LADIES COTERIE CLUB HAS MEETING

GLENDALE, Jan. 21.—Mrs. C. W. Ingham, assisted by Mrs. Carl J. Sether, was hostess to members of the Ladies Coterie club Wednesday afternoon when despite bad weather twenty-five members answered the roll call by naming an early American author. The annual report, prepared by Mrs. W. S. Price, showed 248 books as property of the library; 1111 books having been loaned during the past year and a total of 278 borrowers being registered. The Rogers & Lumbermen's Protective association donated the balance in their treasury, $29.50, to the library which will be used for purchasing new books. The program consisted of five-minute sketches on the lives of the following authors: Henry W. Longfellow, by Mrs. Virgil McCollum and read by Mrs. Foran Harrell; Oliver Wendell Holmes, by Mrs. W. L. Woodys and read by Mrs. Ingham; John Greenleaf Whittier, Mrs. R. B. Gardner; William Cullen Bryant, Mrs. C. G. Richards; Louisa May Alcott, Mrs. Harvey Smith; and Harriet Beecher Stowe by Mrs. Lloyd Baker. A short lesson in parliamentary law was given by Mrs. R. F. Mouchart. Following the program a social hour with refreshments was enjoyed with Mrs. J. E. Howell and Mrs. C. E. Hilde presiding at the tables.

CHAUTEMPS GIVEN CONFIDENCE VOTE

PARIS, Jan. 21.—(AP)—The chamber of deputies tonight voted confidence in the new government of Camille Chautemps, 501 to 1, after hearing its appeal for national unity in the face of dangers confronting France.

It was the first test for the government formed Tuesday after a five-day cabinet crisis resulting from grave labor strife, the fall of the franc and diplomatic setbacks. The ministerial declaration of policy promised to continue the people's front program of social reforms. It asked for "an atmosphere of industry, voluntary discipline and civic accord."

FILIBUSTER'S END TO BE ATTEMPTED

(Continued from page 1) too rapid. E. H. Lane, of Alta Vista, Va., head of a cedar chest company, expressed the opinion the house ways and means committee's tax revision program would be worse than the 1936 undistributed profits tax act. He complained to the committee particularly against the proposed special tax on closely held corporations.

Housing Deadlock Ends — Agreement on the administration's housing bill by a senate-house committee broke today the three-week deadlock that has held up congressional approval of measures passed at the recent special session.

The conference committee eliminated a senate amendment to require payment of prevailing wages for construction of homes financed under the program. Senator Lodge (R., Mass.), author of the amendment, said he would try to reinstate it when the senate votes on approving the compromise bill. Powerful labor forces supported the prevailing wage requirement. Administration supporters have expressed hope the measure will go far toward revising the lagging construction industry, for it is designed to encourage private investment in housing.

WOOL

BOSTON, Jan. 21.—(AP)—The Commercial Bulletin will say tomorrow: "Further more progress appears to have been made this week towards establishing a new trading basis for wool. The market appears to be steadier here and this condition undoubtedly has been helped materially by the stronger position of the foreign markets. London, especially, opened much stronger than had been expected and has been well maintained, even discounting the apparent flash-in-the-pan buying reported by Russia."

"While there is a little more activity in summer street, it has not been pronounced, nor has the buying at country points been heavy. Prices still are irregular and on the easy side but traders appear to be nearer together. Meanwhile the goods market grows steadily more liquid and some business is being done in a lagged way.

"Mohair moves very moderately. Prices are hardly changed." The Bulletin will publish the following quotations: Secured fine: Oregon: Fine and f. m. staple 74-76; fine and f. m. clothing 64-65. Mohair: Oregon 39-40. (Foreign prices in bond.)
