

INDIANS CONFIDENT OF VICTORY TONIGHT

Game Against Springfield Will Be Last on Finlay Field for 11 Lads.

(By M. W. B.)
Tonight's tilt between Roseburg and Springfield marks the locale final game of the 1937 football season, and what is more important, the final appearance on Finlay field in football uniform for eleven members of the orange and black gridiron squad, six of them in the starting line up tonight, and the remaining five first string replacements.

Nonchalance Worries Coach
But Coach Watts has other worries on his mind besides those resulting from thoughts of next year's prospects, and that is the job on hand of winning tonight's game. The Indian mentor is finding it difficult to make his proteges take this last game seriously. The fact that the Indians have never lost to the Millers in six years of competition has a lot to do with it, as well as the fact that Springfield's worst defeat this season came from the hands of Cottage Grove, a team that the Indians licked handily.

Weather conditions indicate a sloppy field, which will probably be much more to the liking of the

CROCHETED SCOTTIES FOR BUFFET

By RUTH ORR
PATTERN NO. 545
The mode for dogs here, there and everywhere does not seem to wane. These attractive puppers add life and interest to your buffet. They are made in knitting and crocheted cotton, so the whole set is the work of only a few hours. The pattern envelope contains complete, easy-to-understand illustrated directions, with two blocks and space diagrams to aid you; also what crocheted hook and what material and how much you will need.

To obtain this pattern, send for No. 545 and enclose 10 cents in stamps or coin (coin preferred) to cover service and postage. Address News-Review, Needlework Department, Roseburg, Ore.

Orange and Black than to Springfield. The Indians can "take it," have "taken it," and can "dish it out" when the ball is slippery and the footing unsteady. They proved this at Cottage Grove, at Marshall, and on Armistice day here, when Grants Pass got the jump on them with a first period touchdown. The Indians came back to tie in the second half, and dominated the game throughout, and it was only an inspired Cavanaugh defense that prevented Roseburg from putting over the winning score.

It's the last opportunity to see the Indians put on another one of those "extra special" exhibitions which have so delighted fans in past games, win or lose, and tonight's tussle will be no exception. The kickoff is scheduled at 5 p. m.

The starting lineup for Roseburg will be: Campbell (66) and Fies (61), ends; Josse (68) and Hennich (63), tackles; Kershner (55) and Howe (59), guards; Helmboldt (60), center; Marshall (64), quarterback; Rutter (50) and Sanders (53), halfbacks; Fritts (62), fullback.

Reserves are: Fishman (54), Hargis (56), Sam Thompson (57), Duncan (58), Simon (65), Sutton (51), Eppstein, Albertus, Seefeld, Briscoe, Perry, Ballard, Shoemaker, T. Thompson, Cox, Foltz, Anderson, Cacy, Barker and Adair.

BEARS FAVORED 3-1 TO DOWN STANFORD

Game Holds Championship of Conference and Rose Bowl Classic Bid.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 19.—(AP)—Traditional rivals of far western football, California's Golden Bears and the Stanford Indians will fight it out tomorrow for the Pacific Coast Conference championship and an invitation to the New Year's day Rose Bowl classic.

Though rainy weather was in prospect, a sellout crowd of 89,099 was expected for the outstanding game in the west. Other conference contests will pit Oregon against Washington at Seattle and Washington State against Oregon State at Corvallis.

In an inter-sectional game at Los Angeles, the Bruins of U. C. L. A. will meet the Southern Methodist Mustangs from Dallas, Tex., and a battle of passing was expected. S. M. U. was the favorite.

University of Montana's Grizzlies, strongest in years, were expected to keep their record unblemished in a game with University of Idaho at Moscow.

The 33rd annual contest at Palo Alto will be a "big game" in fact as well as tradition. A California victory or a tie would gain the title for the Bears; a Stanford win would leave the teams tied for the championship, with the Rose Bowl representative to be chosen by a ballot of conference members.

California, undefeated but tied by Washington, was a three-to-one favorite. Stanford lost to Oregon and tied Oregon State.

At Seattle, Washington's Huskies, who hammered down University of California at Los Angeles 29 to 7 last Saturday, were favored over University of Oregon, which took a shellacking by the same count from California.

Oregon State, in third place in conference standings, was given an edge over three-beaten Washington State at Corvallis.
