

JOBS OR PENSIONS. DEMAND OF V. F. W.

BUFFALO, N. Y., Sept. 2—(AP)—The Veterans of Foreign Wars voted today to work "vigorous" for a general World War pension unless jobs are provided for unemployed ex-soldiers.

Delegates to the national V. F. W. convention adopted a threefold resolution proposed by Past Commander-in-Chief James E. Van Zandt of Albany, Pa.

This calls for: (1) laws giving preference to veterans in public jobs, (2) greater efforts to obtain private employment for veterans and (3) a pension of $50 a month for any needy veteran suffering with any permanent disability.

"In the event of failure of these proposals to prove equitable and effective," the endorsement voted to "work vigorously for the adoption of laws which shall provide adequate pensions for World War veterans on the basis of disability or age."

The veterans also voted for "investigation" of fascist, Nazi and communist influences in America. Another resolution which was adopted proposed dissolution of diplomatic relations with Russia.

A former commander-in-chief prepared to go before the convention and urge war buddies to demand that President Roosevelt invoke the nation's neutrality act immediately in the "undeclared" Sino-Japanese war.

ANGRY HOTEL CLERK
SLAYS MANAGER

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 2—(AP)—Disgruntled because a day off with pay was not granted, Sidney Fetherly, 61, hotel clerk, today shot and killed the manager, Peter Griffon, 40, police said, and then wounded his wife, Mrs. Madeline Griffon, 26.

Policeman Bert Sell said he was told that Fetherly was angered because Griffon had refused to give him a day off without deducting from his pay.

Mrs. Griffon was wounded in the arm.

She was taken to an emergency hospital where doctors found she was wounded seriously, the bullet having ploughed into her chest.

Hotel guests told Officer Sell that the clerk had argued all morning with the manager about being given a day off.

SAILOR FROM LOST
SHIP SWIMS ASHORE

PANAMA CITY, Fla., Sept. 2—A seaman swam ashore here today with news that the gulf coast freighter Tarpon went down several miles off East Pass, Fla., at 8:45 a. m. yesterday during a storm.

He said there were 25 aboard but expressed belief many of them would reach shore or be picked up by other vessels.

The seaman, Addley Baker of Mobile, reached shore at 10 a. m. today.

central labor council last night approved action of the Portland labor council in demanding removal of Charles W. Hope, as Seattle representative of the national labor relations board, and saw two of its unions withdraw "until such a time as the present disruption in the labor movement is straightened out."

Gust Anderson, secretary of the Portland labor council, told the Seattle body the Portland council had criticized Hope for his participation in an agreement that re-opened seven Portland lumber mills employing CIO unionists, the council claiming Hope had "failed to consider" an AFL proposal.

Branch 79 of the association of letter carriers withdrew "until the present disruption in the labor movement is straightened out" while the University of Washington Teachers' union, No. 401, announced it would send no new delegate to replace Selmon Moseley, who is appealing to the executive board of the AFL from his ouster from the council for attending CIO meetings.

PORTLAND SAWMILLS FACE
ANOTHER CLOSURE THREAT

PORTLAND, Sept. 2—The threat of another closure loomed today over Portland's CIO-owned sawmills as an AFL boycott tightened and picketing menaced vital log supplies.

The CIO lumber union, after two days of operation punctuated by intermittent violence and the dumping of fuel stocks, issued a statement last night charging the AFL with "gangster" tactics and calling on state and local authorities for protection.

An effort was underway the statement said, to contact Governor Martin to ask intervention by state officials. The union served notice that until protection was received members would "exercise our rights of self defense."

Reports to police yesterday said an unidentified AFL teamster received a serious knife wound and three CIO members suffered minor cuts in one of the day's outbreaks marking attempts of the mills to deliver fuel.

AFL officials announced addition of two more boats to the three already picketing log raft movements on the Willamette and Columbia rivers. One mill reported a log supply sufficient for "less than 24 hours," while others were "seriously pinched."

PORTLAND, Sept. 2—Employees of the U. P. John Furniture company, who voted Tuesday night to strike, accepted a new proposal providing wage increases of from 5 to 15 cents an hour last night, Fritz Hoff, union, business agent, announced.

The new scale was described as the highest in the nation. The plant employs 500 workers.

COQUILLE, Sept. 2—The Smith Wood Products company, largest employer in the Coquille valley, recognized the AFL lumber workers' union as collective bargaining agency for employees in an agreement announced by Ray Joub, manager.

Employees were given 30 days in which to make union affiliation.

The downtown area of Hongkong was demolished as completely as if it had been bombed. Streets were littered with the debris of shattered windows, collapsed walls, blown-down signs and the wrecks of automobiles.

Fifteen bodies were recovered from the fire caused by the gale. It was not known how many others were trapped in the flames and ruins of caved-in buildings.

MOUNTAINS BLASTED TO IMPEDE REBELS ADVANCE

HENDAYE, France—Spanish Premier, Sept. 2—(AP)—Astonish dynamite blew up a mountain of the Cuera range today, plunging a mass of rock, dirt and debris in the path of Spanish insurgent forces advancing against Gijon.

Despite border reports of negotiations for the surrender of Gijon to the insurgents, the Asturian miners fought bitterly against insurgent Generalissimo Franco's army, which is steadily pressing these back to the borders of their own province.

The Madrid-Vallencia government, heavy loser in Franco's northern campaign, reported near victory, however, on another front more than 200 miles away. Its forces were invading Beldite, an insurgent stronghold on the Aragon front, through gusts of machine gun fire and under heavy aerial bombardment.

Rebels Make Gains

The insurgents' Basque advance, designed to wipe out the last vestige of government control on the northern coast, was reported by a Franco communique to have brought easy occupation of villages near the border of Oviedo province, the old principality of Asturias.

A second column was reported to have reached the vicinity of Caldas, also near the provincial boundary. The Franco high command said jubilant residents of the towns in the path of the march on Gijon erected triumphal arches for the insurgent legionnaires.

Prisoners captured yesterday included an entire government battalion of 1,019 men.

Japanese army brought the entire length of the Peiping-Kalgan railroad under its domination, and dispatches from Kalgan said Japanese-ordered "peace maintenance commission" had been set up, similar to those already established in Peiping and Tientsin.

These were seen generally as forerunners to Japanese-controlled "autonomous" anti-communist governments in the north.

British ignore warning shortly before the sunset air raid, Japanese naval authorities warned the British army today to evacuate its outposts on the western boundary of the international settlement as they were preparing to bomb the Chinese communication lines in the adjacent Jesfield park district. The British did not reply.

The endangered British outposts are an extension of the line held by American marines. St. John's university is a scant few hundred yards from the Jesfield park station and the railroad and highway bridges across Soochow creek.

Japs Try To Reinforce

In a desperate effort to bolster her battered offensive on the Yangtze front 42 miles north of Shanghai, Japan was attempting to land approximately 42,000 fresh troops from the homeland on the Lohu and Woosung shores.

Crack Chinese divisions were holding up the Japanese advance all along the curving 20-mile battefront from the historic Woosung forts, through Paoshan to Lotied. There was fierce fighting in every sector.

American naval observers reported 14 Japanese transports off Lohu and 14 others off Woosung, endeavoring to discharge troops, tanks and heavy artillery.

American naval officers estimated this would bring Japan's forces in the Shanghai-Woosung-Lohu sector to more than 75,000 men, opposed to a Chinese strength of some 200,000.

No Headway Made

For days Japan has been landing reinforcements for the big push to sweep the Chinese out of the rich Shanghai commercial area, but in mid-afternoon they were making no headway against the desperate Chinese resistance.

The Japanese were attempting a sweeping enveloping movement to the west aimed at cutting off the Chinese and bottling them up in the peninsula formed by the Whangpoo and Yangtze rivers. The Chinese strategy was to fall back slowly, enticing the Japanese inland where they would be without the protection of the heavy guns of their warships.

Additional units, including cavalry, were landed by the Japanese at the Wayside wharf in the eastern international settlement.

LaFollette is one of the senators closest to Roosevelt. There has been speculation that he might receive administration support for the presidency in 1940.

Secretary Wallace, himself talked of as the possible democratic nominee, was asked about LaFollette yesterday at his press conference, but turned aside questions.

"I can do no speculation," he said. "You know I'm not a politician."

He added, grinning, that he had noted Postmaster General Easley was the pick of a national poll of public opinion and "necessarily, I fall in line with the democratic party."
