

EAGLES TO GREET EX-NATIONAL HEAD

Roseburg avies, Fraternal Order of Eagles, will have as guest speaker on Tuesday, Dr. Lehmann of Oakland, Calif., a former national president of the fraternity.

Dr. Lehmann is one of the most popular leaders in the order, and plans are being made for one of the largest meetings of the year. Worthy President Carl Murphy said today:

Main topics of the address will include a discussion of the fraternity's crusades for legislation to help the dependent and the underprivileged, said the officer of the local avies.

"The first purpose of our order," said Murphy, "is to protect our members through payment of sick benefits, funeral benefits and by providing them and their dependents with physicians' services."

"Long ago, Eagle leaders determined, however, that the principle of protection should be extended to non-Eagles as well. Hence, the E. O. E. began to stress social welfare activities which react as favorably upon the fortunes of non-members as upon the fortunes of members of the order. Through our campaigns for mothers' pension, workmen's compensation, and old age pension laws we have been successful in giving to all Americans a greater degree of economic security."

"We are now backing a stabilization of employment measure—the Eagle-Laddow bill—because we believe that our country will be safe from severe economic depression with their consequent widespread suffering only when workers have steady jobs at a saving wage."

Delegations, headed by many leaders in this area, will attend from Medford, Grants Pass, Cottage Grove and coast avies.

DIVISION OF COUNTY HOME WORK URGED

Mask, who had been held in custody since last July following his arrest upon accusations by a minor step-daughter, was released from custody following the action of the grand jury in returning a not true bill.

Melching was arrested recently with Chapman, on a charge of attempting a robbery at the Safeway grocery store in Roseburg. Responsibility for the crime was placed by the grand jury upon Chapman, against whom an indictment was brought.

Hogan had been accused of issuing bad checks while serving as bookkeeper of the Bradley grocery store, which was closed recently. Cole had been accused of forging the name of a relative to a promissory note, while Matson was charged with an assault while armed with a pistol.

In each case of exoneration the grand jury found insufficient evidence to support the charges.

The names of persons against whom charges were brought in the four sealed indictments were withheld until arrests could be made.

County Home Plights Heard

The report accompanying the indictments and not true bills, said that all cases had been investigated and a careful inquiry made into management of various county departments, particularly the county home and hospital.

"The grand jury heard a number of persons who claimed mismanagement at the institution, but reported that it found conditions satisfactory, considering the rooming facilities," and that "both institutions are now under efficient management."

It was, however, recommended that the head nurse of the hospital be placed in charge of the hospital under the supervision of the county physician, and that the superintendent be in charge of the home.

The jury also recommended that employing and discharging of employees of the respective institutions be under the control and supervision of the county court, and that all supplies, insofar as possible, be purchased on bids through the county court.

It was the jury's recommendation that the budget committee set aside a sinking fund for the next four or five years to provide money for new structures.

HEAVY TOLL TAKEN BY SYRIAN FLOODS

DAMASCUS, Syria, Nov. 2.—(AP)—Syrian officials announced today that recent floods in the northern part of the country had caused 1,235 known deaths, and that 50,000 persons were estimated to be homeless.

Villages over a 3,000 square mile area were inundated by rain waters rushing down the Kalamoun mountains and rising to a height of 20 feet in some districts.

Rainfall the past few days exceeded by 50 per cent a 20-year average.

Property damage was estimated at $15,000,000.

French soldiers added organization of relief camps.

MYSTERY SLAYING IN CHICAGO CLEARED

CHICAGO, Nov. 2.—(AP)—Police Capt. Daniel Gilbert announced today that a confession by Anthony Sapienza, who grew a mustache and sideburns and knocked out one of his teeth to disguise himself, brought a complete solution to the mysterious Grant park slaying last August 22 of Herbert W. Lee.

Gilbert said Sapienza, 32, who was captured in Shreveport, La., while he stamped the Lord's prayer on souvenir pennies at a carnival booth, confessed he fired the shot that killed Lee in a moonlight holdup.

Lee, formerly of Detroit, was walking with Lucille Inelcher, blonde party girl, when attacked.

PLUNGE INTO HOT WATER KILLS BRIDE

SEATTLE, Nov. 2.—(AP)—Without realizing conscientiousness to describe the accident, Mrs. Patricia Richardson, 23-year-old bride, died today of burns she received Saturday in a plunge into a bathtub of scalding water.

Police still detained her husband, Dell Richardson, of Portland, who married her at Vancouver, Wash., early last week. Detective Capt. Scatford said he would be questioned further.

Richardson said his wife leaped into the tub when she became hysterical because he refused to give her a sedative she wanted. Scatford said the woman also had a black eye and broken wrist.

BRUSSELS, Nov. 2.—(AP)—China's spokesman at the Brussels conference today said "Japanese forces will overrun the boundaries of China and throw the world into a general war" unless she is checked.

The spokesman, Dr. Y. K. Wellington Koo, made the prediction after hearing five important powers make an appeal for direct negotiations between China and Japan to seek a solution to the far

C.I.O. BEATEN AT DETROIT ELECTION

Summary of Results

Because of the dominance of local issues, party leaders found few clues to national political trends in the scattered off-year elections. Late returns showed today that:

Senator A. Harry Moore of New Jersey won back for the democrats the governorship he has held twice, leaving the republicans with only six governors out of 48.

Times Barton, advertising executive and author, was elected to the house from New York's 33rd district, replacing a democrat and increasing republican strength in that branch of congress by one. Three other congressional elections to fill vacancies developed no party switches.

Former Gov. James M. Curley of Massachusetts lost his political comeback race for mayor of Boston to Maurice J. Tobin, 35, in a non-partisan five-man contest.

Cornelius B. Scully, democrat, won reelection as mayor of Pittsburgh.

James H. Pries, democrat, was easily elected governor of Virginia. Cleveland, re-elected republican Mayor Harold H. Burton.

Thus run the returns—the democratic victories here, republican triumphs there.

LA GUARDIA AGAIN DOWNS TAMMANY

many mayor in the city's history since post-Revolutionary times to be re-elected. He carried all of New York's five boroughs.

The total vote was the highest ever cast in a purely local election—2,233,697—and LaGuardia's vote was the largest ever given a mayoral candidate in New York.

The American labor party vote for LaGuardia totaled 482,459, and the republican total for him was 672,823.

American labor party officials were jubilant, predicting a state vote of 800,000 next year. But Kenneth F. Simpson, New York county republican leader, warned strategy lined up fusion, progressives, American labor, socialist and communist support behind the winning city-wide slate he picked, was even more jubilant.

The republican vote of 672,823 for the mayor was the largest on record. Moreover, the victory pointed to Simpson's own satisfaction, his formula for republican party recovery—a series of local party victories achieved by coalition with all available dissident elements "giving the voters candidates and issue they will vote for."

Farley Disappointed

The result of the election was a disappointment to Postmaster General James A. Farley, national and New York state democratic chairman, a generally unerring political strategist, who came home to assume personal command of the Mahoney campaign several weeks ago. He was aided by Gov. Roosevelt, H. Lehman, and United States Senators Robert F. Wagner and Royal S. Copeland.

Although the election may have considerable effect upon democratic party prestige locally, and may affect the future plans of Farley, the "New Deal" was not an issue, since both candidates professed allegiance to it, especially to its social, labor and relief policies.

Roosevelt Congratulates

President Roosevelt, personally friendly to LaGuardia, maintained a "hands off" attitude during the campaign, but last to time after the outcome was certain in telephoning his congratulations to the mayor.

Fiercely little LaGuardia in his campaign excoriated Tammany and stressed "honest, efficient municipal administration." Mahoney, cool, reserved head of the A. A. V., a former judge and wealthy lawyer, stressed the "red issue" and accus-

Five city-county supervisors, James R. McSheehy, George R. Reilly, Adolph Uhl, James M. Hutto and Adolph E. Schmidt, were returned to office.

As to the future, he declared: "New York City will be administered during the next four years as it has been administered by me during the last four years. Good, efficient, honest government will continue."

"No mercy, no quarter, no consideration will be given to any criminal, racketeer, gangster, pay-roll leech, or grafter."

LaGuardia, raised in the old southeast, and often proclaiming that he gave allegiance to no party and no boss, said after his election: "The people... have had four years of my kind of good government. They have rendered their verdict."

Mahoney said, after conceding defeat: "The mass of people today in such a crowded city as New York are for such a radical political philosophy (as LaGuardia's) and in addition to that a large number of our people have felt he had given an administration free from corruption."

Says Machine Doomed

Mayor LaGuardia today predicted the "doom forever" of political machine government in New York City.

"The idea of non-political government is contagious, and all over the country cities are taking a keen interest in it," the fusionist mayor said, in a victory interview at city hall.

He attributed his victory to the fact that "people want good government when they can get it." He assailed the "emotional appeals and demands for party loyalty, even when made by statesmen in high position."

"Political machine government,
