NOLAN PICTURED

AS MURDER PLANNER

PORTLAND, Jan. 28 — (AP)—
District Attorney Rain, in a final argument to a circuit court jur, assorted today that Keylor Noland, 22-year-old violinist, contemplated murder when he went to a Reed college dormitory last October and assaulted Miss Winifred Ayres, instructor, with a milk bottle.

Bain remarked that Noland was motivated by his rejection by his aveetheart, Janc Easly, student at the college, and that he resolved to kill her if he had to rather than let someone else have her. He pictured Noland as pampered and each of the defendant, acted as the intalcian's counsel, assaled at the college, and that he resolved to kill her if he had to rather than let someone else have her. He pictured Noland as pampered and gampered and father of the defendant, acted as the materian's counsel, assaled the college developed. Leaving later, he said he was accosted by Miss Ayres, who grappled with him.

Casey attacked Miss Ayres' textiment that should be a defended to refer the defendant, acted as the materian's counsel, assaled at the congressional delegation to vote the defendant and the performance.
