los Angeles still cling to third place in the standings, by the slim margin of one game over the San Francisco Seals, despite a doubleheader drubbing by Seattle. The scores were 8 to 5 and 7 to 5.

Portland timely hits off Beck gave the Ducks a 4 to 1 victory over the San Francisco Mission, while Oakland's La Roca emerged with a 14-9 pitching duel win over the Seals' veteran Gibson.

Umpire Suspended.

Williams was the big shot at Sacramento, where the fans on Thursday night saw Umpire Jack Powell yanked and arrested on a charge of being drunk.

Powell failed to appear in police court yesterday in answer to the charge, thus forfeiting $10 bail, and League President W. C. Tuttle said at Los Angeles the umpire was relieved of further duties for the season. Tuttle said he would wait for "the official report and, if it is true, Powell is through as an umpire in this league."

But to get back to Williams: Sent into last night's game in the ninth frame, he doubled with the bases full to send across two runs and tied up the score. His homer came on his next turn at the bat, in the eleventh frame.

FALTERING CUBS' LEAD IS REDUCED

(By SID FIDLER)

(Associated Press Staff Writer)

The Cubs from Pittsburgh have suddenly become as hot as the weather. And, with the Cubs faltering, they're joining the Giants in making a strictly two-fisted brawl of it for the National league flag.

As things stood today, the Cubs were only two games in front of the Giants, while the Pirates, in fourth place and only half-a-game behind St. Louis, were some five games back of the New Yorkers.

The momentary breathing spell the Cubs enjoyed after Thursday's victory didn't last nearly long enough for them, for they dropped a 6-1 decision to the Reds last night in Cincinnati. This setback, coupled with the Giants 21-hit, 12-6 win over the Phillies, and the Pirates' 7-4 edge over the Cardinals on yesterday's bill, made it a horse from a different garage.

The Yankees stretched their American league margin to 123 games when Dickey's tenth-inning homer gave them an 8-7 edge over the Athletics. The second-place Tigers lost to the Browns, 11-6. The Indians topped the White Sox, 7-6, on Ayer's homer. The Senators socked the Red Sox, 3-1, and the Reds nosed out the Brooklyn Dodgers, 6-5.

JOE NOT NAMING ROUND HE'LL "WIN"

POMPTON LAKES, N. J., Aug. 21.—(AP)—Joe Louis is willing to talk freely on most subjects—especially baseball—but he is strangely silent on how long he thinks his bout with Tommy Farr next week will last.

"I feel fine and expect to win," he says, "but there's no chance of my naming the round."

"I picked a few very close, but I was only guessing," after the Max Schmeling bout I decided I should stop picking the round. The scrap with Bob Pastor also showed me it was fooling. So just say Joe feels great and expects to beat Tommy Farr; that's all."

MRS. GRAVES FOURTH WOMAN SENATOR

WASHINGTON, Aug. 20.—(AP)—Mrs. Dixie Bibb Graves of Alabama is the fourth woman ever appointed to the senate—and all four of them came from the south.

Next were two widows of former senators, Mrs. Hattie W. Caraway of Arkansas and Mrs. Rose Long of Louisiana. Mrs. Caraway, only woman ever elected to a full term, is still in the senate.

Mrs. Long, widow of Huey Long, gave up her seat on the senate last November to Allen J. Allen. She was not a candidate.

Blades of corn grow on the backs of sheep in Nebraska during last year's dust storms. The wool became packed with top soil and grains of feed corn. Eventual rains and the body heat of the sheep caused the corn to sprout.

Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Clarke of Oakland were business visitors in Roseburg Thursday.

LABOR FEUD KEEPS 7 SAWMILLS CLOSED

PORTLAND, Aug. 20.—(AP)—Both sides planned offensive moves today in the AFL-CIO battle which found seven Portland sawmills closed as AFL picketing protested the manufacture of lumber under the CIO banner.

Local AFL leaders called a "council of war" at Olympia early next week.

Harold Fritchett, president of the CIO-affiliated International Woodworkers of America, and Harry Cross, International Woodworkers' association counsel, will seek a national labor board election in the closed mills. A similar election in Tacoma resulted in 70 per cent of the employees of the St. Paul and Tacoma mill favoring the CIO, it was announced yesterday.

Operators of the closed mills, in their first public statement, asserted they would not reopen unless assured they can do so on a "peaceful, uninterrupted basis."

Efforts of AFL leaders to muster sufficient mill workers loyal to the federation from the ranks of the local lumber and sawmill workers' union to reopen the mills Monday had not succeeded.

From Astoria came reports of the picketing of six longings operations on Wolf creek being brought to an end by several automobile loads of men who are alleged to have torn up the picketers' banners and escorted them from the camps with a warning not to return.

The picketing was started by AFL drivers after the CIO loggers assertedly refused to load trucks not driven by members of the lumber and sawmill workers' union.
