Cooper, Mrs. Andrew Imrie, Mrs. Ray Petrequin, Mrs. E. M. Seely, Mrs. Leonard Cooper, Mrs. H. G. American Legion Auxiliary Activities

National Defense week for the American Legion and its auxiliary has been set for February 12 to 22, or the period between the birthdays of two of our great Americans, Abraham Lincoln and George Washington. The observance of this period is under the official sponsorship of the Reserve Officers of America. All during the interim program will be presented in various localities to remind the citizenry that the American Legion and the American Legion auxiliary take a definite stand with regard to national defense. Briefly, it is expressed thus: That adequate national defense must be maintained as an essential to peace, security and prosperity.

Umpqua unit will celebrate National Defense week locally in a very appropriate way by giving the annual library benefit tea. The proceeds from this silver tea will be used exclusively to purchase books on citizenship which will be presented to the city library for the particular use of the students of Roseburg schools. The purpose of this project is to further the development of fine civic-minded citizenship, which is the best defense for any nation. Hostesses for this event are the past presidents of Umpqua unit, Mrs. H. F. Hatfield and Mrs. Ned Dixon, chairmen; Mesdames Earle B. Stewart, Guy Gordon, Carl Winberry, Clair Allen, Jay Pulcher, H. C. Church, Clinton Gorthy, George Caskey, George Wharton, Roy Young, Thomas Parkinson, and Miss Pearl Jones. A very fine program is promised. The hours are from two-thirty to five, Monday afternoon, February 4, in the civic room of the Umpqua hotel. The general public is most cordially invited to attend.

A series of parties will be given by Umpqua unit for the pleasure of convalescent patients at the veterans facility. The first occasion was a dancing party held Tuesday evening, February 8. The veterans and the following auxiliary members and friends were present: Mrs. Walter Fisher, Mrs. E. F. Tandy, Mrs. A. H. Mountford, Mrs. Kenneth Kinney, Mrs. Ireland, Mrs. George McBee, Mrs. Edward Hines, Mrs. J. M. Judd, Mrs. E. A. Post, Mrs. Thomas Parkinson, Mrs. Nance Fitzsimmons, Mrs. Kinonhammer, Mrs. L. H. Riegel, Mrs. Roy Young, Mrs. Helene Anderson, Mrs. Clinton Gorthy, Mrs. R. G. Baker and Mrs. E. J. Rodgers. Mrs. Irving Riegel, department hospital chairman, and Mrs. Roy Young, unit hospital chairman, presided at the punch bowl.

March is officially the auxiliary's community service month but from the enthusiasm expressed over a number of civic projects at the last meeting it seems that Umpqua unit is getting a head start in the race for community betterment. Indeed, this is Umpqua's banner year for community service. Shall we just mention a few of the most interesting that are receiving a lot of attention?

At a recent luncheon meeting of the executive committee the final step was taken that led to the acquiring of several vacant lots south of Rose school. These are to be given to the city for a needed addition to the playground which serves the children of south and central Roseburg. Playground equipment is to be installed thereon.

Equally appealing to us with the "chamber of commerce" spirit is the proposed memorial tree lane. Seems it's going to be a lot of fun, too, along with the work on this tree planting project. Plans are being made for a big noonday feed on the day the Legionnaires don their overalls and dig holes for the Norway maples. With Pearl Jones and Dessie Tipton, chief culinary artists, what a feast there will be! Everyone will want to dig holes that day. Watch carefully for the date.

The dessert supper meetings have proved so popular that they are to be continued during the spring. Speakers for them have been excellent and last meeting maintained the standard. All present enjoyed the interesting address by Legionnaire F. L. Crittenden, whose talk was exceptionally fine, and the delightful music by Mrs. Joseph Deets. Hostesses for this meeting were George Wharton and Mrs. Louis Josse.

There will be another good session next Tuesday, February 15, son "as review" till then. And, don't forget—you have an engagement with the past "prexies" at the library tea on Valentine afternoon—place, Hotel Umpqua.
