MID-WEEK BIBLE CLASS MEETS FRIDAY

The Mid-Week Bible class of St. Paul's Lutheran church held a most interesting meeting on Friday, October 1, at the home of Mrs. Mary and Mrs. Clyde Beecroft. The pastor led the class in discussion of chapter 15 and part of chapter 16 of the Book of Revelation. This was followed by a short business meeting. Mrs. Charles Mortimer was chosen president of the class for the year. The hostesses served delightful refreshments to Mrs. Hanel, Mrs. Warren Whiting, Mrs. Ben Craven, Mrs. M. Richardson, Mrs. William Vogt, Mrs. Earl Smith, Mrs. August Martin, Mrs. Louise Voigt, Miss Heusch, Mrs. Enoch Bruist, Mrs. Hoffman, Miss Vera Goetz, Miss Pearl Goetz, Mrs. Clara Gorby, Mrs. Coenenburg and Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Sylvester. The next meeting is to take place at the home of Mrs. Knoll Bruist on October 15.

MR. AND MRS. LINDSAY HONORED AT PARTY

A group of about fifty people gathered at the Elgaroon playshed on Saturday evening honoring Mr. and Mrs. Carl Lindsay Sr., of Santa Monica, Calif. Mr. and Mrs. Lindsay were for many years owners of the Melrose store which they developed from a one-room country store to the present thriving business. About six months ago they disposed of their business interests in Melrose and Roseburg and moved to California and are now spending a short time here as the guests of their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Lindsay Jr. They were heartily greeted by old friends who were glad to have the opportunity of meeting the Lindsays again. The evening was spent with games and conversation and at midnight a delicious lunch was served.

SAN FRANCISCO VISITOR HONORED AT PARTY

Mrs. Clifford Smith of San Francisco was the inspiration of a delightful gathering at the home of her sister, Mrs. W. O. Sandstrom on Sunday afternoon. The guests included Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Holmquist, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Sundberg, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. John Busenbark Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Gunner Johnson, Mrs. A. S. Anderson, Mrs. J. G. Sandstrom, and Edwin Busenbark. Mrs. Smith plans to leave for her California home on Tuesday.

The occasion was also the birthday of Mr. and Mrs. Sandstrom's small son, Ronald. At the tea hour, refreshments were served from a prettily appointed table centered with a decorated birthday cake to Miss Helen Johnson, Ruth Johnson, Donna and Donald Sandberg and Robert Holmquist, guests of Ronald. Master Ronald was the recipient of many attractive gifts.

Cougar-Raider Sought

PORTLAND, Oct. 4. (AP)—Deputy sheriffs "hunted to hounds" here today in an attempt to kill a marauding eight-foot cougar which raided a piesty at the edge of the city Friday night.

The cougar was seen by Albert B. Snodgrass, caretaker on Mrs. C. M. Smith's farm only a few feet outside the city limits, after he had been awakened by the squealing of shoats in the sty. Two pigs were killed and one almost entirely devoured. Snodgrass said he had missed young pigs all summer and believed the big panther had lived in the area for some time.
