BROTHER-SISTER WEDDING VOIDED

SPRINGFIELD, Mo., Oct. 29.—(AP)—A month-old secret marriage between brother and sister, in which neither of the principals was aware of the blood relationship until three days ago, was annulled yesterday by the Wright county court at Hartsville, Mo.

Ben Ipeck, 23, and his sister, Mary Lee, 21, on whose father's farm he was employed, were married September 27.

They were the children of Mr. and Mrs. Grant Ipeck, both of whom died in 1915 on a Wright county farm leaving the children homeless.

They were placed in the children's home at Jefferson City. The girl was adopted by Mr. and Mrs. Ben Williams, who live on a farm in Johnson county. The boy was reared by Mr. and Mrs. Sod Yocum of near Mountain Grove, Mo.

Ipeck secured a job on the Williams farm last summer. Mrs. Williams suspected the relationship when she learned the youth, who usually went by the name of Yocum, was really named Ipeck.

Fans See Snakes as Strippers Go

When the strip tease went out, Broadway and burlesque hunted a successor and found it in Zorita and her snake dance—with the above picture giving a hint why Zorita has been so successful. The snake is "Elmer," one of four Algerian blue bull snakes in Zorita's act, a dance based on a mythological tale of a warrior lover turned into a snake. Between acts charming Zorita takes her slithering charges out for strolls around town.
