

WAY THOUGHT OPEN FOR VOTE ON TAXES

No Blocking by Roosevelt Expected; Uncertainty as to Surf Voiced.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 25.—(AP)—Congressmen advocating immediate revision of corporate taxes expressed the belief today that President Roosevelt would not block a vote at the special session.

Some of them said they were convinced by recent talks with the chief executive that he was willing to modify the corporate surplus and capital gains taxes and that he would agree to early consideration.

The campaign to revise corporate taxes at the special session ran into a new obstacle, however, Treasury officials expressed doubt over the amount of revenue that might be obtained from the substitute measure tentatively approved by a house sub-committee.

In announcing approval Tuesday of a substitute for the present undistributed profits law, sub-committee members said it would raise as much revenue as the rates they proposed to eliminate.

Treasury experts since then, however, have indicated uncertainty on this point. They reserved decision pending completion of more detailed estimates.

Chairman Vinson (D-Ky.) of the sub-committee said the new measure "is a real undistributed profits tax, but it is reasonable. It gives more premium for distribution."

Quick Action Urged
The completion of this substitute proposal gave new impetus yesterday to the demands for quick revision. A powerful bloc of senators organized a campaign to vote on the substitute immediately without waiting for a bill completely overhauling the tax system.

Administration leaders, still striving to get President Roosevelt's special session program moving, refused to be swept off their feet. They were just getting senate debate on the farm bill started, and had not even progressed that far in the house.

Democratic Leader Barkley in the senate noted that only three weeks of the special session remained. He expressed doubt whether portions, could be pushed through the house, the senate committee, and the senate itself in that time.

No "Botch" Wanted
Barkley furthermore advised against a "botch" tax revision. He said that with income tax returns not due until next March, it was important to go slow in revising the revenue laws.

While there were evidences that the pressure for quick action was being felt in the house committee, members of that group went on with their job of drafting a broad tax revision program. They turned from a study of the corporate taxes to the depression-buster "radio" taxes on movie tickets, cosmetics, etc.

Chairman Vinson would not predict when the job would be finished and added that the tax framers would take "whatever time is needed." He has forecast previously that the work would not be complete until the January session of congress.

WIDOW'S ESCORT SLAIN IN TRIANGLE

NORTH ADAMS, Mass., Nov. 25.—(AP)—Police today questioned a young North Adams man who they said shot and killed Leo Lincoln, 23, as he escorted Mrs. Martha Berthiaume, 33, to her home after a holiday eve dance.

Police Captain John Flaherty said the shooting apparently was motivated by the assailant's infatuation for Mrs. Berthiaume.

Although no formal charge had been placed against the man, District Attorney Gowdy said he undoubtedly would bring a first degree murder charge against him.

Flaherty said Mr. Berthiaume, mother of two children, told him the assailant was hiding in her bedroom when she returned with Lincoln.

"I'm going to kill both of you," she said their assailant cried. He fired five shots. Two struck and killed Lincoln. The man then cornered Mrs. Berthiaume in a bathroom but was felled by a milk bottle by her 13-year-old son, Fred, who summoned police.

Mrs. Berthiaume's husband is a patient in a state hospital. She said the accused slayer often had asked her to have the marriage annulled and wed him.

WOMAN ATTACKER CLAIMS 3RD VICTIM

MEXICO, Mo., Nov. 25.—(AP)—Her skull fractured, Mrs. Margaret Mortimer, 49, died in a hospital today after being slugged by an unidentified assailant, perhaps the same man who attacked two other women here within the last year.

Returning from a shopping trip, she was struck down last night in front of a vacant house near her home, where trees shaded the street lights. A girl, Gladys Potts, who was half a block away, heard a scream and, frightened, ran ahead.

Two hours later, Orvid Holtman, a neighbor, heard groans and found Mrs. Mortimer, wife of a bank supply company official, unconscious in the yard of the empty house, where she had been dragged after the attack. Nearby was a heavy piece of wood, splattered with blood.

Col. Marvin Casteel, head of the state highway patrol, and six officers came to Mexico to aid in the hunt for the slayer. Bloodhounds taken to the scene were unable to pick up his trail.

PONTIAC WORKERS TO RESUME JOBS

Chrysler, However, Lays Off 10,000 in Reduced Output Schedule.

DETROIT, Nov. 25.—(AP)—The first of nearly 15,000 General Motors workers at Pontiac who were made idle by a strike will return to work tomorrow, but approximately 10,000 Chrysler employees at Detroit learned today that they have been laid off.

E. R. Lesler, manager of the Fisher Body plant at Pontiac, which was held by sit-down strikers five days, announced some departments will resume operations tomorrow and the full force will be back on duty Monday.

The Pontiac motor car factory, which closed when the flow of bodies from the Fisher plant was shut off, is expected to reopen as soon as these are available again.

The Chrysler Corp. amplified its curtailment announcement by saying last night that approximately 10,000 of its 55,000 employees in the Detroit area have been laid off and the work week reduced, under provisions of its contract with the United Automobile Workers of America, from 40 to 32 hours. The lay-off was made necessary by reduced production schedules.

Spokesmen for General Motors Corp. and the Ford Motor Co. said they have made no general reductions in the number of workers. Ford was late in beginning production of 1938 models and has not completed stocking its dealers. General Motors said its total em-

CORN AND WHEAT IN CROP CONTROL BILL

WASHINGTON, Nov. 25.—(AP)—Crop control provisions of the house farm bill included: Corn—Farmer-approved marketing quotas which would be imposed when indicated yield and carry-over was more than 15 per cent above normal; penalty tax of 15 cents a bushel for sale of above-quota production; acreage allotments based on production average of preceding ten years; loans of from 55 to 75 per cent of parity for storage of excess production to maintain "ever-normal" granary.

Wheat—Farmer-approved marketing quotas when it was indicated the yield and carry-over would be 25 per cent above normal; acreage allotments; loans of unspecified amounts; penalty tax of 15 cents a bushel for sale of above-quota production.

Agriculture department officials said today American wheat farmers would be subject to marketing quotas probably three years out of four under the senate crop control bill.

That measure would provide for a wheat farmer referendum on marketing quotas when domestic wheat supplies reached $29,000,000 bushels.

Except in drought years, officials said, it is normal for annual wheat supplies to exceed this level.

Although there was no official comment from the department, informed persons said suggestions probably would be made to Congress that the marketing quota level be raised to about $50,000,000 bushels. More than $170,000,000 is spent annually by the forty-eight states for the upkeep of primary highways.
