

Apostoli Beats Middleweight Champ

BOUT WITH STEELE HALTED IN NINTH

Title Holder Mauled Into Helplessness; Foul Blow Adds to Downfall.

By GAYLE TALBOT
NEW YORK, Jan. 7 (AP)—Fred Apostoli, swarthy San Francisco, has ripped and torn the middleweight champions of two continents into helplessness, feeling helpless, and he still has nothing more tangible to show for it than the championship of California.

Last night the former holdup gave Freddie Steele such a savage beating that the bout was stopped in the ninth with the American 160-pounder being virtually out on his feet.

"I know I could do it," he yelled. "I've only lived the last three years to get that guy in the ring. Now if he doesn't give me a title fight I'll claim it anyway."

He might just as well start claiming, for Steele, a world champion as he lay in his dressing room, wouldn't even discuss the possibility of a return encounter with the human machine gun, at any weight. Apostoli was forced to come in last night at 161, so it was no vice.

"I'll never fight in this town again," roared the battered champion as an ice pack was applied to his lower groin, where wild Apostoli left a mark in the seventh round. "They wouldn't give me half the baggage I needed for my hands."

The low punch alone clouded Apostoli's victory. It clearly was accidental. Referee Arthur Doro held up the battle fully to seconds until Steele had recovered sufficiently to go on. Later, he blamed the punch for his defeat.

Steele Badly Mauled

Steele was the perfect boxer, the sharpshooter, cool and quiet. Apostoli crowded into him, smart and cunning in the clinch, and throwing the heavier punches. As early as the second round he staggered Steele with a right and twice beat him into the ropes. He gave the champion another bad beating in the third, but Steele never ceased hitting Steele back. Which Steele came back to take the fourth and fifth the champion's supporters, who had given odds of 12 to 5 before the bout, began to breathe easier. But Apostoli must only have been resting. From the moment the sixth round opened until Donovan left Steele to his corner in the fifth the San Francisco boy was on top. The ring siders thought he would have won without the low blow.

Steele took a terrible beating in the eighth. Apostoli clipped him with a staggerer left at the outset, and then, by actual count, measured the dazed champion with 51 more lefts and rights to the head before the bell finally sounded. It looked like Steele's head would be torn off, but he refused to go down.

GLIDE HIGH QUINT DEFEATS OAKLAND

GLIDE, Jan. 7.—Glide high school basketball team scored its first victory of the school year here Tuesday night when it defeated Oakland 19-17. The last point for Glide was scored after the final whistle as Howard Wood, Glide center, sank a foul shot for a personal foul made by Todd of Oakland just as the whistle blew.

A high-point man of the game was Stearns of Oakland with 19 points. His scoring spree was cut short, however, when he left the game on fouls in the third quarter. Lloyd Bond of Glide was next high with 9 points.

Although Glide led 12-5 at the half, the game was hotly contested during the last two quarters. The score was tied at 12-12 at the final period began, but a couple of lucky breaks enabled Glide to eke out its two-point win in retaliation for a one-point defeat at Oakland several weeks ago.

Oakland 17	Glide 19
Stearns (19)	Bond (9)
Halcanson P	Singleton C
Todd C	Wood (12)
Cole (5)	Stearns (11)
Huff (2)	Blackly (15)

Referee: Darrel Copeland. Side stations: Oakland—Bennett for Stearns, Hammond for Cole.

Preliminary to the basketball game was a volleyball contest between girls of the two schools, in which Oakland won easily, 21-20. High-point server for the winners was Boxington, playing second in the lineup, who made 15 points. Evelyn Blakely scored 2 to lead the losers.

EDDIE SPINA LOSES DECISION TO DANO

PORTLAND, Jan. 8.—(AP)—Pablo Dano, 125-pound champion of Los Angeles, gained a decision over Eddie Spina of Portland after ten rounds in the main event of a boxing show here last night.

Greater speed, experience and punching ability gave Dano an edge in six rounds. Spina, who weighed 127, took two rounds and two were even.

Mike Kanski, Fargo, N. D., 151 pounds, knocked out Larry Gagnon 101, Portland, in the first round of the six-round semi-final.

Gains Fistic Glory But No Title

Because the defending middleweight champion, Freddie Steele, forced him to enter the ring over the class weight, Fred Apostoli, above, former San Francisco holdup, can claim no title after decisively whipping Steele in New York City last night. Steele was battered into submission in nine rounds. He gained decisions over Apostoli in two previous battles, and was a betting favorite to win last night.
