By Blosser

IT REALLY HAPPENED IN FOOTBALL!

UNOFFICIAL gameplay in a football game was pulled to good advantage during part of a Clemson-Virginia Polytechnic Institute contest at Columbia, S. C., years ago.

Clemson's backs stood well behind the line of scrimmage and after the ball was passed from center these backfield men, spread almost entirely across the field, passed it back and forth—more like basketball than football. Suddenly, a spectator, whooped in the play, fired a gun at the sidelines, and the Clemson back, who had the ball at the time, was off for a good gain through a scattered defense. The referee, however, finally located the gun-toter, ruled it "conching from the sidelines," and banned further use of the play. V. P. I. won 17-11.
